SUMMER MEET AT GETTYSBURG

Lutheran Assembly Program of Exercises on Seminary Campus in August

Gettysburg, Pa., June 27.—The Lutheran Summer Assembly, of which the Rev. Dr. S. W. Herman, of Harrisburg, is president, will meet at Gettysburg again this year, the sessions to be held on the seminary campus and August 2 to 9 has been set as the time. A good program has been arranged and it is likely that additional speakers and subjects will be added.

The morning hour of the day will be the Bible hour, conducted by the Rev. Dr. C. P. Wiles. This will be followed by hours conducted by the Rev. Dr. E. C. Cronk upon "An Efficient Church," and Mrs. E. C. Cronk upon "Missionary Methods." Conferences upon the various phases of Sunday school work will be conducted by Miss Martha Hoerner, a graduate of the School of Practical Sunday School Methods.

The hour to be devoted to men and boys' work in the church will be conducted by H. J. Schmidt, one of the secretaries of the State Y. M. C. A. There will be a conference on "Inner Missions" conducted by the Rev. E. F. Bachmann.

The open parliament will be conducted by the Rev. J. A. Singmaster and the Rev. J. H. Meyer. The afternoons will be given to recreation. The sunset service will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. S. W. Herman, president of the assembly. The evening sessions will be devoted to inspirational addresses and sermons.

A special feature of the assembly will be conducted of classes in the missionary study books under the direction of Mrs. C. P. Wiles, secretary of the mission study classes of the General Synod Society, and Miss Van Gundy.

The music during the sessions of the assembly will be under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Singmaster Lewars, of Gettysburg, and Professor Ralph Lewars, of Philadelphia.

SUMMER COTTAGES ROBBED
 Schuylburg, Pa., June 27.—More than $1,000 worth of silverware, bed-clothing and house furnishing goods were stolen from cottages at Hooker's Island, a summer colony in the Susquehanna river, near here, it was learned to-day. Entrances were gained by forcing doors and windows.

Places entered, according to George Hoover, owner of the island, were: Robert Logan's and William H. Gross's, of Sunbury, and Frank Ammerman's, Frederick Malick's, M. Mirbach's, A. Laoviach's and William Geib's, all of Shamokin. All are prominent men.

A boat was stolen from Hoover. Charged with this crime, Adam Frankel, of Kantz, Snyder county, was arrested. He is being held pending a further hearing.

DANIEL KREIDER DIES
 Marietta, Pa., June 27.—Daniel Kreider, aged 77 years, one of the best-known men in Lancaster county, died in Strasburg township Tuesday. He died in the home where he was born. He served two enlistments during the Civil War, and was a member of the Mennonite Church. His wife and several children survive.

News of Adams County Soldiers in U. S. Service

Gettysburg, Pa., June 27.—Dr. H. Ross McAllister, who recently spent part of his honeymoon at the home of his parents here, has been assigned to the United States Steamship Company, and is now senior surgeon of that ship, with headquarters at the Atlantic ports. Dr. McAllister has been in the Navy for some years, a number of which were spent in the Philippine Islands.

John C. Scott and Ralph Woodward enlisted in the United States Navy through the recruiting party stationed here for the past week, Scott enlisting as a hospital apprentice of the second class and Woodward as an apprentice seaman in the Naval Reserves.

James L. Lawrence, of McSherrystown, has received a letter from his nephew, George W. Rider, "Somewhere in France" telling him that he was gassed by the Huns while in action, but is now rapidly recovering in a hospital. Sergeant Major Charles C. Culp, of Gettysburg, who is stationed at the School of Military Meronautics, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass., came home on a furlough and was married to Miss Anna E. March, of East Branch, on Monday.

EXPECT TANKS AT CAMP
 Gettysburg, Pa., June 27.—Camp Colt is just now much agitated over the report that twenty-two tanks are soon to be received here and that actual practice and training with the big war machines will soon be under way. The men see a relief from infantry drill with the expected arrival of the tanks. Most of them are keen for overseas duty and falling to go as soon as expected will have their disappointment much lessened by a chance for actual work with their machines.

SOMEBODY LOST HIS TROUSERS
 Northumberland, Pa., June 27.—Police here are trying to solve the enigma of why a pair of trousers containing $30 in bills were "abandoned" in King street park, in the heart of the town. Although they have been thoroughly advertised no owner has come forth to claim them and no resident has as yet identified the clothing. Unless an owner is found within a few days it was stated to-day the money will be turned over to the Red Cross.

RAM ATTACKS PREACHERS
 Northumberland, Pa., June 27.—Attacked by an angry buck sheep while visiting on the farm of A. S. Hoffman, in Point township, Northumberland, to-day, the Rev. H. C. Michael, of the First Lutheran Church, of Johnstown, and the Rev. L. S. Sassaman, of the Northumberland Lutheran Church, escaped serious hurts when friends prodded the animal and chased it away. The Rev. Mr. Michael was knocked down but escaped serious hurt.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
 Marietta, Pa., June 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Ruof, of Lancaster, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Agnes M. Ruof, to Michael Raehor, of New York city. The date of the wedding has not been set.

BIG CARNIVAL FOR RED CROSS

Lemoyne Auxiliary Plans an Elaborate Affair in Public Square Saturday Night

Lemoyne, June 27.—With the exception of a few details, arrangements for the Red Cross street carnival to be held by the Red Cross Auxiliary, Saturday evening, have been completed by the committee.

The schedule of events announced to-day follow: Parade of Red Cross workers of the auxiliary and Junior organizations; Boy Scouts and school children over the principal streets of the borough at 7 o'clock; band concert by Commonwealth band of Harrisburg in Lemoyne square at 7.30 o'clock; program to be presented after the concert is: singing, "America"; address, the Rev. L. A. Bush, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church; singing, "Star Spangled Banner"; prayer, the Rev. L. F. Drash, pastor of the Church of Christ.

HURRY DIDN'T HELP
 Lewistown, Pa., June 27.—Harry Strayer, in haste to catch a trolley car to go to his work at Murhanna, got up in a hurry from his bed after sleeping late and started down stairs on a run. He made a misstep and fell to the bottom of the hallway. His right leg was badly injured and he suffered painful bruises. He will be laid up for awhile.

BROTHER DIES IN FRANCE
 Gettysburg, Pa., June 27.—Mrs. Murray Fuss, of Harney, received word of the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. Frank Burke, of Kempton, and the same day word was received of the death of her brother in France. He enlisted a few months after America declared war on Germany and had been on the front six months.

FALLS INTO OPEN GRAVE
 Gettysburg, Pa., June 27.—George Felty, of New Oxford, is confined to his home at that place, suffering from injuries received when he fell into an open grave in the cemetery of the Catholic Church, of which he was the caretaker. He made a misstep at the grave and fell into the opening. His left side struck some of the planking and several ligaments were torn.

NEW COAL PRICES
 Halifax, Pa., June 27.—The Dauphin County Fuel Administrator has ordered a new scale of coal prices in Halifax, effective on June 22, which lowers the price on all grades 25 cents per ton. The new prices are: Pea, $6.37; egg, $7.53; stove, $7.89; nut, $7.89; broken, $7.62. A rebate of 40 cents per ton will be made to persons hauling coal from yards.

RECITAL AT BLAIN CHURCH
 Blain, Pa., June 27.—On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Marie Garber, of Andersonburg, this county, who graduated at the Conservatory of Music, Harrisburg, and is organist in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, in Madison township, will give a recital in the Zion Lutheran Church at Blain, accompanied by three assistants.

ARRESTED FOR SHOOTING
 Mount Union, Pa., June 27.—Officers Covert and Stratford placed Samuel Sacks, colored, under arrest yesterday afternoon for alleged shooting. It appears that Paul Hunter, who roomed with Sacks, decided to leave before his meal ticket, which was not paid for, was exhausted, only seventy-five cents worth being used. Hunter offered to pay the seventy-five cents but Sacks refused to accept it. Hunter then said he would pay nothing, and as a result an argument started and it is alleged Hunter put his hand in his pocket when Sacks at once drew a revolver and fired. The bullet missed its mark and Hunter immediately ran and notified the officers. Sacks was placed under a heavy fine which was immediately paid. Sacks runs a boardinghouse and poolroom.

WORK ON MILL STARTS
 Liverpool, Pa., June 27.—Work on the new addition to the Liverpool spinning mill was started this week. A large concrete sidewalk is also being put down along the entire north side of the building.
