Paris, Oct. 15.—French forces last night captured the village of Azy-Romance, within a mile of the important railway junction of Reims in the Champagne, the war office announced today.

The French made further progress north of Sissonne, while between Sissonne and Reims they repulsed a violent enemy counterattack near St. Germainmont.

Paris, Oct. 16.—Fighting in Prague is reported as being in progress. Meetings called by the Czechoslo-vaks at Prague to protest against the exportation of foodstuffs from Bohemia which is developing into a revolt, according to dispatches to today's newspapers.

Martial law has been proclaimed throughout the country and German and Hungarian troops are occupying Prague, Pilsen, Pisek and Tabors.

The dispatches report that the revolt has spread to Moravia and that there has been fighting at Brunn, the capital, Olmutz and Skoda, the latter the seat of the big Austrian gun plant, where war is said to have been suspended.

Machine guns, it is added, have been posted in the principal streets of Prague and artillery has been put into position likewise. The population, it is declared, is in no wise intimidated, however, and there is reason to believe the people have arms.

glass removed in case no other satisfactory way is found to keep passengers from closing them."

Sixteen more deaths have been reported until noon today to health officials, of which four were caused by pneumonia and the other twelve indirectly resulting from pneumonia. Only six physicians reported a total of sixty-nine new cases today.

Many in Hospital
Yesterday eighteen deaths were reported and the same number on Monday, a total of thirty-six for two days.

Forty patients are now being treated at the Emergency Hospital, Fifth and Seneca streets. Five were admitted today and two discharged. Miss Mary Pass, a registered nurse, has volunteered her services, and others who are helping at the institution include Mrs. Hoppie and Mrs. Sholl.

A number of osteopathic physicians have offered their services, Dr. Raunick said, and arrangements are being made to have them make visits with the first-aid workers in order to determine which persons are in a serious condition and should be removed to the hospital.

Extra Fire Drivers
Fire Chief John C. Kinder reported that four of the fire department drivers were ill, suffering from the disease, but their places have been filled temporarily by the extra drivers in the employ of the department. A day or two ago the Mount Pleasant apparatus did not respond to an alarm in the Allison Hill district because of the illness of the driver. Both the driver and tillerman of the Mount Vernon Ladder truck are ill, and also one of the drivers of the Good Will Company.

The Red Cross has appealed for broths, junkets, jellies and sickroom delicacies which can be used for the sufferers from influenza. People who can make these articles are asked to 300,000 Cases of Influenza Reported to Health Dept.

Health Department authorities believe there are in Pennsylvania at this time fully 300,000 cases of Spanish influenza. Forty counties yesterday reported 7,000 new cases and there is that number alone in Luzerne county.

The great need is for nurses and the Pennsylvania contingent was increased today by volunteers from New York, which also sent physicians to work in the anthracite regions. Camp Crane, Allentown, has contributed a number of army surgeons.

George Wharton Pepper, chairman of the Pennsylvania Council of National Defense, has asked for War Department assistance in the coal and industrial centers and has requested that several sanitary detachments from military encampments be sent. The anthracite coal companies offer to open hospitals and bear all expenses if the state can provide nurses. The Reserve Militia has provided ten orders for duty at Steelton and emergency hospital equipment has been sent to Girardville, Williamstown and Coatesville.

Ten Deaths at Hospital; 82 Patients Under Treatment
The influenza death rate took an alarming leap at the Harrisburg Hospital last night, where eighty-two patients now are under treatment.

Since yesterday afternoon, ten patients have died at the hospital. Twenty-nine new patients were admitted and five sent to the convalescent hospital at Fifth and Seneca streets for treatment. Several more patients were sent to the convalescent hospital today.

The deaths which occurred last night are: Marlin Mohn, aged 27, of Lemoyne, died at 7:03 last night; Emmanuel Bollinger, aged 45, 611 Oxford street, died at 6:45 last night; Michael Bolta, aged 25, 527 Race street, died at 7:57 last night; Samuel Olsen, aged 36, 226 Liberty street, died at 9:37 last night; Mrs. David Martin, aged 35, New Cumberland, died early last night; Harry Looser, aged 31, of Brookville, formerly of this city; Zopeta Franchi, 134 Hanna street, died at 11:10 last night; Mrs. Samuel Garonzik, aged 26, 331 South Front street, Steelton, died at 12:30 last night; Mrs. Katharine Millesen, aged 60, 1312 State street, died at 4:30 this morning.

Mrs. Elmer Brown, aged 20, 413 Chambers street, Steelton, died at 2:40 this morning. Admitted to the hospital last evening suffering from Spanish influenza was Mrs. Violet Saul, wife of Michael Saul, who is with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, her five-year-old son and one-day-old baby. They live at Clark's Ferry and were without assistance until Harrisburg Red Cross officials learned of their plight and took them to the hospital.

Burian Had Hopes of Peace in German Reply

Amsterdam, Oct. 16.—Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister speaking to the foreign affairs committee of the Hungarian delegation (presumably before President Wilson's second reply to Germany), said:

"The peace note sent by the Central Powers to President Wilson opens the prospect that at no far distant date we shall reach a cessation of hostilities and enter into negotiations for the conclusion of a general lasting and just peace."

CAPT. ROBERTS MENTIONED FOR WORK IN BATTLE

Former Commander of Governor's Troop Distinguishes Himself in Artillery

CAPTAIN ROBERTS
Among the Pennsylvanians who have distinguished themselves in action is Captain George W. H. Roberts, who left this city with the Governor's Troop as its commander last summer when that company was sent to Camp Hancock, Ga.

Captain Roberts, according to unofficial reports, has been cited for bravery at the front. He had been a member of the Governor's Troop for seventeen years before it was disbanded. He saw service as a first lieutenant on the Mexican border. On returning from the border he succeeded Captain Jack as captain of the troop.

Captain Roberts is about 37 years old. He formerly was foreman at the Harrisburg Boiler and Manufacturing company. The Pennsylvania artillery, including the 1st and 2nd regiments from Philadelphia and two regiments of "lights" containing batteries from Pittsburgh, Williamsport, Phoenixville, Wilkes-Barre, Hazleton and Nanticoke, has been mentioned by Raymond G. Carroll, special correspondent for the Public Ledger, for special duty at the front.

Since August 1, it has blazed a path before the Pennsylvania infantry with its accurate fire, reaching over the hills and pouring a withering fire upon the enemy at cross roads.

WAR TO THE END BACK OF GREAT MILITARY BILL

Leaders Say Measure Will Be Passed by the House Tomorrow
Washington, Oct. 16.—Immediate consideration was given by the House today to the military deficiency bill carrying $345,755,000, reported by the appropriate committee to provide for the enlarged war program during the coming nine months, leaders of the measure would be passed to-morrow.

Censusless prosecution of the war, said Chairman Shirley in presenting the committee report, is the underlying thought back of the bill. "This is a measure providing for the prosecution of the war with the utmost care and dispatch," he added, "in its preparation no consideration was given to recent peace events. No money has been denied for aspects which were necessary to carry on the war."

WOMAN'S NERVES MADE STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Winona, Minn.—"I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, I was so nervous that I could not rest at night—would lie awake and get so nervous I would have to get up and walk around and in the morning I would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me. I sleep well and feel fine in the morning and able to do my work. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong." — Mrs. A. BERT SULTZE, 603 Olmstead St., Winona, Minn.

GERMAN FAILURE IN WAR HASTENS PLEA FOR PEACE

Burian Says Central Powers Are Defeated; Further Bloodshed Useless
By Associated Press
Basel, Switzerland, Oct. 16.—The Central Powers found themselves no longer able to hope for a military decision in their favor, and Bulgaria's demand for peace only hastened the presentation of their peace propositions. Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister declared in a recent statement to the foreign affairs committee of the Hungarian delegation at Vienna.

"Although the Central Powers have been able to face the new military situation," the foreign minister said, "it must be stated that we cannot hope any longer for a decisive success by arms, while our adversaries are not sure of their power to crush our resistance. Hence further bloodshed is useless."

Luxemburg Now Begs Wilson For Protection

Amsterdam, Oct. 16.—According to the Bremen Weser Zeitung, the Luxemburg chamber of deputies has unanimously adopted an order of the protest Luxembourg's rights. The order demanded that the government should obtain the evacuation of the country and the liberation of all nationals of Luxemburg condemned by the German military courts. The statement says the government associates itself with the order.

TAKE A BLOOD TONIC BEFORE WINTER

Revitalize your blood and put your system in condition to resist the hardships of winter
It is the strong-blooded men and women who are vigorous and healthy in winter, and who are not inconvenienced by the cold, wet days. Wet feet don't bother them, sudden changes cause no inconvenience, and even when a cold is "caught," because of contact, in a close, stuffy room, with some one already infected, the trouble seldom lasts over a day or two. This highly desired state of health is brought about by having rich, pure blood, uncontaminated by impurities of any kind.

Dyspepsia Spoils Beauty

Makes the Dark Rings Around Eyes, Caves in the Cheeks and Ruins the Complexion. How to Get Rid of Dyspepsia
Digestive troubles ruin the complexion. The sour, fermented, gassy contents poison the blood, draw the corners of the mouth, rob you of sleep, give the face that hungry, haggard, mournful expression in the morning and you are tired all day. It is not what you eat but the fault of digestion that hurts. Eat anything you like and let Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest your food, tone your stomach, supply your blood with nourishment, then good looks, a healthy appearance and bright eyes will soon return. Get a 50 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store. They are real health makers.

EAT SALT ON GRAPEFRUIT AND SAVE SUGAR FOR WAR; OYSTERS ARE CLIMBING HIGH Two husky, russet-faced oyster openers at the "Oysters Market" plied their art today with uncommon zeal while hungry customers ogled the fat luscious bivalves as they plumped from hand to hand. "You mean to say there are plenty of oysters?" cried one old-timer who used to wallow in the briny sweets. "Sure, Mike," grinned the head oysterer. "Oysters better an' bigger this year than ever; we get all ours from Marsh Run down in Jersey. See there; ain't he a beauty?" groaned the hungry one. "Why can't they sell 'em cheaper?" "Can't get labor," cheerily informed the other. "Oysters are plenty, say, boy; isn't this a lalalaloo; weighs half a pound! So the shippers won't take orders; that's the story." The restaurant man these days must pay 75 cents more for a gallon of oysters than last year, and where they used to be 50 cents a quart.

You may possibly think your blood is all right—you are not troubled by outward signs. Yet you have felt tired and languid, you have lost some sleep or had some minor ailments at times, but you regard yourself as in "fairly good condition physically." This may be true, but you should take nothing for granted, you should not "guess" that you are all right. The thing to do is to make yourself right by taking a good blood tonic and invigorator such as S. S. S. It is the best known blood tonic on the market today. There is hardly a man, woman or child in America who has not heard of it. It has helped to restore many people to health. It has brought relief in thousands of cases of blood disorders during the past fifty years. S. S. S. is a standard treatment for all blood troubles. It is a true blood tonic, that purifies and brings new vigor and new life to the blood stream. It is guaranteed to be purely vegetable, to contain no mercury or other mineral drugs, but to be made from herbs and roots carefully selected for their known medicinal properties. For chronic sores, ulcers, psoriasis, rheumatism, eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, tetter, acne and other such diseases as are due to infected blood, S. S. S. acts quickly and satisfactorily. It counteracts the germs and poisons, cleanses the system of unhealthy accumulations, literally washes all foreign matter from the blood and renews its life-giving properties. Be sure to take S. S. S. this Winter. The renewal of vigor that it will give you will be well worth while. One thing you can be sure of, and that is if you take S. S. S. you will be benefited.
