

BONNIWELL TO PLAY LONE HAND

Flouts Democracy's Highest Council and Will Run Own Campaign

Judge Eugene C. Bonniwell, gubernatorial candidate, who has been some time called the stormy petrel of Pennsylvania Democracy...

Developments of the day caused some of the older heads among the Democrats, and there were many of them back on the scenes of political strife of bygone years...

"Some Party" The judge flouted the State Committee because its leaders declined to allow him to name the state chairman and to take charge of the organization of the party and run the campaign.

are the official chiefs of the party. A vote of confidence from the electors at large.

It all came as the climax to a controversy over control of the party machinery which has been going on ever since Judge Bonniwell ambushed the Palmer-McCormick faction and won first place honors from Joseph F. Guffey.

Mr. Bonniwell has insisted that the gubernatorial candidate has always been allowed to name the men to run the campaign and declare the issues.

The State Committee leaders held that the judge was one of seven state candidates. And when the gubernatorial candidate angrily refused to speak before the assembled committee men...

Got Early Start The squirrels in Capitol Park had scarcely started to forage for breakfast when some emissaries of the Democratic party...
