Steel Worker Gets Amazing Relief in Severe Case of Inflammatory Rheumatism

Advices 20th Century Liniment in All Cases of Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Etc.

Read what he says: "I am a steel worker employed by the Scranton Box and Nut Works. Those who know the occupation of Puddling Iron will fully realize the danger of catching cold. With me a slight cold developed into inflammatory rheumatism and for three months I could not move hand or foot. Doctors could give me no relief for five days before using 20th Century Liniment. I neither ate nor slept. It was only after much persuasion that I allowed a friend of mine to try your liniment. Five minutes after 20th Century Liniment was applied I felt the first relief. My wonderful liniment has done for others, it can do for you also.

Get a small bottle of Danderine at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. Citations for extraordinary heroism carrying the Distinguished Service

- Cross were awarded the following Pennsylvanians:
Sergeant Alois J. Gunther, Com-pany G, 11th Infantry. "For extra-ordinary heroism in action west of Fismette, France, August 10, 1918. Sergeant Gunther, with another sol-dier, voluntarily left a place of safety and crawled through heavy machine gun and shell fire to the aid of a comrade who had fallen wounded during the withdrawal of their com-pany from an exposed position, carry-ing him 70 yards across an open area to shelter." Home address: Mrs. Clara Gunther, mother, 39 Excelsior street, Pittsburgh.
Sergeant Henry S. Lawrence, Com-pany B, 108th Machine Gun Battalion. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Basilleux, France, September 5, 1918. When the advance of the platoon commander by him was held up by machine gun fire from the front, and flames, Sergeant Lawrence took a rifle and bayonet, accompanied by another soldier, crawled under the enemy wire in the face of severe fire, drove off the crews of several enemy machine guns and returned with two prisoners, thereby enabling his platoon to rush on. Subsequently, under heavy machine gun and sniper fire, he went along the line of his gun emplacements cheering and encour-aging his men, his fearlessness aff-ording an inspiration to them throughout the engagement." Home address: Mrs. David Lawrence, moth-er, 1219 Main street, Peckville.
First Sergeant John W. Thompson, Company G, 11th Infantry. "For extra-ordinary heroism in action near Le Grand Savart, west of Fismette, France, August 10, 1918. Sergeant Thompson showed remarkable bravery and disregard of personal danger when with two other soldiers he at-tacked a German machine gun, killed the crew, and then with deadly effect turned the gun upon other machine guns and hostile positions which were in position nearby. The crews of all the other German machine guns were killed, ten machine guns were cap-tured, and the way cleared for the further advance of the American forces." Home address: Mrs. Annie Thompson, mother, 6210 Huntress street, Pittsburgh.
Private Willis P. Snyder, Company D, 16th Machine Gun Battalion. "For extraordinary heroism in action east of Rheims, France, July 18, 1918. While manning a machine gun against the enemy and after all his comrades had either been killed or wounded, Private Snyder remained at his post and in the hand-to-hand fight which ensued forced the enemy to retire, and, although wounded, he attempted to carry back his wounded comrades. His supreme courage and devotion to duty were an inspiration to all asso-ciated with him." Home address: Mrs. Kate Snyder, mother, 1337 Cot-ton street, Reading.
Sergeant Ralph Edward Ord, Com-pany C, 11th Infantry. "For extra-ordinary heroism in action west of Fismette, France, August 10, 1918. Sergeant Ord, with another soldier, voluntarily left a place of safety and crawled through heavy machine gun fire to the aid of a comrade who had fallen wounded during the withdrawal of their company from an exposed position, carry-ing him 75 yards across an open area to shelter." Home address: John A. Ord, father, Dravosburg.
Corporal John K. Irons, Company K, 11th Infantry. "For extraordinary heroism in action near Bois St. Claude, in the St. Mihiel salient, France, Sep-tember 12, 1918. After being wounded in the foot by a machine gun bullet and later in the leg by shrapnel, Corporal Irons continued in the ad-vance of his squad all that day with-out medical attention other than his first aid, thereby displaying excep-tional courage and devotion to duty." Home address: Mrs. Harry Crowley, 311 Sixteenth street, Monaca.
First Lieutenant Albert N. Hassig, 35th Infantry. "For extraordinary heroism in action between Fey-en-Haye and Vilecy, France, September 12, 1918. Although he was severely wounded, Lieutenant Hassig refused to go to a first aid station, but con-tinued to give assistance in silencing enemy machine gun nests. Home ad-dress: J. J. Hassig, father, Ellwood City.

- "Ace" Rickenbacher
Timid on the Ground
With the American Army in France.—Your average steeplejack gets cold feet when he goes down a mine shaft, and so it is sometimes with our aviators who get their pic-tures in the papers labeled "Dar-ing" and "Intrepid."
"I was never so scared in my life as I was the other night," con-fessed Lieutenant "Eddie" Ricken-bacher. "I had to go down near the German lines to help get out a Ger-man plane we had shot down. When the Germans started putting shells along the road I got down on my stumpy and sweat."
Yet Rickenbacher is fearless in the air, has twenty Boches to his credit, and only recently received the Distinguished Service Cross for "extraordinary heroism."
Kansas City, Mo.—"You're charged with failure to buy a license for your dog. Guilty or not guilty?" asked the assistant city counselor of A. M. Brown, in the 8th South Side Court.
"Guilty," answered Brown. "But," he continued, "Luther died yester-day. He was eighteen years old and coughed himself to death."
"No excuse," replied Mossman. "You obtained no license for the dog in the past ten months. You must buy one now."
The judge concurred with the counselor.
French Urchins Find Ideal in Our Men
Somewhere in France—There are few cities in France that do not have American M. P.'s. The Yankee patrol with his club dangling from his waist and the red badge of au-thority on his arm, has become al-most as regular a thing as the don-key carts and cathedrals.

French street urchins who are very proud of the Americans may be seen at play imitating the military police. Armed with a baton and an "M. P." insignia attached to the arm, they lord it over the other children of the "rue" establish fan-tastical "restricted districts" and arrest other youths who are playing they are a "sit-sag"—the universal expression for intoxication.

"I had been troubled for a long time with chronic constipation and never found anything that gave me the natural relief that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has." (From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Mr. I. Rosenthal, 6 W. 28th St., New York, N. Y.)

Nearly every disease can be traced to constipation. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that quickly relieves constipation and restores normal activity. It is gentle in its action and does not gripe.

... and with Navy Officers it's a little over 80%

A fact: Sales reports show that throughout the U. S. Navy—on battleships, cruisers, destroyers and all other types of naval vessels—over 80% of all the cigarettes sold in Officers' Mess are Fatimas.

FATIMA A Sensible Cigarette

This preference for Fatima in the Navy is due not alone to the pleasing taste, but also to the fact that Fatimas never "talk back," even if a man should smoke more than usual.
