Russian Crown Jewel Plot in Texas Arrest

Washington, June 12.—Investigation of the suspected plot to smuggle so-called Russian crown jewels into this country has led to the detention in Dallas, Tex., of Silliman Evans, formerly attaché of the American legation at Copenhagen, pending an inquiry into what disposition he made of a box bearing a location seal which he brought back to this country a few weeks ago.

Evans returned from Copenhagen on the ship which is supposed to have carried a quantity of the jewels. He passed without examination a box which he said contained consular dispatches. Subsequently he failed to deliver this box to the State Department.

Harrisburg Academy Graduates Class of Twenty-eight Youths

JOSIAH DUNKLE

SCOTT THOMPSON

Diplomas Given Big Class at Orpheum, Where Newell Dwight Hillis Gives Stirring Address; Many Attend

At the annual commencement exercises of the Harrisburg Academy in the Orpheum Theater this morning a many-starred flag in honor of the Academy boys in the United States service was presented to the institution by the junior class. Dwight Ludington, of the fifth form or junior class, made the presentation speech. Lester Shaffer, one of the graduates, made the speech of acceptance.

Twenty-eight seniors received their diplomas at this morning's exercises, presented by Charles A. Kuntz, Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, famous Brooklyn pastor and prominent lecturer, delivered the address to the graduates.

Two members of the graduating class delivered addresses at this morning's exercises. Josiah Dunkle, first-honor man, delivered the valedictory on "The War and the Individual." Scott Thompson, second-honor student, was salutatorian and spoke on "The American Merchant Marine."

A feature of this morning's exercises was the assembly singing under the direction of H. B. N. Pritchard, a member of the Academy faculty. Several patriotic airs were rendered before the graduates in their caps and gowns took the stage. The school annual, published by the Academy Spectator staff, was distributed, as is customary, at these exercises.

After the assembly singing, the Academy orchestra rendered a selection which was followed by Scripture reading. The prayer was led by Dr. M. E. Swartz. Howard R. Omwake made the announcements and presentation of prizes.

Dr. Hillis made a splendid address, telling of the Hun cruelty and the French courage. He told that the German object in this war was to get control of the French iron mines, without which they would lose their place as a manufacturing nation. The Germans, he said, were an impatient nation, forty years ago, when, under the leadership of Bismarck, they robbed Denmark of her seaports, robbed Austria of her coal and France of her iron mines. This gave them a place in the nations of the world, but as their iron mines were recently exhausted, they started the present war in the hope of getting the newly-discovered iron mines of northern France.

Dr. Hillis told of the German outages and said he could prove with actual photographs the things he said. He spoke of children who had been mutilated and had their hands cut off, of the shelling of cathedrals and numerous other outrages he had seen with his own eyes. He quoted Lloyd George in the statement that America had so far only replaced one-tenth of the weakness brought to the Allies by Russia's peace, but predicted great accomplishments by the Americans in the near future.

"The French and English are giving all to the cause," he said, and told of one Frenchman who when given leave for home refused to go, but stayed to fight, saying, "We sleep in mud, we bathe in blood, but our souls are with the stars." The address made a great impression on the audience and was given a lengthy and frequent applause.

The following students received diplomas: Frederick Stephen Bateman, Harry W. W. Blecker, James Zink Bloom, Josiah Andrew Dunkle, Frank Tasker Francis, George Parker Geist, Lloyd George in the statement that Wesley Hoerner, S. Herbert Kaufman, Gilbert Alton Larock, Samuel Pang Lee, Warren Bowman Laudermast.

The far-reaching effect of the Crowder order was seen here to-day in the request of the every citizen who sees a registered man employed in one of the positions classed as non-essential to the success of the war is to report him to a local draft board. While the order is not effective until July 1, one man to-day wrote to John C.
