The Ladies Bible Class of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, taught by Mrs. Edward Hallman, the minister's wife, held an old-fashioned quilting bee all day yesterday in the Sunday school rooms, completing an album quilt, to be presented to the Bethesda Mission. At midday a luncheon was served with various kinds of sandwiches made of war breads, tea and coffee. In the party were Mrs. Hallman, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Kinnard, Mrs. Marks, Mrs. Gourley, Mrs. Speakman, Mrs. Rhorer, Mrs. Kammerer, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Zeiders, Mrs. Rhenn and Mrs. Hasson.

AUSTRIA SEEKS TO MAKE PEACE WITH THE LATINS

Concessions, Approved by Huns, Said to Have Been Offered Italy

Washington, May 22.—It is reported in diplomatic circles here that Austria offered concessions to Italy with a view to obtaining a separate peace. Italy is said to have refused to consider the proposals. It is understood that Austria was moved by her internal difficulties to make the overtures, especially by the trouble she is having with her Slav subjects.

Germany is reported to have brought pressure to bear upon Austria to make what she regarded adequate concessions to Italy, for Germany wished to eliminate Italy from the war and moreover to relieve the stress within Austria herself.

Austria as an ally is fast becoming a burden rather than an aid to Germany, for the task of sustaining her as combatant falls upon Berlin. Since Italy reached an agreement with the Junco-Slavs Austria's future has become precarious and the need of obtaining peace with Italy which will prevent her fomenting revolution among the Slavs more imperative.

The policy of supporting the separatist ambitions of the Czechs and Junco-Slavs has evidently become a burden to Austria. It is reported that an agreement made in London between the representatives of a large element in Italy and Austria was understood. This agreement was understood in Italy and Austria here in Washington last Tuesday with regard to the peace proposals of Austria.

Sergt. Alfred Johnson Arrives Safely Overseas

West Chester, Pa., May 22.—The Eyre-Berry trial over the $4,000 evidence is concerned and residents of West Chester and Chester county who thronged the courtroom were plenty this morning, for the famous Sanderson confession, after a bitter struggle between counsel, was admitted in evidence by Judge Landis.

For fully an hour Attorney James Scarlet read to the jury the alleged confession of John Sanderson, who, it was asserted, had given to Captain John C. Delaney, who had reduced it to writing.

The confession was admitted at the close of the cross-examination of William H. Berry the defendant. During the testimony of Berry as he listened intently. He did not seem the least annoyed when certain parts referred to his alleged part in the $4,000 deal, but turned to a friend here and there and laughed in a manner that would seem that he rather enjoyed the entire affair. A statement of Senator Eyre was in the courtroom.

Miss Mary Wagner, of Harrisburg, who for twelve years was stenographer for Captain John C. Delaney, took the stand and said: "I worked twelve years for Captain Delaney. He came to me in 1913 and asked me to make a copy of the Sanderson confession, I agreed to do it. He had it written on yellow tablet paper such as were used at our office. I told him if I were he and had such a confession I would publish it, and he said, 'I cannot do that for it is not signed.' I asked him about any witnesses to it and he said, 'Put Mr. Houser's name on it,' and I did so."

She was not cross-examined on any length.

At 3:20 o'clock the attorneys announced that the testimony of the witness was in and the court then suggested an adjournment until today when at 10 o'clock the attorneys commenced to speak to the jury. Mr. Scarlet in behalf of Berry, and ex-Judge Gordon for Senator Eyre. It is expected possibly a verdict will be reached by night.

Senator Eyre, smiling and in happy mood, mingled with the crowd after adjournment, expressing his pleasure that the case was over and said he was satisfied with what had been accomplished.

The alleged confession by the contractor for the furnishings of the Capitol building, that approximately $4,000,000 of state funds was divided among Eyre, Sanderson and others; that Eyre who succeeded Delaney as Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds, planned the alleged plot in detail and that Senator Penrose, among others, received from the proceeds $20,000.

It does not appear to be a signed confession by Sanderson, but is simply a compilation by Delaney of the result of a talk with Sanderson.
