DERRY ST. CHOIR TO SING CANTATA

Will Present "The Nativity" Sunday Evening, Directed by Howard E. Gensler

A rare opportunity for music-lovers is offered by the Derry Street United Brethren Church, Fifteenth and Derry streets, Sunday evening, December 22, when the chorus choir of the church will give a cantata, "The Nativity," by Deibel. Christmas music will be played for the first time upon a "Eunaphone," a musical instrument recently purchased by the Young Men's Bible class. A special attraction is the singing of tenor parts by G. J. Kuhlin. There will be no preaching but an entire musical program will be given. It has been the custom of members of this church in former years that about twenty-five carol singers go about on Christmas Eve singing Christmas carols, accompanied by a brass quartet. The singers will go about the same as usual this year, but they will not follow the old Moravian custom of having the brass quartet play from the tower of the church on Christmas morning, since many of the men who took part are now in the service. There will be Christmas music by children in the Sunday school at the regular time.

Colonial Club Announces Three Holiday Events

The entertainment committee of the Colonial Country Club announces three interesting holiday events, including the usual informal dance tomorrow evening, the annual Yuletide ball Thursday evening, December 26, and the New Year's Eve dance, Tuesday evening, December 31. The Udegrove orchestra will play at all the parties, and the Berryhill nurseries will furnish the Christmas decorations.

Miss Annett Steel, a former pupil of the Seiler school, has returned from the National Cathedral School in Washington, and will spend her Christmas vacation with her grandmother, Mrs. Robert H. Thomas, Merchantsburg.

HOSTESS HOUSE HOLIDAY PLANS

Use Week-End Festivities With Christmas Night Supper For Men in Service

Mrs. Edward F. Dunlap, chairman of the Hostess House Committee said this morning that a Christmas long to be remembered will be shared by the men in service from the Middle town and Marsh Run camps, local boys who are home and visitors in the city. The Civic Club will be open all Christmas Day, but no meals will be served until 1 o'clock supper. Then, the Canteen Committee will spread a feast of scalloped oysters, cold beef, hot rolls, home-made pies, all sort of Christmas cakes, coffee, fruit and nuts. All the delicious coffee for the hostess house meals is furnished through the generosity of Mrs. Robert Hunt Lyson, and made by the Canteen workers. This is a big item of the menu and is thoroughly appreciated by the men and the club alike. There will be a large Christmas tree glistening with bright, colored balls and the usual trimmings of toys and animals. The entertainment committee is arranging an informal program of music and fun which will be announced later.

For the Week-End
The usual Saturday night dance will be held this evening with the hostesses to be Mrs. William H. Hain, Mrs. Charles E. Snyder and Miss Lois K. Booker. Sunday evening, Mrs. Harvey E. Smith and Mrs. H. G. Cowling, wives of Marsh Run officers, will welcome the men. The Canteen committee will have Mrs. J. Kelly Jones, Mrs. John Graham, Mrs. George W. Bauder and Miss Udegrove serving both evenings.

Xmas Music Delights Seiler School Audience

A Christmas program of unusual interest, arranged by the faculty and students of the Seiler School, was given at 4:30 this afternoon at the school. Assisting the students were Miss Margaretta Kennedy, cellist; Miss Alda Kennedy and Miss Mary B. Robinson. The faculty play will be presented tomorrow morning at which time the kindergarten department will also give its Christmas music.

The following program was much enjoyed by the members of the school and their guests this afternoon:
Processional, "Adeste Fedeles, XVII Century"; "The Star Spangled Banner"; Irish Noel; "I Think I Hear the Steibells Ringing"; Old Carols, the First Noel, Lead-in; "The Shepherd's Song"; Tyrolese, 1810; Sing Noel, Beason, Con Melody; "Cantique de Noel"; Adam; Garotte; Popper, Miss Kennedy; "The Blessed Day," from "Chorale Enfantine"; "The Cradle Song of the Blessed Virgin"; Barnby-Gow, (words from an old Latin hymn); "Why Do Bells For Christmas Ring"; "Count; Stars All Bright Are Gleaming, Christmas Once Is Christmas Still"; Kinder; "Eyes So Bright," recitation; "A Child This Day Is Born," traditional.

The Hetrick-Ruthrauff Wedding in Waynesboro

The marriage of Miss Mabel Ruthrauff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ruthrauff, of Waynesboro, to Dr. David Joseph Hetrick, of this city, was a quiet event of yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, with the Rev. Dr. Wilford P. Shriner, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church officiating, with the ring ceremony. Only the immediate relatives were in attendance. The bride who was born and reared in Waynesboro, was educated in the public schools and was graduated from the Waynesboro High school in 1899 as valedictorian of her class. She took second honors in 1904 at the Shippensburg Normal school and has since been a teacher in the Clayton avenue school of Waynesboro.

Dr. Hetrick, a practicing physician of this city for nineteen years, is a graduate of Jefferson Medical College. He is prominent in church circles as an active member of the Reformed Salem Church.

Following a wedding journey to the East Dr. and Mrs. Hetrick will reside at 64 North Thirteenth street where they will be 'at home' after the New Year.
