

Home Circle Holds an Interesting Meeting

The Home and Foreign Mission Circle of Pine Street Presbyterian Church held an interesting meeting Tuesday evening, December 17, in the women's and girls' building.

Welfare Workers Seek Names of Homeless

In order to further the child welfare work Mrs. John E. Sweeney, of Camp Hill, has asked that the names of children of Cumberland county who need homes be sent to her before Christmas.

SOLDIER RETURNS FROM SERVICE IN ENGLAND

Ralph W. Little, of Chambersburg, has returned to New York after six months overseas service. He was attached to the Two Hundred and Sixty-third Aer. Squadron, which was among the first units selected for return to this country.

HOME PROM SCHOOL

John D. McCaleb, Jr., a member of the Students Army Training Corps at Carnegie Institute of Technology, in Pittsburgh, has arrived at his home, 125 Walnut street.

APPRAISEMENT BOARD MADE UP

Etter, Gipple and Pomeranig to Examine Buildings on North Street Shortly

John E. Gipple, president of the Harrisburg Real Estate Board, and Joseph Pomeranig, a well known builder, were to-day added to the state board to appraise properties in North and other streets, which may be affected by street widening and other work incidental to the extension of Capitol Park and various improvements.

The city of Harrisburg to-day notified the state of the appropriation of $25,000 for the start of the work of widening the highway on Third street and inquiring as to the intentions of the state on the Capitol side of the street between Walnut and North streets.

The United Business Men's Association, of Philadelphia, through its transportation committee to-day filed complaint with the Public Service Commission against the skip-stop plan of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, alleging that it is dangerous and has caused accidents, contrary to a city ordinance and no longer needed as a war measure.

H. N. Hepler, of Brookville, to-day sent to the State Treasury a money order for $3.50 representing a tax which he stated he thought should be paid to the state. He said that he had money at interest and paid a tax thereon, but believed the state was entitled to more. It was sent to the conscience fund.

Henry J. Schaad, of Mildred, who complained against discontinuance of trains on the Lehigh Valley railroad in Bradford county and whose complaint was set aside because of war conditions to-day renewed the matter contending that service should be restored by the Public Service Commission. Complaint was made by H. D. Levin, of Lebanon, that the city of Lebanon was furnishing water in a ward of that city without authority of the state.

The hearing in the complaints against rates of the Jefferson Electric Company, operating in Jefferson county, was completed to-day by Commissioner Brecht and briefs will be filed.
