Jess Barnes, Great Pitcher, Called to Colors

The Giants, who have been heretofore rather fortunate in being able to retain their regular players, have lost the services of Jess Barnes, the crack pitcher recently obtained from Boston. Barnes has been notified by the draft board of his home town, Circleville, Kan., to report, and will probably be sent immediately to a training camp.

SHAKEUP IN "HICKIES"
The management of the Hick-A-Thrift ball club in the Allison Hill League announced this morning that five players had been released: Carl Beck, Eyster, Frank Gerhart, Wilsbach. No reason was offered, simply "for the good of the team."

They will extend an invitation to attend the big meeting Thursday night under the auspices of the Friendship and Co-operative Club. It takes place at Eagle's Hall, Sixth and Cumberland streets.

The speakers will be Major William E. Gray, Engineer R. C., constructing quartermaster in charge of the work at Ordnance Field; Captain Harrie A. L. Douglas, Captain Louis Moore, Lieutenant Elwood Avery and Riley Williams, traffic manager. The meeting opens at 8 o'clock.

It is probable that the officials, including Robert V. Massey, general superintendent, and N. W. Smith, superintendent of the Middle division, will come here Thursday afternoon. They will join F. W. Smith, Jr., superintendent of the Philadelphia division, on a visit to the Ordnance depot. Officials from Philadelphia, with James K. Linn, will also be present.

FRED LUDERUS

Fred Luderus, the big first baseman of the Phillies, leads his club in hitting and is greatly responsible for keeping Moran in fast company. He is one of the most dangerous hitters in the league, likely to break up a game at any moment.

JINX HOODOOS THE GALAHADS

Lost the Thirteenth Game to Reading, Playing "Horrid" Baseball

To-night's Game
Rosewood vs. Hick-A-Thrift.

"Kid" Shay lost his first Allison Hill League game of the season last evening when pitted against the Reading team. It was the thirteenth contest played in the league and the number put the jinx on the youth. Score, 8 to 3. It was his only defeat in four starts.

The Galahads put up another of their erratic contests. Like the girl in the rhyme, "When they are good, they are very, very good. But when they are bad they are horrid." Last week they played two splendid exhibitions, and won both.

On the other hand, the railroaders put up one of the best fielding games seen in the league this season. They fielded brilliantly and hit at opportune times. While Shay struck out nine of the members of the winning team, the latter got their hits in clusters, which brought in the runs.

Reading sent two runners across the plate in the very first inning. "Vic" Ibach reached first on an error. W. Euker was passed. Wingard erred on Levan's drive and both the runners counted. In the next round three more runners raced over the pan. "Tim" Euker knocked out the first of his trio of bingles. Poland made a miscue and G. Swartz reached first, Euker advancing to second. The latter counted on Wingard's second error, Ibach going to first. McCurdy rapped out a pretty double, sending two more across. But the Reading captain was thrown out at third in trying to stretch his hit.

Not content with five runs, the nine managed by "Charlie" Pressler ran the score to eight. "Tim" Euker and E. Swartz made the hits that brought in the tallies. Galahad also had busy sessions in the third and fifth. Shay and Cobough sent two team-mates home with timely hits. Their final count resulted from Poland's single and Shay's double. With two out in the sixth, a threatening rain and windstorm broke up the game. The lineup and summary:

Reservoir Links Closed Decoration Day Afternoon

In order to protect picnic folks on the afternoon of Decoration Day the Reservoir Park golf links will be closed, but in the morning they will no doubt be very popular. The all-season tournament on these links begins next Saturday and will continue until the last Saturday in September, the winner getting a fine trophy.

The Reservoir course is being kept in excellent shape this year by the Park Department and the greens are becoming very fast through the efforts of "Pro" Fairbairn. No. 2 hole has been moved back to its old place owing to the frequent loss of balls where it was originally placed this spring when the course was reconstructed.

Boy Scouts in Track Sports at Island Park Tomorrow

The Island track will be given up to-morrow to Boy Scouts, Troop 6, whose valliant warriors will compete in a program of twenty events. The list includes dashes of 30, 75, 100 yards; high jump; half-mile, quarter-mile, 220-yard run; shot-put, hurdles, broad jump and relay for juniors.

The troops which have entered their athletes are: Eagles, Wolf, Silver Fox and Tigers. Five points will be awarded to the first man in each event, three points for second, two points for third and one point for fourth. The entries will be divided as follows: First class, 115 pounds and over; second class, 85 to 115 pounds, and third class, under 85 pounds.

DUNDEE BEATS MORGAN

Philadelphia, May 28.—Johnny Dundee, of New York, won all the way in his six-round bout here last night with Eddie Morgan, the English fighter. Johnny employed his old jumping punch throughout the battle and twice came near flooring his opponent. Morgan missed many of his blows and those he landed did not have any very noticeable effect.

GUN CLUB HOLDS BIG LAWN FETE

Rutherford Will Shoot and Sing "Bingo Was His Name, Sir"

A monster lawn fete will be held on Saturday June 1 on the Rutherford Y. M. C. A. new athletic grounds. Provision has been made by the committee in charge for an elaborate program during the afternoon and evening. In the early part of the afternoon the regular shoot of the Rutherford Gun Club will take place at which time the members of the club will contest for valuable trophies that were donated by the following parties: Hercules Powder Company, DuPont Powder Company, J. Stevens Arms and Tool Company, Rutherford Y. M. C. A. Officers of the gun club, H. E. Green, E. B. Lillard and G. W. Sweigert. Also the second shoot between Hummelstown Gun Club and Rutherford Gun Club will be featured.

During the evening an old-fashioned picnic will be enjoyed. Games of all kinds will be played on the beautiful lawn under the arc lights erected for the occasion, such as bingo, London bridge, Copenhagen, drop-the-kerchief, ring-around, etc. A good band will furnish music. These affairs are attended by over 2,000 persons. The lawn fete will be held under the auspices of the Rutherford Y. M. C. A. Gun Club.

Academy Tennis Team Will Meet Tech and Central

Manager Campbell, of the Academy tennis team, yesterday announced that the Academy racquet swingers would meet the Tech and Central tennis teams this week. The Academy will meet Central Thursday morning, probably at Reservoir, and will meet Tech on Friday. A large body of Academy men should turn out to watch both matches as tennis is now in the limelight at the up-town school since the baseball team proved a fizzle.

The Academy pupils are to be given a holiday on Decoration Day and they will have an opportunity to see the match on that date. The team held a long practice last night in preparation for the match. The first four men, Newlin, Campbell, Shreiner and Shaeffer will probably play. Lee and Fisher will be the substitutes, Fisher having taken Zea's place as sixth man. Newlin and Shreiner will play together in the doubles. Campbell and Shaeffer will be the other pair.

Gunboat Smith Easy For Leo Houck in Six Rounds

A big party of Harrisburgers flocked to Lancaster last night and saw Leo Houck, the native son, administer quite a beating to Gunboat Smith at the pavilion managed by Frank Erne. Leo lead all the way and scored particularly in the fourth and fifth rounds.

Jackie Wolpert, of Lancaster, knocked out Johnny Hoagan, of Philadelphia. In the third round of their scheduled six-round bout, Rubs Bennett, of Mt. Joy, defeated Jimmy McLaughlin, in a six-round mill. Young Russell, of Lancaster, defeated Johnny Martin, of Philadelphia, over the six-round route.
