EMERGENCY UNIT OPENS NEW HOME

Dedication of Uptown Home For Colored Soldiers Held Last Evening

The Sixth Ward Unit of the Emergency Aid, captained by Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, dedicated their new home last night at 1422 North Fourth street, with Miss Bertha Zedrick, city organizer and the captains of the various units present.

Harry Burns presided and in his opening address urged the association to keep the record high in presenting comfort kits to the negro selectives as they leave for the front.

The following program was well received by the large audience which manifested throughout the evening, a high pitch of patriotism.

Prayer, the Rev. Dr. Geo. F. Hall; solo, Miss Maud M. Brunner; opening address, Mrs. Mary E. Wilson; select singing, patriotic music; Stella Prentice, Esther Holmes, Iva Ficklin, Josephine Culpepper, Edna Peters and Edith Demery; remarks, Bertha Zedrick; music, Potters Orchestra; address, Prof. John P. Scott; remarks, Marshall Ficklin and Edward L. Jenkins.

Prof. J. P. Scott throughout his eloquent address urged the colored boys to enlist and asked the captains of the units to make expense by deciding to make the uptown home the place of meeting for all the units.

The home will be thrown open to the general public where at any time the ladies can be seen at work knitting their war garments and arranging kits.
