ERZBERGER HITS BACK AT TRUCE
By Associated Press
Basel, Jan. 17.—Protests against the conditions imposed upon Germany by the Allies in extending the armistice have been made by Matthias Erzberger, one of the German armistice commissioners, to Marshal Foch, chief of the Allied plenipotentiaries at Tervuren, in a further suspension of hostilities.

During the course of their conference, Erzberger is reported to have asked Marshal Foch when the blockade of Germany would be lifted, when German prisoners would be released and when the preliminary treaty of peace would be signed.

Elsie Ferguson in "Heart of the Wild."
Thursday, Friday and Saturday — Griffith superlative, "The Great Train Robbery," a sensational comedy, "Whose Little Wife Are You?"

"Twin Beds," Salisbury Field and Margaret Mayo's sensational laughing success, which will be the feature of the Regent Orpheum Theater for two days and Saturday matinee, beginning to-night, full of light and witty dialog and there is not a suggestive line or situation in the entire play. It is a clean, snappy farce that refreshes and invigorates its auditors and sends them away happy and contented. The story tells of the trials and tribulations of three married couples who reside in the same metropolitan apartment house, who find the enforced neighborliness of these places not at all their own. The plot is a tangled web of efforts to escape it, involve themselves in innumerable complications. The capital characters are: Thomas in conjunction with Selwyn Company, have chosen for the interpretation of "Twin Beds," includes most of the original players: Lois Bolton, Roy MacNichol, R. M. D'Angelo, Virginia Fair, Kathlyn Mills, Thomas H. Manning, Lucille Beckett and others.

When the Army and Navy Players were about ready to start on their tour, they were informed that the With Col. Aioe's raise funds for the Compulsions. The returning fighters from overseas, they discovered the fact that all good shows should have a band. After looking for a time in vain for a band, they were about ready to give up the task when they met Colonel Aioe, commanding officer of the Twelfth U. S. Infantry, heard of their plight. "Use my band," he said, "and I'll be glad to see you." And that is how the famous Twelfth U. S. Infantry Band, under the leadership of Colonel Eldridge, came to be with the Players on their tour. The Army and Navy Players, who are touring the Twelfth U. S. Infantry Band, will be seen at the Orpheum next Wednesday, for one evening only.

An excellent comedy show opened at the Majestic yesterday. The headliner attraction is a musical comedy entitled "Blow Your Horn," presented by nine clever entertainers. There is a funny, clever and original story in constant laughter, singing and dancing that will please and amuse all ages. The girls elaborately costumed. A big laughing number on the bill is the appearance of the clever actor, Arnold and Allan, in a bright song and patter skit. They have a line of rapid-fire comedy that has a solid hit with yesterday's audiences. Eddie and Ramsden also furnish lots of fun with their little offering, which is a happy combination of singing, dancing and comedy. It doesn't take Art Smith long to win his audience when he steps upon the stage and offers them a line of funny material and comedy songs. Competing with the bill are Cornelia and Adele, young couple, presenting an artistic singing and dancing act.

To-day is the last opportunity to see your favorite star, Alice Joyce, in her latest success, "Everybody's Girl." The Colonial story is adapted from the fascinating O. Henry story, "Buckle Up." Row, Saturday only, Norma Talmadge will be seen in "Fifty-Fifty." Monday and Tuesday Earl Williams will be the star in "The Man Who Wouldn't Tell," the story of a secret service man spurned as a slacker by the girl he loves.

Enid Bennett, in her latest Paramount production, "Fuss and Feathers," is the attraction at the Regent Theater to-morrow. This dainty little screen favorite, always appearing in a delightful role, takes the part of "Susie Baldwin." Susie, the daughter of an old mining prospector, goes to the city for an education. Here she falls into the hands of a nice, clean, clean crook, and the way she outwits him—well, that remains to be seen. There is fun and a dash of romance in the newest of Miss Bennett's pictures, James Montgomery Flagg's latest comedy, "Tell It to the Marines," will be shown.

Wallace Field is appearing to-day in his newest photoplay, "The Man From Funerary Range." With it is shown the Flag comedy, "Tell It to the Marines."

How many women after marriage are brought to the unfortunate question whether it was worth while to marry. To how many men is brought the thought that happiness in married life is all a delusion, and the bonds of matrimony iron chains that shackle human life until it becomes unbearable.

In "The Strange Woman," booked for the Victoria Theater to-day and to-morrow, starring Gladys Brockwell, Manager James George has secured a gripping film. It answers the question, "Is marriage really worth while?" The stage version of this all-absorbing problem is a remarkable record. It has been performed in one year in the country's great metropolises, New York City, where it created a sensation.

In addition, rather on a par with this fascinating picture, Houdini will again be seen in the fourth exciting episode of the serial, "The Master Mystery."

By Associated Press

CLEVER DANCING FEATURE OF BILL
Majestic Audiences Enjoy Fine List of Vaudeville Offerings

Cornelia and Adele, the lively song and dance entertainers at the Majestic this evening, will have some very clever acrobatic dancing. Speed and accuracy are real necessities in the stunts that Cornelia and Adele do, for some lightning-quick steps are required in their dog and cat features with this act.

Art Smith, the nonsense artist, seemed to be the favorite of the evening. His songs and patter were enjoyed heartily and rounds of applause came from the audience. His singing of "He's Had No Lovin' Since the Last Time I Was in Jail" made a lot of it now, made a hit as also did "Rip Van Winkle Slept With the Devil."

The contortion twists of Eddie and Ramsden, who offer a new flirtation with your expectations, the piano walking ape-fashion, and getting your head and feet twisted in the air only a few of the exciting things that will make you a young lady, are only a few of the exciting things that will really cure the blues, and give you a new way of looking at "vice versa" present a clever skit showing how it would be if the girls would treat the fellows as they usually treat the girls. The amusement offered by this turning of the tables and adding a new twist to a new kind of human "Blow Your Horn," the short musical comedy in two scenes setting forth the Egyptian Romance of Ramesses II, furnished a strong ending to the bill.

SAYS COLD WEATHER BRINGS RETURN OF INFLUENZA
Public Must Be Careful To Avoid A Second Epidemic. Easier To Prevent Than Cure. What To Do.

"Encouraging reports of the fewer cases of influenza as the winter progresses should not allow us to relax our vigilance or to become careless in the matter of cold weather. It is easier to prevent than to cure. It is a well known authority. With the coming of cold weather there is apt to be a return of this influenza epidemic and its seriousness will depend on the extent of the precautions taken by the public to prevent infection.

When the air is full of influenza germs you may be constantly breathing them into your nose and throat. But their danger may be avoided and you may make yourself practically immune to infection if you destroy the germ before it actually begins work in your blood.

During the recent serious epidemic which hit Harrisburg so hard, most successful results were obtained by many through the simple breathing into the nose, throat and lungs of the medicinal and germicidal oil of Hyomeo. Probably no better, safer or more sensible precaution against influenza germs, coughs, colds, bronchitis or catarrh of the nose and throat could be employed than to go now to the nearest drug store and get a complete Hyomeo outfit consisting of a bottle of the pure Oil of Hyomeo and a Hyomeo Inhaler. The rubber inhaling device into which a few drops of the oil are poured.

Carry this inhaler with you during the day and each half hour or so pull it out and draw deep breaths of its pure healing germicidal air into the passages of your nose, throat and lungs. You will surely get the relief you need and the loss of several weeks' work. It is pleasant to use and not at all expensive as the inhaler is just a lifetime and further supplies of the Oil of Hyomeo can be had at any drug store.

Hundreds of people in this vicinity used Hyomeo in this way during the recent cold and influenza epidemic. They should not neglect it now for the danger is by no means over."

AVIATORS EXPECT TO RETURN TO CAPITAL TODAY
Two Army Men Make Successful Flight Across the State

By Associated Press
Williamsport, Jan. 17.—Lieutenant Alva W. Snyder, of the United States Army, with Captain Hogan as observer, plan to return to Washington to-day, following practically the same course they took with their Curtiss army airplane yesterday. Unless rain and wind interfere with their program they will get off before noon.

After bucking cross winds which compelled them to steer their machine at an angle of about forty-five degrees for a considerable part of the distance, the aviators arrived here yesterday afternoon, at 4.15 o'clock from Washington, which city they left at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. They made a forced landing at Steelton, having exhausted their supply of gasoline, and resumed their flight after cleaning their engine. They circled over Williamsport and turned eastward intending to land at the Country Club, but their engine stopping, they were compelled to land in a field on the opposite side of the river.

Like Being Hit By Rattle Snake
Says that every time you cut or pick at a corn you invite lockjaw

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freeze-one, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn and all, lifts right out with the fingers without one particle of pain. This freeze-one is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and just loosens the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. He says a quarter of an ounce will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but this is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callous.

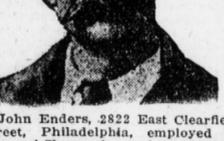

You are positively warned that cutting or picking at a corn is a suicidal habit.

Shipyard Worker Nearly Smothered

John Enders, 2822 East Clearfield Street, Philadelphia, employed at Cramps' Shipyard, says he had to get up and walk the floor rather than take a chance of lying in bed and smothering. "I suffered from stomach trouble, gastritis and indigestion," he says. "Almost everything I ate caused me pain. Gas formed and there were belching, water brash, distress and heartburn. The gas around my heart would force me to get out of bed to stop being smothered. Mr. Horber at Cramps' told me about Tanlac and Tanlac has put me into great shape."

The genuine Tanlac, which bears the name J. I. Gore Co. on outside carton, is now sold here by George A. Gorgan, George's Drug Store, C. F. Kramer, W. F. Stevens, and other leading druggists. Tanlac, the celebrated vegetable tonic, stomachic and health builder, is also sold in neighboring cities and towns. Ask for it.

Railroad Plans With Banks For Cashing of Checks Paid Employees

Through the arrangement of the Pennsylvania railroad with local banks to cash the checks paid the employees when the new system of payment goes into effect, there will be no groans or confusion when the railroaders cash their checks. The banks have reached an agreement with the railroad company, so that the employees will be told where they can find ready acceptances of the checks when they are paid off.

In a number of cities the bankers, through their clearing house associations, have informed the railroad company that they would not take up the added burden of cashing and handling the checks. The local clearing house association, feeling

Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises
TELLS SAFE AND SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Farnim (Double Strength). Take this amount daily in 4 or 5 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing gradually becomes easier, while the distressing head noises, headaches, dizziness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and coughing dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment.

"Since taking Tonal I can eat like a wood chopper," says John Rudy, 341 North Ninth street, Lebanon, Pa., and employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company.

This testimonial was given Oct. 16, 1918.
