

HUN ATROCITIES STUN RELATIVES OF ONES DOOMED

Kin of Condemned Kept in Doubt as to Fate Until End

London, June 24.—The little Belgian newspaper Amé Belge, which continues to be issued in spite of all the efforts of the German authorities to suppress it, gives an account of recent atrocities at Charleroi. Nineteen persons, including women, merchants, a priest and railway officials, were tried for spying on the movements of German troops. Six of them were condemned to death, but their relatives were not told the names of the victims and the names of the victims in the past days in agonizing suspense. Wives and children of men under arrest stood all night at the prison gates, their feelings alternating between hope and despair. Not until the bodies of the victims were

YANKEES "BAD BOYS" TO HUNS

With the American Army in France, June 24.—The American soldiers now are regarded by their German antagonists as "bad boys" for whom the German soldiers are cautioned to "look out," according to a young German deserter who surrendered in the American lines on the Marne last night. This willing prisoner added that conditions in the German lines constantly were growing worse. He had deserted because he was war-weary and underfed, and he declared that many of his fellows also would desert if they had the chance.

LIEUTENANT MYERS IN FRANCE

Marysville, Pa., June 24.—Charles W. Myers, a first lieutenant in the United States Medical Corps, has arrived in France, advised to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Myers, say. Myers had been in training at Camp Greenleaf, Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., before crossing the seas.

PRICE OF WHEAT ABOVE $2.20 BY WILSON'S ORDER

President Sanctions Raise in Rate in Executive Order Just Issued

Washington, D. C., June 24.—Blanket authority to increase the price of wheat at primary and other markets, with the approval of Food Administrator Hoover, above the $2.20 a bushel minimum price guaranteed by Presidential proclamation last February 21, is given in the Food Administration grain corporation in New York by an executive order of the President. The order, issued under authority of the food control law, was made public yesterday by Mr. Hoover.

To carry out the purposes of the order, the corporation is authorized to increase its capital stock from $50,000,000 to $150,000,000 in shares of a par value of $100 each. All the stock will be owned by the Government and will be purchased by the Food Administration from time to time as the necessity arises to maintain the present $2.20 price and any increases authorized.

While no explanation of the order was given either at the Food Administration or the White House, two considerations were believed to have influenced the President's decision to permit the grain corporation to pay higher prices for wheat. The first was the increased freight rates, which will become effective tomorrow. Growers must bear this increase, and without an advance in the price of wheat their profits would be materially reduced.

The second was believed to be the situation resulting from the deadlock in Congress over the Senate's amendment to the annual agricultural appropriation bill, increasing the minimum guaranteed price for wheat to $2.50 a bushel. The House has refused to accept the amendment and the Senate is to vote on it again this week. In some quarters it is believed that the President's action will be a factor in influencing the Senate to recede from the amendment.

MARYSVILLE BAND CONCERT
Marysville, Pa., June 24.—The Marysville Band, instead of its weekly rehearsal, will give a concert this evening in Verbeke street opposite the store of Ralph N. Hench. D. D. Fisher, director, will be in charge.

UNREST GRIPS GERMAN TROOPS AND POPULACE

Sullenness Widespread in Empire and Signs Point to Refusal to Fight

An Atlantic Port, June 24.—Germany, war weary and ill fed, is in a state of unrest so acute that talk of revolt against the Imperial government is common among both the military and civil populations, according to Americans who arrived here last night on a Norwegian liner, after long residence in Germany or adjacent neutral countries.

Officers and men, the voyagers say, have told them of a sullenness which is widespread in the German army, predicting that it would reach the point where the troops would refuse to fight. "You see that I wear the coat of the Kaiser. I only wish that you could know the feeling that lies beneath it, for we are not going to stand this thing forever," a German major told Miss Olga Wursberg, of Grand Rapids, according to her story on coming ashore. The conversation, she declared, took place in a hospital at Godesberg, Germany, where the officer talked freely to her, not suspecting that she was an American. Under the same conditions, she declared, a private soldier said to her: "Some day we are all going to put down our arms. Why should we fight? Our officers now, instead of leading us, go behind us with their guns at our backs."

No Talk of Victory. Only Food
Miss Wursberg, daughter of Frederick Wursberg, a wealthy Grand Rapids merchant who was born in Germany and is a naturalized American citizen, declared that the morale throughout Germany is poor, and the people near revolt. With her family, who returned with her, she has lived six years in Germany. She asserted that soldiers in the hospitals convalesce very slowly, so poor is the food given them.

Carl E. Olivarius, a Milwaukee lawyer, returned from a trip through Norway, Sweden and Denmark, declared that food is so scarce in these countries that little can be spared Germany. Reporting conversations with travelers from the Teuton Empire, he said: "No one in Germany speaks of victory. They always talk of food.

The war, in the minds of the civilian population, has become secondary to efforts to get enough to eat." Leon Rains, who has lived in Berlin the last five years in Dresden, declared that Saxony is well supplied with food, but conditions in Berlin and other large cities are "terrible."

Herrman Bernstein, a writer, who sailed for Russia six months ago believing that the Bolsheviks would establish a stable government, returned convinced, he said, that Lenin, Trotsky and their followers were in the pay of Germany. He declared that nine-tenths of the people desire intervention by Japan, with allied approval, to put an end to the chaotic conditions resulting from Soviet control.

"The Red Guard is nothing but a band of thieves," said Mr. Bernstein. "It is not uncommon to see officers on the street relieving people of their valuables. To protest means arrest, and in Russia to-day a person who is arrested usually is shot before he reaches a court of justice." Mr. Bernstein declared that Kerensky has lost his popularity with the Russian people, who blame him for failure to crush the Bolshevik revolution when he had the power. Kerensky's whereabouts, he said, are unknown in Petrograd. Baron Sergius A. Korff, another passenger who was returning from the Bolsheviks as Deputy Governor

General of Finland, declared that Germany would be unable to reorganize the Russian army for use against the allies.

HAD HARD FIGHT TO KEEP GOING

Tonall Reinforced His Efforts And He Wins His Battle For Health.

WHO'E SYSTEM BUILT UP

"I was in such a run-down condition from nervousness and stomach trouble," says Harry Steiger of 642 East Walnut street, Lancaster, Pa. "I could not work, had headaches, pains in my back, pains in my stomach and was constipated. I was a physical wreck. Since taking Tonall I am working every day and feel like I did years ago. I cannot praise Tonall too highly. It has done wonders for me. I can recommend Tonall to those who suffer with nervousness and stomach trouble for it surely will help you." The above testimonial was given April 6th, 1918. Tonall is sold at Gorgas' Drug Store, Harrisburg, and Hershey Drug Store, Hershey, Pa.
