An Indian Prince Has the Most Uncanny Clock

London.—The most uncanny clock in the possession of an Indian prince. It has no dial, only a round disk to which numerous little bells are attached. Its mere sight at every full hour is sufficient to strike an awe into nervous persons. For this uncanny clock indicates the hour by uniting, as with a magic hand, into a skeleton a number of bones heaped about it. This skeleton then seizes a bone and strikes with it the bells as often as are hours to be indicated. This done, the skeleton falls again to pieces. The strange clock has, of course, many admirers. Thus, an English banker recently offered $5,000 for it, but the owner could not be induced to sell it.

WM. STROUSE

the enthusiasm is growing in our victory overcoat campaign

For more than 25 years I have studied the clothing needs of Harrisburg men and it certainly is a source of extreme gratification that men depend upon The New Store in the good old American way that bespeaks confidence. It was the American grit and push and confidence that put the junkers out of commission. —like the big peace news—when it struck the world everybody gave instant release to his pent up feelings and proclaimed in loudest expression the happiness that victory and peace brought to the nation. —our victory overcoat campaign was received with greatest enthusiasm but there is a constantly growing volume of appreciation as the big event rolls on. —our victory overcoat values will long be remembered. They are the culmination of care, training, experience, judgment, conscientiousness and fair dealing all molded into one concrete thing—Wm. Strouse Victory Values. —Get your overcoat here—get it here tomorrow—get it here tomorrow and have it for Thanksgiving—The greatest of all Thanksgivings.

the boys have done so much to help win the war (we are thinking especially of the boy scouts—and every boy should be a boy scout some time in his young life) that Thanksgiving will mean as much to them as to the men. Therefore, prime importance is given to overcoats for boys. Boys, we'll meet you at The New Store, Saturday.
