Why John Quit Drinking

By John's Wife

I'm the happiest little woman in all this little town; And my nerves are singing, Takes the place of aching and frown. For JOHN HAS QUIT HIS DRINKING And is like a bird in the air. And the world is just a paradise With such happiness in store.

One day I read some verses— "Mary's Miracle," the name, And I said, that's John exactly, And I'll send and get the same. So I sent for GOLDEN TREATMENT. As they say, he was the Golden One, And I put it in John's supper And I put it in his tea.

And it didn't taste a little bit; Had no odor, so you see— It was smoothest and sailing For little Doctor Me. And I watched and prayed and waited, And cried and wept and prayed, And I didn't have the greatest faith, I'm ashamed now to confess.

And John never thought a minute, He was being cured of drink, And soon he's as well as any one, It makes me cry to think! Just makes me cry for gladness, I'm so proud to be his wife. Since he has quit drinking, And leads a nice, new life.

"Since John he quit a-drinking!" I can't say, my nerves are free, As he would a poison stuff, And when I say, my prayers at night As thanks for the Golden One, I pray for John the most of all— Then GOLDEN TREATMENT.

PENNSYLVANIANS FIGHT AUSTRIAN ENEMY ON PIAVE

Daring 332nd Infantry Regiment Under Major General Treat Crosses River

Washington, Oct. 31.—American soldiers from Pennsylvania and Ohio, composing the Three Hundred and Thirty-second Infantry Regiment, are now fighting with the Italians in their offensive against the Austro-Hungarian forces, an official dispatch from Rome states. Under Major General Treat, the Americans have crossed the Piave River. The third army has established three bridgeheads on the lower Piave. The American troops are operating with the Tenth army, composed of British, Italians and Americans, under Lieutenant General the Earl of Caven. The Tenth was the first army to begin operations by establishing a bridgehead across the Piave river at the island of Grave di Papadopolo. (The Thirty-second Infantry reached Italy late in July and was warmly greeted by the King and ministers and the popular generally.)

Rome, Oct. 31.—The young and daring 332d American Infantry Regiment has entered the battle in Venetia. It was officially announced last night. The American troops, with three-quarters of the Italian army and a French division, are fighting in brotherly union on the front from the Brenta to the sea," says the official report. Since October 24 the Allies have captured 33,000 of the enemy, including 8,000 officers.

In Albania, the Italians have occupied San Giovanni di Medua and are advancing on Scutari. With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 31.—Around Grand Pre, north of the Argonne forest, the Americans have bettered their positions materially in attacks against the Germans. The Bellejoie farm now is virtually all held by the Americans. East of the Meuse there also has been considerable fighting, but no great change in positions has resulted.

The big American guns are continuing to heavily shell German positions far behind the lines and bombing planes also are intensively active against the German lines. In air fighting the Americans Wednesday sent 21 German aviators crashing to the ground. Two of the American fliers are missing.

Twenty-one German aviators were down yesterday by American chasing aviators. It was a banner day in American aviation, considering the number of victories achieved over the Germans.

Two American airmen are missing as a consequence of the fighting in the air. The aerial activity began early in the morning and, aided by the clear weather, American bombers were successful in attacking various enemy points of troop concentration both in the morning and in the afternoon.

apt to forget the importance of the approaching election on Tuesday, November 5, when a governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs, congressmen and members of the state Legislature are to be elected.

"For the first time in many years Dauphin county has been honored by having one of her favorite sons as a candidate on the Republican state ticket in the person of our popular senator, Hon. Edward E. Beidleman, who is a candidate for lieutenant governor. Together with Senator William C. Sprout, our excellent candidate for governor, we have a combination in Sprout and Beidleman which should cause every qualified voter in the county to go to the polls on Tuesday, November 5, and cast a straight ballot for the entire Republican ticket.

"We are appealing to you as a loyal Republican to help arouse interest in the success of the Republican ticket in your district. At the primaries Senator Beidleman carried every district in Dauphin county, an excellent record. Let us endeavor to duplicate this good work at the election Tuesday, November 5, by giving a majority for the entire Republican ticket in every election district in good old Dauphin county. Get on the firing line now and do not miss a single opportunity to make a vote for the Republican ticket. Make your district a 100 per cent. Republican district by having every Republican cast his ballot on election day.

"With kindest personal regards and best wishes for success, we remain Sincerely yours, W. H. HORNER, Chairman. Alex S. Cooper, Secretary."

lature would have to pass a bill creating a loan, and the bill signed by the Governor, or if he vetoed it, a third vote would be necessary to pass it over his veto. "Unless the amendment is adopted now it cannot be again submitted to the people for adoption or rejection until 1923, and in the meantime no money could be borrowed for road improvement. "Many directors of the State Chamber of Commerce have written statements favoring the amendment. R. Dawson Coleman, of Lebanon, states: "I think the improving and rebuilding of the highways of the Commonwealth very important, as our transportation facilities are being very greatly increased by the use of motor trucks, and in my opinion the small amount of the loan to the State is insignificant compared to the advantages of putting the highways in proper condition."

Sunday Prayer Issued by Pittsburgh Minister

Almighty God, let Thy favor rest upon us in the unusual circumstances in which this day finds us. Bless our land, our President, our soldiers and sailors, our Allies, and may peace come with victory. Bless our city. May our first men be our best men, and may the churches of our community be the servants of all, the heralds of the life eternal.

Be pleased to stay the plague that threatens the peace and happiness of our homes. Give comfort and healing to the sick, faith and hope to the dying, wisdom and skill to the doctors and nurses, strength to all who watch and wait. Let our acknowledgement of Thee today be a reality. Accept our confession of duties unfulfilled. Enlarge our service, and may life because of you become sweeter and easier for others. In Jesus' name, Amen.

ITALIAN TROOPS BREAK INTO TWO AUSTRIAN BASES

Take Monte Cison in Offensive on Foe; Allies Make Venice Safe

At Italian Headquarters on the Piave, Oct. 31.—Allied troops have taken Monte Cison, thereby opening the roads to Feltre and Vittorio. Both these were Austrian bases. The capture of Monte Cison also divides the Austrian army, forcing the troops to the north to follow a long, slow line of retreat through the mountains of Trentino. The general line of retreat, where the largest number of troops could be moved, would be along the roads and railways toward Belluno and over the plains toward Udine. Venice now is safe since the Third army has driven back the Austrians in the lower plain. Italian cavalry is advancing rapidly in many points. The number of prisoners is growing hourly and possibly may total 4,000. Opposite the Tenth army, in which American troops are brigaded, it is estimated that four and one half Austrian divisions have been partially destroyed.

The Third army, under command of the Duke of Aosta, has succeeded in establishing bridgeheads across the lower Piave at Ronzonico, Salgareda and San Dona Di Piave under violent Austrian artillery fire. Rome, Wednesday, Oct. 30.—Oderzo has been reached by Allied troops advancing from the river Piave. Serravalle has been taken, according to the official statement issued at the war office to-night. The statement reads: "Our armies are continuing to rapidly advance after the retreating enemy who has attempted in vain to retard them. Heads of columns of the Austrians at Serravalle, Orassio, Gajarine and Oderzo. Cavalry divisions are advancing in the plains and some squadrons today entered Saffio."

"An overwhelming strong resistance between the Piave and the Montebello Third army has fought brilliantly. The river crossing at Pont di Asiago, which we promptly occupied. "During the rush of the advance it has been impossible to keep count of the thousands of prisoners and many guns. Besides the populations of towns and villages, we have liberated numbers of Italian prisoners who have been in Austrian hands."

SHRAPNEL SHELL KILLED LIEUT. DANIEL KELLER

Further details of the death in action of First Lieutenant Daniel Keller, of Lancaster, son of First Deputy Attorney General William H. Keller, tell that he was struck by shrapnel September 28. His last words were: "God bless you major, keep after them." The major was killed almost at the same time.

BANQUET POSTPONED

M., has been indefinitely postponed according to an announcement made last evening by the committee arranging the affair. The banquet, which was scheduled for next month, has been put off owing to the influenza epidemic and to meet the request of the Federal Food Administration that all food materials be conserved as far as possible.

Asks Unanimous Vote

George S. Oliver, President, Chamber of Commerce, Pittsburgh, in view of the fact that if the Constitutional Amendment for improving and rebuilding the highways should be adopted at the next election, immediate action is not contemplated and that the issue of bonds will not be made until after the war, I am of the opinion, that the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce should endorse the amendment and I would be glad to see a unanimous vote in favor of the measure. Col. Harry Trexler, President, Allegheny Chamber of Commerce: "I am strongly in favor of this amendment and urge all citizens to vote 'yes' on Amendment No. 19." Edwin E. Sparks, President of State College. Ernest T. Trigg, President of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce: "I am strongly in favor of this amendment and urge all citizens to vote 'yes' on Amendment No. 19."

WIDOW CHARGES FRAUD AND SUES CITY ATTORNEY

Bungalow and Tract of Land in Susquehanna Township Involved in the Suit

Charging that S. H. Zimmerman, an attorney of the Dauphin county bar, residing at 412 North street, has fraudulently sold the property of a widow and then disposed of her also misappropriating some of the money realized by the sale, counsel for the woman has brought an equity suit against the lawyer asking the county court to set aside the deeds conveying the house which he sold and also compel him to mark satisfied certain judgments on record against it. The suit was filed late yesterday afternoon by George R. Barnett, as counsel for Mrs. Emma Auar, widow of the late William Auar, and her children, William W., now in the army, Margaret who is now Mrs. Guy Henry, Lewis, aged 18, and Anna, aged 8.

Claims Against Property

The Auars owned a tract of two acres and a bungalow in Susquehanna township, valued at $2,500 they claim. After the death of Mr. Auar the widow said she consulted an attorney in Harrisburg and told him that a mortgage of $800 and three judgments of the church have been requested to report at general headquarters for instructions.

She was advised the property should be sold upon an order from the Orphan's Court for the sale of real estate for payment of debts. Later she said she consulted Mr. Zimmerman and he told her he knew of another way to sell the property. Following another legal proceeding, which it is alleged was not strictly in conformity with usual methods, Zimmerman had the property sold by the sheriff for $887 to one of the persons holding a judgment against it. Some of these debts were paid at this time, it is charged, but the record does not show that the judgments were satisfied, it is charged.

Following the sale of the Auar property by the sheriff, it is claimed Zimmerman bought the place and served notice on Mrs. Auar that she should pay him a certain monthly rent for the house and ground. Ejectment Proceedings Upon the advice of her sons she refused to pay rent, but continued to live in the house from January to September, 1917. Then Zimmerman began ejectment proceedings and had her ousted from the place. It is contended in the bill of equity that the sheriff's sale and other actions in connection with it were illegal, that the proper procedure would have been to sell the real estate through an Orphan's Court order, that the amount which could have been realized from the sale of the land and bungalow would have been more than paid the debts, but because of the sheriff's sale and the subsequent purchase of the place by Zimmerman, the widow has received nothing.

It is stated also that Zimmerman never told Mrs. Auar he was not acting in her interest but instead for the holder of one of the judgments and that no letters of administration ever were issued on the estate of Mr. Auar. Zimmerman is the third lawyer of the county bar to be involved in proceedings in which it is alleged the interests of a client were not properly considered. Robbitt Bennett, colored is charged with embezzlement.
