

DRAFT BOARDS TO BE TURNED OVER

Governor Orders Adjutant General to Inquire; Murdock Returns to City

Governor Brumbaugh last night followed up his statement of yesterday morning regarding draft board criticisms in Pennsylvania by sending letters to Adjutant General Beary ordering dismissal of men who have acted improperly and Mayor Thomas B. Smith, of Philadelphia, asking him what he knows about some allegations which have been made.

In his letters the Governor wrote: June 13, 1918. Hon. Frank D. Beary, Adjutant General, Harrisburg, Pa. Dear General Beary: I assume that you are in touch with conditions in Philadelphia and that Major Murdock will report to you at once. He should. The story in the North American this morning is false. If, perchance, any board or member thereof is found to have departed knowingly from his duties as defined by General Crowder I want that board or member dismissed at once—summarily, and men put in their places who will act honestly, impartially and promptly. There can be no variation from this in Philadelphia or in any place in Pennsylvania, as you know.

We have had but one mind in all this—to do exactly what the national government wishes and anyone who fails the state in this respect must be cut out at once.

Sincerely, (Signed) M. G. BRUMBAUGH. June 13, 1918. Hon. Thomas B. Smith, Mayor of Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir: The newspapers to-day carry the story that District Board No. 2 and some local boards in Philadelphia have not carried out fully, fairly and impartially the directions of General Crowder in the matter of classification of draftees. I have no knowledge of the truth or falsity of these statements, but since you nominated these men for the respective places they hold I deem it my duty to ask you to advise me as the first moment whether or not any of these officers have in any way been influenced by any political or other purpose to defeat directly or indirectly the purposes for which they were designated. If it appears that the charges have the slightest foundation in fact, upon a statement to this effect from you these men will be dismissed. I have not at any time nor in any place sought in any way to interfere with the national will nor will I attempt to do so by any one in this Commonwealth.

You will please give this matter the careful attention it merits, warrants and hasten to me your conclusions. Yours very respectfully, (Signed) M. G. BRUMBAUGH. Major W. G. Murdock, adjutant's chief draft officer, declared this morning that his visit of two days to Philadelphia was not made for the purpose of conducting an exhaustive investigation into the affairs of the draft boards in that city, but solely to ascertain reasons for the low registration of alien draftees and to straighten out a few questions which had arisen relative to classification of married men.

I have spent some time working on the alien registration and will make a report to Adjutant General Beary, whom I understand will be here Monday," said he. "There are some other matters which will be reported on in connection with draft operations and conduct of boards. That is all there is to say at this time."

Major Murdock said that he did not expect to make any report to the Governor and did not have any knowledge of the letters issued last night by the Governor. "They are matters about which I was not consulted," said he. The major was immersed the greater part of the day with routine matters which had accumulated in his absence and in preparation of his report on low registration of aliens. He declined to discuss the letters of the Governor or the report that additional inspectors would be put to work in some districts in Philadelphia where many deferred classifications have been granted.

SALES MANAGER HERE George C. Macdonald, sales manager of the Louis Wiles Biscuit Company, accompanied by his assistant, H. A. Matchner, formerly local sales manager for the company, spent last night in Harrisburg on the way back to New York from an extensive southern trip. Their visit to Harrisburg was made the occasion for a special sales meeting of the employees of the local agency held last evening, at which addresses were made by both representatives from the home office.

PAY CITY MILK RATES Liverpool, Pa., June 14.—Notwithstanding the fact that Liverpool lies in the heart of a rich country district, after June 15, the citizens will have to pay city milk rates, according to a statement issued by Liverpool's dairyman, George C. Charles. He declares it is impossible for him to continue business at the present rate, 10 cents per quart, and that after June 15 his customers must pay 12 cents.

MISSING BOND RECOVERED Sunbury, Pa., June 14.—J. E. Stumm, manager for a wholesale grocery house, had a bad half hour to-day when he returned from a business trip and found his wallet, containing $1,600 in Liberty Bonds, missing. A little later a messenger told him that the Pullman porter had found the bonds, and that they would be returned.

GAVE WRONG NUMBER Sunbury, Pa., June 14.—Joseph E. Devereaux, Northumberland county court crier, was arrested here charged with having the wrong number on his automobile. Devereaux had forgotten to give the right number in ordering his license tax, and a state cop got him. He paid a fine.

LIVERPOOL GETS BREAD Liverpool, Pa., June 14.—Several weeks ago when the price of bread took a big jump all the town bakers but Deckard closed shop. Yesterday N. J. Murray received a supply from Standard Baking Company at Harrisburg and Liverpool again feels "bread safe."
