PERRY COUNTY BOY RUNS AWAY Roy Alexander, in Letter, Says He Received Directions From God in a Dream

New Germantown, Pa., Dec. 20.—Running away from home because he claims to have asked God for directions what to do and He had given them to him in a dream, Roy Alexander, 12-year-old son of Mrs. John W. Frey, of New Germantown, has written home, asking that no search be made for him.

Relatives are paying no heed to his request and his stepfather has been in Cumberland county looking for the youth this week. The letter in which he asks that no one be sent for him was written at the Dry Run Hotel at Chambersburg, in which he says that he is going to Shippensburg to attend school and work. He says that a traveling salesman has become interested in him and paid his bills at a hotel.

Mr. Frey states that the youth ran away last May and was recovered at Newville with relatives. He left home at that time, it is said, because he had been punished for disobeying his mother.

The boy is described as being bright for his age, is wearing a cap and a sweater, knee trousers and a yellow shirt. He has brown hair and blue eyes.

No More Rheumatism Torturing Pains and Swollen Joints Vanish When Rheuma Is Used. At last a real remedy for rheumatism! And a good one it must be when Kennedy's Drug Store, and good druggists everywhere sell it on the no-cure no-pay basis. Rheumatism should halt the news with great rejoicing, for it is surely a remarkable remedy and has a record of almost unbelievable cures. Read what J. F. Oliver of Albany, Ga., says about it: "I had sciatic rheumatism for two years, and tried every medicine offered for rheumatism. Tried many doctors, was treated at one of the best Southern sanatoriums, and if I improved any I did not realize it. I am a conductor on the Central of Georgia railroad, and had secured a pass to Hot Springs, Ark., to take treatment. About that time I saw Rheuma advertised and concluded to try it. I abandoned my trip, took three bottles, and now feel as well as ever. I would not take a hundred thousand dollars for what Rheuma has done for me. If you have rheumatism in any form don't delay—try Rheuma today. A large bottle is not expensive, and your money back if it does not give you quick and joyful relief."
