

NERVES OF PARIS RELAX AS DRIVES OF FOES LESSEN

Victorious Stand of Italian Armies Delights People of French Capital

By Associated Press
Paris, June 19.—News of the Austrian repulse on the Italian front, the comparative quiet on the French and British lines, silence on the part of the long-range guns for six days and the inability of the Goths to cross the terrific defensive barrage in their last three attempts to reach Paris, only one German having succeeded in flying over the city, have caused the taut nerves of Paris to relax. The city has assumed an appearance nearer that of before the war than that of any time since the opening of hostilities.

With the Germans fifty miles from Paris, the sole topic of conversation is the victorious stand the Italian armies are making and their successful counterattacks, which cause keen delight here.

The announcements in Swiss newspapers, attributed to the inspiration of the German general staff, predicting that Paris will be subjected to an intense bombardment within a few days, a meeting with cynical comment untinted by any touch of perturbation.

Deputy Urges Caution

Louis Pucheu, a Paris Deputy, who is taking a prominent part in the work of the committee of Deputies for the defense of Paris, writes to the Matin advocating the taking of certain precautionary measures.

"The capital is no more threatened to-day than it was three months ago," says the Deputy in his article. "Nobody questions the solidity of the front nor fears a fresh withdrawal. But we must exercise foresight, which we too often have failed to do in the past."

OH WHAT A HAPPY RELIEF SHE CRIES

"My nerves are so strong again, and I sleep the sleep of the contented."

She Praises Tonall

"Words cannot describe the suffering that I have gone through in past years," says Miss Lilly Igenfriz, of 23 Wallace street, York, Pa. "My nerves and stomach had both gone back on me entirely, and I was suffering torments day after day. I had little or no appetite, and when I did eat, I always suffered afterwards. I had acute indigestion and gas would form in my stomach in great quantities so that the pressure would almost stop my heart. I would have terrible pains around my heart and such an awful burning sensation that nothing would quench it. I doctored and dosed in vain for nothing seemed to do me any good but when I started taking Tonall, oh, what a happy relief it brought me, for now I can enjoy my heart. It is wonderful the change that Tonall has made in me. I feel stronger and that depressed feeling has left me. My nerves are strong and I take new interest in my work for it is more of a pleasure now than a task. I cannot express my gratitude for what this wonderful medicine has done for me."

Tonall is sold at Gorgas' drug-store, Harrisburg and Hershey drug-store, Hershey, Pa.

Your Health Depends Upon Your Kidneys

Many organs take part in assimilation of food, and a number are active in eliminating those portions of the food which are not taken into the blood for the building of the body. Of the eliminative organs, the liver and the kidneys are of major importance, and are most likely to be overworked and become diseased. When such is the case, various troubles of a digestive and eliminative character occur, and such troubles are so frequent and so common that it is absolutely necessary to find some relief. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy was compounded over 40 years ago to help equalize the work of the kidneys and liver. How successful it has been is evidenced by its wide-spread

This "Ironitic" is a soluble form of iron combined with valuable herbal extracts rolled into a tablet that will give you "pep." You will feel full of vim, vigor and vitality instead of that tired, weak feeling. Most druggists keep "Ironitic," but if you like you can send 10c to the Surgical Institute in Buffalo and get a trial package.

FOUR ARRESTED AS SPIES HAVE PLANS FOR HUN

Police Decline to Reveal Name of Woman Taken With Three Men

By Associated Press
New York, June 19.—Three men and a woman were taken into custody yesterday and accused of stealing from munitions plants throughout the country plans and blueprints valuable to the American and allied governments. They were charged with violating the espionage act.

Gus L. Lindquist, a draughtsman; Leo Burt, a civilian engineer; and Frank Strohmier, said to be an enemy alien, were the names of the three men as given by the authorities. Pending further investigation, they would not identify the woman being held in connection with the alleged theft. She was brought here from Worcester, Mass. The men were arrested here.

Lindquist is said to have declared he was going to Mexico to sell his booty to German agents.

According to the authorities both Lindquist and Burt admit the thefts which, it was said, covered a period of four years. The men are charged with getting employment in airplane, munitions and arms factories, working in them for a short time and suddenly decamping with the stolen plans.

One of the plans was identified by an official of the Remington Arms Company of Bridgeport, Conn., as a Browning gun blueprint which had been stolen from the Remington plant.

Lindquist and Burt, it was charged, also had rifled among other places the drafting rooms of Allen and Detroit; the Simplex Motor Company and the Mehl Manufacturing Company, of Roselle, N. J.

"Closed all day Monday for gardening.

"Closed Thursday, 6 p. m. for Company B.

"Yours for success,

Mirror Aids U. S. Agent to See Soldiers Get Beer

Philadelphia.—L. S. Tevis, of the Department of Justice, was standing in front of the barbers' and saloon, Sixth street above Market, when James McCafferty, Sixth street barber, ordered three glasses of beer for himself. "That's some order," thought Tevis, and watched the outcome.

McCafferty picked up the glasses and carried them to a back room, the interior of which was conveniently reflected in the mirror for Tevis. There he saw two soldiers, and when the glasses were handed them, the Federal agent promptly arrested the bartender, Nicholas Platenburg, Chestnut street near Fifty-ninth; McCafferty and the service men.

LOCAL DEMOCRATS FAVOR BONNIWELL

McCormick Faction Is Badly Worsted in Committee Reorganization

The Dauphin county Democratic committee which is largely composed of Bonniwell men yesterday adopted resolutions at its annual reorganization meeting calling upon John K. Royal and Gus A. Geisel, the two active committeemen from Dauphin county, and who are McCormick men, to vote in the state committee that Judge Bonniwell can select his own campaign manager and draft the platform. This resolution was presented by Howard O. Holstein, who was Judge Bonniwell's secretary in the state committee, and who lost out for the Lieutenant Governor nomination by a small vote. There was no discussion of the proposition which is taken to indicate that the Bonniwell people do not have much hope of getting anywhere in the state committee.

When the meeting was called to order by Holstein who is a member, R. A. Snyder protested that it was illegal. He claimed that ten days' notice was required and that his postcard showed four days. He was promptly overruled.

Charles D. Stucker was re-elected chairman, John H. Eby, Lykens, vice-chairman; J. D. Royal, secretary, and Fred L. Morgenthaler, treasurer. Resolutions were adopted endorsing Judge Bonniwell who had "proved his faith by works" and the rest of the ticket, state and local. Then speeches began.

The Harrisburg city Democratic committee followed the lead of the county committee adopting resolutions calling on Royal and Geisel to vote to give Bonniwell the right to select his own campaign manager and to draft the platform. They also adopted resolutions endorsing President Wilson and the ticket.

The meeting was held at the Christian Naus as city chairman; James G. Miles, vice-chairman; H. G. Horning, treasurer, and G. A. Geisel, secretary.

The fact that National Chairman McCormick was not represented or mentioned at either meeting was much commented upon.

DRAFT AGE TO BE MADE 18 TO 45 TO GET GREAT ARMY

Secretary of War Baker Approves Change, Removing the Last Obstacle

Washington, June 19.—The draft age limits will be extended, probably to 18 and 45. Secretary of War Baker has been persuaded that this step is necessary. He announced yesterday that he will approve any change in the selective service act necessary to raise an army of the required size.

American and allied military leaders are convinced that the United States must place an army of at least 5,000,000 men in the field, if victory is to be won. This will be possible with the proposed extension of the age limits.

Secretary Baker was won over to the plan at a conference with Provost Marshal General Crowder. The secretary's approval removes the last obstacle in the path of the Army General Staff's move to bring the proposal before Congress at an early date. It is believed favorable action by Congress will be obtained this year.

There has been some division of opinion as to whether ages should be extended to 18 and 45, or to 17 and 45. The latter is the recommendation of the War Department, but the War Department has recommended that the new limits be from 18 to 45, it is understood.

TWO MINUTES FOR PRAYER SERVICES

States as a Christian nation in the resolution, which was introduced by W. S. Essick, former president of the club, is in full as follows:

Resolved, That the Rotary Club heartily endorses the "Two Minutes for Prayer" movement as a part of the Fourth of July celebration, and urges that the two minutes immediately following 12 o'clock on July 4, be set aside for that purpose, to the end that the members of the club, in their activities for that time to offer silent prayer for our soldiers in France and on the front for those of our allies and for the success of our arms and the full establishment of our republic.

Mr. Essick, who presented the resolution, will occupy the pulpit of Grace Methodist Church at the 10 o'clock evening in the absence of the Rev. Dr. Robert Bagnell, who has gone to France on a government mission, and upon invitation of Charles E. Ball, he is the star of the picture.

At Hershey's Creamery

The club met last evening as the guests of E. H. Hershey, who is both the president of the club and of the Hershey Creamery Company, at the new plant of the company in South Cameron street. Previous to the meeting, following it, Mr. Hershey escorted the Rotarians about the plant, which is made entirely of concrete and steel and equipped with the most modern machinery for the making of ice cream and the churning of butter.

Making Ice Cream

From the time the milk enters the plant until it is drawn from the ice cream freezers into the cans by means of spigots, it is not exposed to contamination of any sort. Steel pipes, which are sterilized with steam by a flow of scalding water, convey the milk from tank to homogenizer, where the fat globules are crushed as a great mill crushes wheat, in order to make the ice cream perfectly smooth, thence to the pasteurizers, to the cooling tanks and cold storage, where it is held at a safe temperature until ready to be made into ice cream. The freezers have a capacity of six gallons of ice cream a minute. The plant makes its own ice, and has its own cold storage facilities, one of the interesting exhibits being an apartment in which are stored some fifteen barrels of crushed fresh strawberries which are used throughout the year to make fresh strawberry ice cream, the berries being as sweet to the taste and as free from fermentation or the effects of preserving at the end of the season as when they were first stored. The Rotarians sampled them last night and found them delicious.

The employees of the plant all wear white suits, all utensils are sterilized, constant tests of milk and other products are made and special locker rooms, with shower baths attached, are provided for the nearly fifty employees, so that the clothing and shoes they wear to and from work may carry no dirt into the manufacturing rooms. The factory is one of the most complete in the state. Ice cream, strawberries and rich, fresh milk were served as refreshments.

"The Crisis" is a dramatic story of Winston Churchill's Civil War novel, will be shown for one day only, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It shows this critical time in the international affairs of the nation, it should have special appeal because it shows how our fathers and forefathers, a century ago, grappled with the similar problems that were clamoring for solution at that time. In film form, "The Crisis" is a deeply moving and powerful spectacle.

"Mollie and Her Suitors," the moving picture picture, that was made up at the Majestic Theater a week ago, at the in which all of the players' Majestic were Harrisburg, Pa., went before the State Board of Motion Picture Censors yesterday for approval. The development and printing of the picture has been completed, and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the present week the picture will be shown at the Majestic. This will probably be one of the most interesting film plays ever presented in this city, for thousands of persons gazed on the various scenes of the picture with the keenest interest. They saw the ardent wooing of the lover, the sweet jealousy of the rival, the dramatic work of the heroine of her sweetheart, the good work of the detectives, the crook brothers who did their work in other things that took place in front of the camera man as all of those things were being acted out in front of the camera. Now it is all to be unfolded on the screen the latter half of the present week.

The general opinion among those who have seen the vaudeville bill at the PANTANG Park Theater this week is that the park show is one of the best of the season.

Carson and Willard, featured as America's foremost comedians, are the leading attraction. They are a strictly up-to-date novelty, full of clever dialogues and specially written songs and parodies. Another act on the bill that proved to be a genuine sensation was Maestra and Company, who present their original act in juggling and acrobatics that made the park audience sit up and take notice. Others on the park bill worthy of special mention are Brown and Bagnell, in an interesting sketch full of real comedy. Sude and Dell, in a comedy cycling act, and Ann Sude, a dainty little comedienne, with a line of new song hits.

PEOPLE NEGLIGENT IN CARE OF MOUTH

Senreco Tooth Paste Powerful To Save the Teeth and Prevent Diseases

"All dressed up with a hole in his shoe" was a bit of sarcasm a girl flung at a young man friend whose entire outfit was new except his punctured shoes. Right enough, too. Either to man or woman a shabby pair of shoes would spoil the appearance of the most elegant garments ever worn.

What about the teeth? Dress in all the finery you please, if you open your mouth exposing a decayed set of teeth your attractiveness ends right there. That's a hole in the shoe for you. This applies both to men and women. Girls, and young men, you lose half the admiration which would be directed toward you if you have bad teeth. You can't be pleasing with a mouthful of decay. You can't be healthy either. The condition of the teeth have a telling influence on other organs of the body. Bad teeth affect the intestines, stomach, heart, and even the eyes. Medical science shows that bad teeth produce unhealthy conditions all over the body.

With Senreco Tooth Paste at your service—a scientifically prepared preventive of pyorrhea—there's no need of falling a prey to these ills. No need of waiting for the moment of decay. Used regularly on a set of good teeth the deadly germs have little chance to enter, but if they should enter they can't exist long under its thorough cleansing properties. As a cleanser and preservative of the tissue of the teeth it is positively reliable. Advanced cases should be treated by your dentist.

Use Senreco Tooth Paste as a preventive. Ask your dentist if you should not pay attention to your teeth. Of course we won't say our Tooth Paste will cure pyorrhea. If you already have pyorrhea, your dentist is the doctor. Even if you are afflicted with his terrible disease Senreco Tooth Paste will help. It will extract it, with your dentist's assistance. But we don't want you to contract any ailment of the mouth and teeth, nor does your dentist. A prevented disease is a disease that has to go through the trials of a cure. Save your teeth with Senreco Tooth Paste and you won't have to deal with foul and painful diseases. By taking excellent care of your teeth you may avoid common intestinal, heart and eye troubles. Take all precaution to keep the teeth clean and do it with Senreco Tooth Paste, the latest discovery of dental science.
