

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

Mrs. Miles Bower, Bride of Few Months, Dies

Blain, Pa., Nov. 21.—Funeral services for Mrs. Miles Bower, who died of pneumonia, at the age of 26 years will be held to-morrow at 1 o'clock with burial in the new cemetery at Blain.

Influenza Epidemic Cost $13,000 in Mifflin County

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 21.—The influenza epidemic in Mifflin county has run its course as there are no cases and very few ill at present. Altogether about 300 persons died in the county from the disease and pneumonia following.

At the emergency hospital in the high school building in the Sixth ward, about 150 patients were treated. Thirty-eight persons died at this hospital of pneumonia. Ninety-six of the patients were males and 54 were females. Only 13 of the patients admitted were over 40 years of age.

Murderers of Geo. Bushman to Get Preliminary Hearing

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—A preliminary hearing will be held at 10 o'clock to-morrow at the residence of Clarence R. Collins and Charles Keincker, the youthful murderers of George J. Bushman, who were brought here from the Dauphin county jail last week.

In Honor of Teacher

Liverpool, Pa., Nov. 21.—A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gandy, of Liverpool township, in honor of their daughter, Miss Marie Gandy, a former teacher in the district, who is employed at Harrisburg and is spending a short vacation here with her parents.

Bullet Through Windshield

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—While S. S. Neely and J. Donald Swope were riding in an automobile between Cashtown and McKeighlin town Sunday afternoon a bullet crashed through the windshield, throwing glass all about them, but not injuring either of them.

WEST SHORE NEWS

PROGRAM READY FOR DEDICATION

St. Paul's Lutheran Church at New Cumberland Will Hold Services Sunday

New Cumberland, Nov. 21.—The program for the dedication of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at New Cumberland, Pa., will be held Sunday, Nov. 24, at 10 o'clock.

Community service at 2:30 o'clock; anthem, "Rock Ye The Lord"; psalm, "The Lord Is My Strength"; prayer; hymn 284; address, local pastor and visiting clergymen; solo, Miss Mary Rudy; remarks, the Rev. Dr. A. R. Steck, pastor of First Lutheran Church, Carlisle.

Personal and Social Items of Towns on West Shore

Mrs. George Lenhart, of Asbury Park, New Jersey, visiting friends at New Cumberland. Miss Margaret Reigel, of Blain, a teacher in the Vocation School, is visiting her parents at New Cumberland.

Church of God Services

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 21.—This evening in the Church of God, the Rev. Dr. McDaniel, of Mount Joy, will preach and on Friday evening the Rev. Charles Huston, of Camp Hill will fill the pulpit.

Pine Horses Sold

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—The Buttoned Stock Farm's annual sale of trotting bred horses took place recently and amounted to $5,320. The highest price brought for a horse was $900.

Church Bazaar

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 21.—On Friday evening, December 6, the Ladies' Circle of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will hold a bazaar in Straub's room in Third street.

SCHOOL RAISES $75 FOR FUND

Camp Hill High Pupils Have Plans For Busy Winter Session

Camp Hill, Pa., Nov. 21.—During the recent United War Work drive the high school raised $75 for the "Victory Boys" and Girls' Division of the campaign. Fifteen pupils of the school pledged themselves to raise and give $5 for the recreation and aid of the boys' over there.

A large twenty volume encyclopedia has been installed in the high school reference library. This set of "Americana" is one of the latest American editions and among the best reference books published.

Alexander D. Oyer, Civil War Veteran, Dies at 82

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Alexander D. Oyer, a veteran of the Civil War, one of the aged residents of the town, has aged peacefully at his home, near the town, and died at the age of 82 years. He was a life-long resident of the county, most of his years being spent on the farm where his time was divided tiling the soil and the burning of charcoal.

Odd Fellows Memorial

Liverpool, Pa., Nov. 21.—On Monday evening the Odd Fellows No. 533, held an interesting meeting of memorial and thanksgiving nature and was participated in by members and visitors.

Bible Class Will Meet

Shiremanstown, Pa., Nov. 21.—The monthly meeting of the Helping Hand Ladies' Organized Bible Class of the United Brethren Sunday school, will be held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. George K. Eshelman.

160 New Members

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church received one hundred and sixty new members into the church on Sunday, Bishop McDevitt confirming the class.

S. A. Robison, Liverpool's Oldest Resident, Dies

Liverpool, Pa., Nov. 21.—Liverpool's oldest resident, Samuel A. Robison, known to old and young as "Daddy" Robison and beloved by all, died suddenly yesterday morning. After eating a hearty breakfast Daddy went into the living room and sat down in his accustomed place. Later upon receiving no answer to his calls Mrs. Robison found him dead on his chair.

Mr. Robison was born near Newton Hamilton, April 16, 1831, and was the only surviving child of the family. He was a member of the United Brethren Church. During the Civil War he enlisted and was made corporal in Company D, 183d Pennsylvania Volunteers and served to the end of the war. After the war he came to this section of the country as a supervisor for the Pennsylvania Canal Company of this district and served for more than forty years.

Funeral will be held at the home to-morrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. G. H. Knox, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the cemetery of the United Brethren Church, will have charge.

Another Gold Star

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 21.—Another gold star in the Dickinson College service list has been awarded. It will be added with the receipt by friends here of the news of the death of Russell J. Floegel, of the Marine Corps. He was a student here for three years, coming from Carlisle, Pa., and enlisted early in 1917. He was twice wounded, gassed and decorated with the Croix de Guerre for services at Chateau Thierry, before he met death on October 1, 1918.

Wounded in France

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Howard S. Bittinger, son of Jacob Bittinger, South Market street, was wounded slightly while in action in France. Previous to this the young soldier had been gassed and was in the American Base Hospital. He is a member of the Machine Gun Company of the One Hundred and Twelfth Infantry.

Entertains A. O. Club

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Mrs. S. Harper Myers was hostess for the A. O. Club at her home in East Main street, on Tuesday evening at a sauerkraut supper. Among the guests were: Mrs. W. G. Moyer, Jr., Mrs. N. L. Seger, Mrs. M. B. Peffer, Mrs. Robert J. Young, Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Frank H. Guyer, Mrs. C. F. Kamish and Mrs. Myers.

Five-Day Institute

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 21.—Superintendent J. C. McWhorter, of the Waynesboro public schools, is shaping the program for the five-day session of the teachers' institute to be held here November 22-26. All the public schools will close Thursday and remain closed until Monday, December 2.

Waynesboro Gives $22,000

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 21.—The Franklin county committee in charge of raising this county's allotment of the National War Work fund, held a meeting to take final action in the work of raising the $26,000 or more allotted to Franklin county. The campaign closed to-day and Waynesboro's share was $22,000.

Three Glass Into Streets

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 21.—Paul and Clyde Cilly, two Waynesboro boys, were haled into a magistrate's office and a fine of $10 and costs was imposed on them for throwing broken glass into the streets, which damaged the tires of automobile owners.

Only One Corn Peeler, "Gets-It"

Stop corn pains, see corn peel off. It is just when a corn hurts that you want to feel surest about getting rid of it. Why take chances of recurring the corn and having the pain grow worse? You'll use "Gets-It!"

Clay Swab, of Enders, and Miss Mary Hoffman, of Halifax, were married at the parsonage of the Jacksonville United Brethren Church by the pastor, the Rev. H. H. Fertig.

ANVILLE

Miss Helen Reed was the guest of Mrs. Wilbur Small at Manheim recently. Mrs. Anthony Wanta is ill at her home here.

Misses Isabel Wert and Lillian Berger, of Lebanon, visited Prosper Wert at Lebanon Valley College on Sunday.

Elsie Bachman, of Middletown, visited friends here Sunday. Mrs. Alfred K. Mills, of Anville, rendered vocal selections at the peace service in the Fourth Street Presbyterian Church at Lebanon on Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Kreider has returned to Walnut Lane School, Germantown, where she is a student. Charles Horn, of Hummelstown, spent a day here the guest of his brother.

Miss Mary Kreider, of East Main street, is ill at her home.

Cumberland Valley News

Carlisle Soldiers Tell of Hearing Lincoln's Address

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 21.—In special exercises, Captain Colwell Post No. 201, G. A. R., observed the anniversary of the famous address of President Lincoln, at Gettysburg. The occasion was marked by the presence of and addresses by two members of the Post who heard the address. They were the Rev. Dr. W. A. Housck, a veteran of the Civil War, whose both sons are in the American Army, and a young man, who was a member of the post, who heard the address. The commander of the local post, John D. Zimmerman, former one of the guards of honor which guarded the body of Lincoln, was also present. The occasion was held at the home of Judge Willis, where President Lincoln stayed. He told the story of the efforts to win the address were put to rest in the crowd back when President Lincoln spoke and he heard Everett, the orator, compliment the President on the address. Several other Carlisleans also were present when the address was delivered.

Scholars Pledge to Fund

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Among the boys and girls in the school districts of Cumberland county are those of the Boiling Springs high school with an enrollment of sixteen out of twenty-two pupils, who contributed of $3 each, five in the grammar school pledged $5 each and $30 was offered by the classes. Other schools mentioned in good records are: Forest school, taught by Mrs. J. C. Weaver, a kindergarten school, taught by Miss Annie Yeagert, and Mechanicsburg school, taught by Mrs. Grace Davidson.

Another Gold Star

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 21.—Another gold star in the Dickinson College service list has been awarded. It will be added with the receipt by friends here of the news of the death of Russell J. Floegel, of the Marine Corps. He was a student here for three years, coming from Carlisle, Pa., and enlisted early in 1917. He was twice wounded, gassed and decorated with the Croix de Guerre for services at Chateau Thierry, before he met death on October 1, 1918.

Open Tea Room

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 21.—To provide funds for the entertainment of soldiers in the General Hospital and Dickinson S. T. C. a committee of visitors, the canteen section of the Carlisle Red Cross this afternoon formally opened a tea room in Carlisle. Special intentions will be served to soldiers and the same is also for the general public, the proceeds going to the entertainments given officers and enlisted men.

Wounded in France

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Howard S. Bittinger, son of Jacob Bittinger, South Market street, was wounded slightly while in action in France. Previous to this the young soldier had been gassed and was in the American Base Hospital. He is a member of the Machine Gun Company of the One Hundred and Twelfth Infantry.

Entertains A. O. Club

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Mrs. S. Harper Myers was hostess for the A. O. Club at her home in East Main street, on Tuesday evening at a sauerkraut supper. Among the guests were: Mrs. W. G. Moyer, Jr., Mrs. N. L. Seger, Mrs. M. B. Peffer, Mrs. Robert J. Young, Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Frank H. Guyer, Mrs. C. F. Kamish and Mrs. Myers.

Five-Day Institute

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 21.—Superintendent J. C. McWhorter, of the Waynesboro public schools, is shaping the program for the five-day session of the teachers' institute to be held here November 22-26. All the public schools will close Thursday and remain closed until Monday, December 2.

Waynesboro Gives $22,000

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 21.—The Franklin county committee in charge of raising this county's allotment of the National War Work fund, held a meeting to take final action in the work of raising the $26,000 or more allotted to Franklin county. The campaign closed to-day and Waynesboro's share was $22,000.

Three Glass Into Streets

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 21.—Paul and Clyde Cilly, two Waynesboro boys, were haled into a magistrate's office and a fine of $10 and costs was imposed on them for throwing broken glass into the streets, which damaged the tires of automobile owners.

Only One Corn Peeler, "Gets-It"

Stop corn pains, see corn peel off. It is just when a corn hurts that you want to feel surest about getting rid of it. Why take chances of recurring the corn and having the pain grow worse? You'll use "Gets-It!"

Clay Swab, of Enders, and Miss Mary Hoffman, of Halifax, were married at the parsonage of the Jacksonville United Brethren Church by the pastor, the Rev. H. H. Fertig.

ANVILLE

Miss Helen Reed was the guest of Mrs. Wilbur Small at Manheim recently. Mrs. Anthony Wanta is ill at her home here.

Misses Isabel Wert and Lillian Berger, of Lebanon, visited Prosper Wert at Lebanon Valley College on Sunday.

Elsie Bachman, of Middletown, visited friends here Sunday. Mrs. Alfred K. Mills, of Anville, rendered vocal selections at the peace service in the Fourth Street Presbyterian Church at Lebanon on Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Kreider has returned to Walnut Lane School, Germantown, where she is a student. Charles Horn, of Hummelstown, spent a day here the guest of his brother.

Miss Mary Kreider, of East Main street, is ill at her home.

NO DINNER THIS YEAR

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 21.—Because the women of Waynesboro have worked so strenuously during the prevalence of the influenza epidemic, and owing to the fact there still remains a considerable number of cases in the community, it has been decided not to hold the customary Thanksgiving dinner for children this year. The donations to be collected at the schools will be looked after just the same and will be placed in the hand of the relief association members for distribution where needed.

Soldiers Come to Hospital

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 21.—With new soldiers arriving daily, it is expected that the first unit of General Hospital No. 31, at Carlisle, will be normally opened by Christmas. Construction work is being completed and it is believed that the unit will be reduced for use of wounded men in a short time and that the first from overseas will arrive here by the first of the year. The first units will have 500 beds and further extensions will depend on demands, officials say.

Radish Like Shell

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 21.—That Cumberland county war gardeners really did raise "armies" was demonstrated to-day by County Commissioner Levan H. Brehm, who displayed a radish raised at his home near Boiling Springs, shaped like a large shell, fifteen inches long and twenty-two and one-half inches in circumference, weighing nine and one-half pounds.

Pinchot Makes Survey

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 21.—Interesting developments in this section are seen in the visit to the Pine Grove Furnace region of State Forest Reserve of Gifford Pinchot, the conservation expert, who this week made a survey of the resources. He visited all parts of the big tract which the state owns there.

No Indigestion! Stomach Feels Fine! No Acidity, Gas, Souring, Dyspepsia

Belching gas, food souring in stomach, lumps of pain from indigestion and all distress from an upset stomach stops instantly. Yes! At once! No more stomach-headache. Never any indigestion pain. Pape's Diapepsin not only relieves bad stomachs but it strengthens weak stomachs. Splendid! Costs little—Any drug store.

UPSET? Pape's Diapepsin WILL PUT YOU ON YOUR FEET DAY AND NIGHT SCHOOL DIAL 4016 ENTER ANYTIME BELL 694-R

Two Night Schools: Monday, Wednesday, Friday Nights—Tuesday, Thursday Nights

BECKLEY'S BUSINESS COLLEGE THE OFFICE TRAINING SCHOOL 121 MARKET ST. School Reopens Wednesday, November 26

Advertisement for Shell's Schleisner Stores. The Government requests, "No extra help—no extra hours—during the Christmas rush." We have agreed. The Sale of the Season Every Suit and Dress, Without Reserve at 1/4 Off the Original Price. This opportunity to secure a Schleisner Suit or Dress at such a tempting reduction in the heart of the season should be of intense interest to every woman and miss who desires to dress in correct vogue at very small expenditure. Suits and Dresses $112.50, $86.25, $73.13, $67.13, $56.25. Suits and Dresses $52.13, $44.63, $37.13, $29.82, $22.32. Very Special Friday and Saturday Trimmed Hats Choice $3.95. Very Special Friday and Saturday Kayser Silk Camisoles Special $1.00. Kayser Silk Bloomers Special $2.95.

Advertisement for Grape-Nuts. GRAPE-NUTS Requires No Sugar Whenever you eat anything that is "naturally" sweet, thereby saving the use of sugar you are helping just that much. Most prepared cereals require some additional sweetening. Grape-Nuts requires none for it contains a considerable amount of its own, - not "put there" in its making but developed by the famous Grape-Nuts method of baking, from the grains of which this food is made. You should get acquainted with GRAPE-NUTS.