

LXXXVII— No. 154 14 PAGES

SINGLE COPY 2 CENTS

HARRISBURG, PA., SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 13, 1918.

ONLY EVENING ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWSPAPER IN HARRISBURG

NIGHT EXTRA

WON HINDENBURG DIES AFTER STORMY SCENE WITH KAISER

Field Marshal Said to Have Fallen Dead After Argument With Emperor

Serious Differences Said to Have Existed Between the Kaiser and General Concerning the Proposed Drive on Paris; Interview Was Violent

CONGESTION OF THE BRAIN, IS BLAMED

Old Warrior Was in Retirement Before War Was Declared; Made His Reputation by Defense of East Prussia and the Russian Campaign

Amsterdam, July 13.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg is dead, according to the newspaper Les Nouvelles. His death is said to have occurred after a stormy interview with the German emperor at great headquarters at Spa.

The emperor and the field marshal are declared to have had serious differences of opinion concerning the German offensive towards Paris. The field marshal died from congestion of the brain.

CRAZY

Amsterdam, July 13.—How the German emperor pictures the future of Germany is recorded by his favorite war correspondent, the faithful Earl Rosner, of the Lokal Anzeiger.

Pershing's Communique Tells of Enemy Failure Where Americans Fight

Washington, July 13.—General Pershing's communique issued today by the War Department describes operations in the various sectors of the front through July 7 to 10. It follows in part:

ENEMY LINES ARE AGAIN PIERCED BY ALLIED ASSAULTS

French Win Brilliant Engagement After Quick, Hard Blow in Picardy

On the French Front in France, Friday night, July 12.—The superbly executed local action carried out by the French to-day southeast of Amiens not only gave them a large batch of prisoners, but brought into their possession the entire Rouvelles plateau, dominating the region between the rivers Avre and Moreuil.

Success has crowned further allied smashes into the German lines between Ypres and Rheims. For more than two weeks the allies have been jamming into the German defenses here and there and the results now are just as favorable as at the beginning.

GRAEPE DENOUNCES KUEHLMANN

Amsterdam, July 13.—"One of two more such peace treaties and we are lost," declared Herr von Graefe, a Conservative member of the Reichstag, in a fiery indictment of former Foreign Secretary von Kuehlmann's "no indemnity, no annexations" peace treaty of Bucharest.

MAY ASK AID OF GOVERNMENT TO BETTER HOUSING

Chamber of Commerce to Study Situation and Take It Up With Washington

The Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce announced to-day that it is about to start a study of housing conditions in Harrisburg with the purpose of finding a solution to the rapidly growing problems of proper homes at reasonable rentals for Harrisburg people.

Shortly after the election of Andrew S. Patterson as president of the chamber, he gave to the Telegraph an interview in which he recognized the growing need of additional houses in Harrisburg and expressed the fear that the problem would become serious with the growth of the war industries and the establishment here of large war supply depots.

NEW SIGNS TO TELL PATRONS OF SKIP-STOP LOCATION

Printed signs with the words "Cars Do Not Stop Here" will be placed at all stops on the rural lines of the Harrisburg Railway Company which are to be eliminated Monday in accordance with the plans approved by the Dauphin County Board of Supervisors.

KEYSTONE DIVISION IS PLACED IN 2ND OF NEW ARMY CORPS

No Letup in Shipment of Men to France Where Divisions Have Been Placed in Battle Formation For Coming Fighting

Washington, July 13.—American troops already overseas and those on shipboard enroute has passed the 1,100,000 mark.

Three army corps of from 225,000 to 250,000 men each have been definitely organized from American divisions in France.

EVERYTHING SET FOR CELEBRATION OF BASTILLE DAY

Only Good Weather Needed to Make French National Holiday a Success

ELEVATOR AND LIGHT SERVICE IS CURTAILED

No Stops at Second Floor and No Office Lights at 6.30 in the Evening

Stringent restriction of elevator service will begin Monday, according to the regulations contained in the order of William Potter, state fuel administrator, which was received by Ross A. Hickok, county fuel administrator, this morning.

The regulations will affect the operation of all passenger and freight elevators in Harrisburg. All passenger elevators must be shut down July 15.

FLYER'S ERROR BRINGS DEATH

Toronto, July 13.—Second Lieutenant A. W. Hill, of Malden, Mass., under training here as an instructor in the royal air force, was killed at Armour Heights to-day while flying alone.

LATE NEWS

PRISONERS TO TESTIFY BEFORE GRAND JURY New York—Albert A. Sander and Charles W. Wunnenberg, who were sentenced in March, 1917, to terms of imprisonment as principals in the spying conspiracy will be witnesses before the grand jury in a proceeding against W. L. Wirbelauer.

FISHERMAN SEIZED WITH APOPLEXY Chambersburg, Pa.—The body of Linn McCune, 40 years old, was found face downward in Concocheague creek near Stone Bridge. It is likely he was seized with an apoplectic stroke while fishing.

QUIETEST NIGHT ON MARNE FRONT With the American Army in France—On the fronts in the Marne district held by American troops, last night was the quietest of any since the Germans in their sweep southward were stopped at the north bank of the river.

FISHER APPOINTED BY MARKHAM Philadelphia—J. B. Fisher has been appointed transportation assistant of the Pennsylvania Railroad, of which system he had been superintendent of freight transportation.

SOVIETS DESERT CAUSE IN RUSSIA Moscow—Leon Trotsky, Bolshevik minister of war and marine, declared he had received news from the front that unity had suffered as the result of Anglo-French propaganda.

"DRY" HALTS UNTIL LATE AUGUST Washington—The Senate to-day formally agreed, by unanimous consent, to postpone a vote on the national prohibition legislation until after the proposed three-day recess period ends August 26.

EIGHT CAUGHT IN BUILDING WRECK Montreal—Eight persons were killed and several others injured to-day by the collapse of the top floor, stored with empty shells, of a warehouse owned by Lymburner, Limited, munitions manufacturers, in St. Paul street.

WILSON NOMINATES ARMY GENERALS Washington—President Wilson to-day made these Army nominations: Major general in line of the army, Major General William Crozier, Major General Henry G. Sharpe; quartermaster general with rank of major general for four years, Brigadier General Harry L. Rogers; chief of ordnance, with rank of major general, for four years, Brigadier General Clarence C. Williams.

SIX PERISH IN STEAMER FIRE An Atlantic Port—Six persons are reported killed and fifteen others injured in an explosion, followed by fire on a Spanish oil steamship anchored in the harbor to-day.

NAVAL AVIATOR KILLED IN PLANE'S FALL Chatham, Mass.—Ensign Andrews, a naval aviator, was killed and Ensign Parks probably fatally hurt in the fall of a seaplane on the beach here to-day.

MARRIAGE LICENSES Alben C. Pierce, Steeton, and Mary A. Wallace, Harrisburg; Charles F. Dunn and Catherine R. Butler, Harrisburg; Augustus Brubaker and Ruth Orendorf, Middletown; Ervin C. Ruth, Reading; and Florence E. Allison, Middletown; Harry H. Pope, Harrisville; and Edith M. Keeney, Harrisburg; William L. Reister and Rachel B. Miller, Harrisburg; John I. Ruth and Clara Conrad, Roylton.

DR. ROYER OFFERS AID OF STATE IN HOUSING SURVEY

Commends Telegraph Editorials; Says Chamber Is on Right Track

Announcement of intention to go right into the problems attending housing in Harrisburg, was given hearty approval to-day by Dr. B. Franklin Royer, the acting state commissioner of health, who has been a resident of this city for years and a student of its sanitary and other conditions.

CITY UNABLE TO PROTECT JITNEYS, SAYS SOLICITOR

Mayor Keister Informed Harrisburg Cannot Overrule Public Service Commission

That the city has not the authority to settle the controversy between the Harrisburg Railway Company and the jitney drivers, against whom officials of the traction company filed complaint last week before the Public Service Commission, was the opinion handed to-day to Mayor Keister by City Solicitor John E. Fox.

BELGIUM HELD ONLY AS PAWN, SAYS HERTLING

Imperial Chancellor Declares Germany Does Not Want to Keep Invaded Kingdom BASIS FOR NEGOTIATIONS

Copenhagen, July 13.—Denial that Germany intended to retain Belgium was made by Count von Hertling, the German Imperial Chancellor, in the course of his speech before the Reichstag main committee Thursday.

Harrisburg's Next Big Problem

THE HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH will begin shortly publication of a series of articles relating to Housing Conditions in Harrisburg and their Improvement as the result of a study by this newspaper, covering several months.

TOMORROW IS BASTILLE DAY Buy War Stamps to Build Prisons for Hun Generals Start This Evening

British Casualties For Week 14,911; 2,059 Dead

THE WEATHER For Harrisburg and vicinity: Partly cloudy to night; Sunday fair and somewhat warmer.