

FORMER RUSSIAN MINISTER OF WAR SHOT BY SOVIETS

Soukhomlinoff, Member of Cabinet, Executed by Order of Court-Martial

By Associated Press London, Sept. 19.—General Soukhomlinoff, minister of war in the Russian imperial cabinet from 1909 to 1915, was court-martialed on September 8, and shot on the same day, according to a Petrograd dispatch printed in the newspapers of Vienna and transmitted here by the Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Do You Believe in Crystal Gazing?

Do you believe in crystal gazing? Most people do. At least, they believe that the future is revealed to human beings in one way or another. Some pin their faith on palmistry, some on the stars, some on cards. But nearly everybody believes that the veil of the unknown is not as impenetrable as it seems. Here is a famous play based on a belief in crystal gazing. The play is none other than "Eyes of Youth," which scored so great a success in New York last season and which will be presented at the Orpheum Theater on Wednesday, September 25, for an engagement of two nights and hereafter at intervals. Instead of that, the play was conducted by its remarkable popularity. Hence it must be that people still place faith in the prophetic properties of the crystal ball. "Of course people believe it," says Miss Brownell, the charming heroine of "Eyes of Youth." "I believe it myself or I couldn't play it. The crystal is only a symbol, and revelation is a state of mind. The future holds what you desire most cleanly and most earnestly, and strive for most earnestly and most earnestly. The trouble is that people are confused about their own longings. Necessity and circumstance force upon them desires and aspirations that are not in keeping with their true selves. For instance, a man will strive after money that he really doesn't want, because all the world strives after money and he thinks he must be in the race. That man's happiness would really consist in having little and thinking much. His heart would reveal that to him as his true future, and thinking little. Let him look into the crystal ball of his own soul and there behold the future." That, according to Miss Brownell, is the true meaning and worth of crystal gazing. It is a symbol of self-revelation.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC High Class Vaudeville. ORPHEUM Three days beginning to-day, with daily matinees. "The Unmarried Mother," Tuesday evening only, September 24—Selwyn and Company offer "Fair and Warmer." Wednesday and Thursday, and Thursday matinee, September 25 and 26—"Eyes of Youth." Friday, night only, September 27—"Seventeen."

COLONIAL To-day and to-morrow Norma Talmadge in "Her Only Way." Saturday only—"The House of Mirth." Monday and Tuesday, Mabel Normand in "Peck's Bad Girl." REGENT To-day—Billie Burke in "In Pursuit of Polly." To-morrow and Saturday—Sessue Hayakawa in "The City of Dim Faces" and "Ladies First" comedy. Wednesday and Thursday, Mabel Normand in "The Price of Applause." Friday and Saturday—Vivian Martin in "Viviette."

VICTORIA To-day—Theda Bara in "Cleopatra." To-morrow—Jewel Carmen in "Lawless Love." Saturday—William S. Hart in "The Disciple." Selwyn and Company will present their extraordinary farce success, "Fair and Warmer," at the Orpheum, on Tuesday evening only. This delectable bubbling farce, with uncountable laughs in its three acts, ran so long and so profitably at the Eltinge Theater that before the end of its first six months, it has been heralded all over the country as the farce-hit of the decade, and demands for its out-of-town presentation had poured in to insure its welcome when Selwyn and Company should send it on tour. New York and Chicago, where it was seen for eight months, following its New York engagement, articles and a tournament of adjectives over "Fair and Warmer," each striving for emphasis to describe how funny it really was. These reviews were echoed in the out-of-town press, so that "Fair and Warmer" needs now no further introduction. Selwyn and Company announce that they send it here with competent players.

COLONIAL To-day and to-morrow Norma Talmadge in "Her Only Way." Saturday only—"The House of Mirth." Monday and Tuesday, Mabel Normand in "Peck's Bad Girl." REGENT To-day—Billie Burke in "In Pursuit of Polly." To-morrow and Saturday—Sessue Hayakawa in "The City of Dim Faces" and "Ladies First" comedy. Wednesday and Thursday, Mabel Normand in "The Price of Applause." Friday and Saturday—Vivian Martin in "Viviette."

ORPHEUM Theater 3 Matinees 3 STARTING SEPTEMBER 19 3 Nights TODAY... SEPTEMBER 19 25c-50c Daily Matinees For LADIES ONLY 25c-50c Not a Moving Picture THE UNMARRIED MOTHER BORN OUT OF WEDLOCK A Stronger Play Than Her Unborn Child At All Matinees For Ladies Only Dr. Goodman Will Address The Ladies on 'War Babies' of the theatrical season 1917-1918, sold year at the Eltinge Theater, New York. It will be now presented at the Orpheum Theater for an engagement of one night only, Saturday, September 28. The thousands of players who found delight in the adventures of "Abe" and "Mawruss" will be more than eager to see the consequences of the meeting with the vampire and their new experiences in the unfamiliar world of the moving picture studio. The New York World expressed the opinion of press and public alike when it said that, "Business Before Pleasure" is funnier than "Potash and Perlmutter."

To-day and to-morrow, Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien will be seen in "Her Only Way" at the Colonial. The story of a woman who is torn between duty for her dead father and the love of her childhood sweetheart. Now she has to choose between love and money. In addition to the star's acting, Eugene O'Brien will give one of his usual fine performances. The settings are lavishly and very unusual in accord with the story. Admirers of Miss Talmadge will find her in one of her finest roles in the first, "Her Only Way" is a feature of the highest class.

To-day is the final showing of the Paramount picture, "In Pursuit of Polly," with Billie Burke at the Regent Theater. This is a splendid and up-to-date picture, with a setting in New York and Long Island. It is a race to see which of these fellows will claim the prize. Many interesting and comical, as well as dramatic points, are brought out, and the final outcome of it is all that some other fellow slips into the race and "catches" Polly. Of course, the other three are left out in the cold. To-morrow and Saturday, there will be a double bill. The story of a kawa appearing in another of his famous Oriental stories, this time in the City of San Francisco. Mr. Hayakawa takes the part of a Chinaman, who has a college education, but who reverts to Chinese forms and customs until the girl he loves gets into the clutches of a Chinese (through his own order), when the final outcome of it is all that some other fellow slips into the race and "catches" Polly. Of course, the other three are left out in the cold.

To-day is positively the last opportunity for local motion picture followers to witness the final showing of "Cleopatra," Fox National feature film. Theda Bara, at the Victoria Theater, has had a long and successful run here. The production, and while the Victoria management would like to hold over the film for a few more days, it is unfortunately impossible to secure it beyond the original four days contracted for. The engagement ends with to-day's performance.

Miners Back at Work in Shamokin Region

Washington, Sept. 18.—Normal conditions will prevail in the Shamokin anthracite fields of Pennsylvania by to-morrow morning, according to reports to the fuel administration today from James R. Neal, director of production. The critical labor situation in the anthracite coal mining districts has been solved by an announcement that the great majority of the 30,000 mine workers who were out have returned to work.

LAWRENCE VELLER Secretary, National Housing Association SUBJECT: "Harrisburg's Housing Needs"

Mr. Veller has been asked to come to Harrisburg by the Board of Directors of the Chamber to make an investigation of Harrisburg's housing problem and to suggest a plan for its solution. Mr. Veller is one of the foremost authorities on housing in the country. He has made an intensive study of the industrial housing problem, especially with its relation to wartime industries, his most important contribution toward the solution of which is the Government Standards for Permanent Industrial Housing Developments, drafted by him and formally adopted by the Bureau of Industrial Housing and Transportation of the Department of Labor, to govern construction in Federal housing developments.

Mr. Veller's acquaintance with the various phases of the housing problem comes from first-hand experience, extending over a period of more than twenty years. He is the author of the "Model Housing Law," on which most of the housing legislation in the country is based. He is the author also of "Housing Reform," the pioneer work on the subject in America. His co-operation with the Real Estate Board and the Civic and Commerce Association of Minneapolis aided in placing on the statute books of Minnesota, within the past year, a housing law which will enable Minneapolis in the future to deal much more effectively with her housing problems.

Housing, at this time, is one of Harrisburg's most serious problems. The question is one which deserves the earnest consideration of every citizen who has the welfare of the city at heart, and it is highly important that the members of the Chamber attend this meeting. Phone reservations at once to No. 4120. Both phones. Only a few covers are laid as there are phone reservations before 11 a. m. of the day of the luncheon. No service promised to those without reservations.
