Liverpool Red Cross Active in Aid Work

Liverpool, Pa., Oct. 31.—This week the Liverpool Red Cross branch sent a check for $103 to the Harrisburg Chapters. This is Liverpool's contribution to the chapter to buy muslin for our hospitals in France.

Red Cross rooms are open Wednesday afternoon and Friday evening each week until further notice. Much work is on hand and volunteer workers are needed.

The home service section of the Red Cross Society is lending aid to many homes where influenza has invaded. Mrs. Jean Coulter a trained nurse is in charge of the work.

PERRY COUNTY CASUALTIES New Bloomfield, Pa., Oct. 30.—Last week's casualty list contained the names of the following Perry county boys who are in France:

Chester A. Latchford, of Newport, severely wounded; Corporal James McGomer Shearer, of this place; Private Charles E. Christ, of Duncannon, and Private Walter A. Smith, of Millerstown. Paul Swartz, of this place, is recovering from injury reported some time ago.

EPIDEMIC LITTLE BETTER Lewisport, Pa., Oct. 31.—The influenza epidemic is but little better at Lewisport. Fifteen persons died during the twenty-four hours ending last evening. Whole families are down with the disease. More new patients have been taken to the Emergency Hospital at Millroy. There is no improvement in the situation. Millroy county doctors are working day and night to relieve the sufferers.

TO TAKE VOTE New Bloomfield, Pa., Oct. 31.—Associate Judge George E. Boyer, of Duncannon, has been appointed by Governor Brumbaugh as one of the six commissioners to go to American training camps on election day and take soldiers' votes. Judge Boyer will go to Park Field, Memphis, Tenn.

TO OPEN SCHOOL Blain, Pa., Oct. 31.—Preparations were being made by the Agricultural Department of the Blain Vocational school to open the first session of the school on Saturday evening, November 2, when Nicholas Schmitt, was to speak on the subject of "Alfalfa and Its Requirements," but on account of the Spanish influenza epidemic, it has been postponed indefinitely, which date will be announced later.

Three Deaths in Family During the Last Week

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 31.—Three deaths from influenza have occurred in one family in Boiling Springs within one week, with the death of four-year-old Marie Fahnestock on Tuesday afternoon. First George Fahnestock, the father, died, and then the mother followed, while the little child, who was being cared for at the Carlisle Hospital, also died. Three children, all that are left from this one family, are now in the hospital critically ill.

Mother and child were buried in one casket yesterday afternoon in Mount Zion Cemetery, near Churchtown.

DIES OF OLD AGE Blain, Pa., Oct. 31.—Jemima Neidigh, formerly of this part of the county, died of old age at the home of her son, Howard Neidigh, in Lancaster county. She had an attack of influenza but being in impaired health her strength was unable to throw off the disease.

RECONSTRUCTED OLD SCHOOL Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 31.—Construction work has begun at General Hospital No. 31, formerly the Carlisle Indian school, by the Warren, Moore Construction Company. The old buildings are being converted to hospital uses and the work will be rushed. The new construction planned will probably be deferred until spring.

MRS. LAURA SHULENBERGER Newville, Pa., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Laura Shulenberger, wife of William B. Shulenberger, died at her home in South High street on Wednesday morning from typhoid fever, aged 34 years. Mrs. Shulenberger was a member of the Church of God and is survived by her husband and four children, the youngest being but two weeks old. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in Prospect Hill Cemetery.

SECOND DEATH IN FAMILY Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 31.—Samuel J. Zuffall, died last night in West Main street, after about ten days' illness with influenza which developed into pneumonia. This is the second death within ten days in this family. The father, Dr. S. J. Zuffall, a prominent West Main street dentist, died about ten days ago of the same disease. The child is survived by the mother, Mrs. M. M. Zuffall, and a brother, William. Funeral arrangements will be made later.

Suburban Notes HALIFAX Professor S. C. Beitzel, of the local schools, has been elected chairman of the United War Work Campaign to be waged during the week of November 11 to 18. A vigorous campaign will be put on here to raise the quota allotted to the Halifax district.

LIVERPOOL Mr. and Mrs. Duke Snyder, of Coatesville, are visiting relatives in town. M. H. Grubb, of Harrisburg, was a recent visitor in town. Edgar Snyder, of Trenton, N. J., was a recent visitor here with his family.

WINS CITATION AND COMMISSION Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 31.—Awarded the Croix de Guerre for special services in France, William B. Kline, of Carlisle, serving in France with the Ambulance Corps, has won his spurs and been commissioned as a second lieutenant in the motor transport division. His citation will be sent to his mother, Mrs. Ella Kline, here. The citation for bravery came from General Gouraud, of the French Army.

VOTE FOR JUSTICE FOX Do not overlook the NON-PARTISAN column on the official ballot at the election, Tuesday, November 5th, 1918.

It is SEPARATE from the PARTY column, contains the names of all candidates for Judge of the SUPREME COURT and requires a SEPARATE mark. Make YOUR vote count for the good of the state by casting it for Edward J. Fox of Northampton County Judge Fox is a PRESENT member of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania by appointment and is a candidate to SUCCEED himself.

He had been a successful practicing lawyer for thirty-eight years when called to the supreme bench on June 18, 1918, to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late Hon. S. Leslie Mestres.

His appointment has been generally COMMENDED by the bench, bar and newspapers of the state. We believe that CAPABLE judges should be kept on the bench, therefore we urge the RETENTION of Judge Fox.

TWO vacancies are to be filled at the November election, but under the law each voter may vote for only ONE. We hope YOUR one will be for the present incumbent, Judge Fox.

EDWARD J. FOX CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE, W. S. KIRKPATRICK, Chairman.
