

CARNEGIE GIVES MEDALS FOR 31 ACTS OF HEROISM

Two Awards of Bronze Fall to Fathers of Pennsylvanians

Pittsburgh, Jan. 23.—Thirty-one acts of heroism were recognized by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission at its fifteenth annual meeting held here yesterday.

In seven cases silver medals were awarded; in twenty-four cases bronze medals. Fifteen of the heroes lost their lives, and to the dependents of ten of these, pensions, aggregating $7,320 a year were granted; to the dependents of four of the others who lost their lives, the sum of $1,250 was granted to be applied to the commission may sanction. In addition to these money grants, in our cases, $5,200 was appropriated for educational purposes, payments to be made as needed and approved; and in twelve cases awards aggregating $10,000 were made for other worthy purposes. Payments in the former cases will not be made until the beneficiaries' plans to receive the awards have been approved by the commission.

Bronze medals were awarded to Pennsylvanians as follows: John C. Wright, Jr., deceased, Lansdowne, died attempting to save Frederick Maher from a motor truck at Lansdowne, Oct. 13, 1918. Medal to father.

Margaret Kiser, deceased, Williamsport, died saving Louella Youngman, from drowning at Jersey Shore, August 5, 1917. Medal and money grant to father.

SPECIALISTS TO DECIDE QUESTIONS FOR DELEGATES

Will Prepare American View on Big Problems Before Conference

Paris, Jan. 23.—The American peace commission is depending upon its specialists in international law for the preparation of the American view of important questions raised in the agenda adopted by the peace conference Saturday. These are, first, responsibility for the war, and second, the framing of a policy of international co-operation in legislation directed towards the interests of labor.

Wide differences exist at present regarding the first question, particularly as to the responsibility of individuals, rather than of governments, for the war, and likewise isolation of the rules of war by the central powers.

It is believed to be by no means certain that the American delegates are willing to accept the views of the French legal authorities quoted by Premier Clemenceau respecting the personal responsibility of the former German Emperor and his generals in the absence of precedents and until there is a clearer understanding of the limitations within which such a doctrine can be exercised.

There is a possibility that recommendations upon labor will be withheld until opportunity is afforded to study the developments of the German labor congress.

HALE MAY LOSE SALARY

Washington, Jan. 23.—United States Minister to Costa Rica Edward Hale may lose his $10,000 salary. Representative Roberts, of Massachusetts, charged in the House yesterday that Major Hale has not been at his post in two years, and that he is still drawing his salary. The diplomatic and consular bill, now before the House, provides for $10,000 for the Minister to Costa Rica.

No "Coffee Reaction" When You Drink POSTUM. A hot drink that braces one on a winter day with out artificial stimulation and the subsequent let-down sometimes felt by coffee drinkers. No "caffeine" in POSTUM. "There's a Reason"

MANY CHANGES ON CUMBERLAND VALLEY LIKELY

Absorption by Pennsy May Mean Shakeup Among Officials

By Associated Press. Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 23.—Announcement last night that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company had absorbed the Cumberland Valley railroad came as no surprise to officials here who were acquainted with the development toward the merger in the past several years. Just what changes among officials and how the road will be operated was the principal point of discussion among railroad men here to-day.

M. C. Kennedy, the president of the Cumberland Valley, and who has just returned from Europe, will become an officer of the Pennsylvania railroad under the new change. The line will probably be operated as a division. He would then become a superintendent or a general superintendent, it is believed. But just what other changes will be made was not known here to-day.

Some of the railroad men expressed the opinion that many of the offices will be transferred to Philadelphia, and only those necessary to operate the line as a division, will be maintained here.

The absorption of the line will be accomplished by transferring to the Pennsylvania the property and franchises of the last named company.

The main line of the Cumberland Valley extends from Harrisburg, Pa., to Winchester, Va., a distance of 115 miles. Including branches the company operates 164 miles of line.

JERSEY ENGINEER KILLED

New York, Jan. 23.—George Dunkel, aged 54, chief engineer of the American Sugar Refining Company, was killed yesterday in an automobile accident near Havana.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. SARAH JANE MCKILLIPS. Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Jane McKillips, aged 85 years, who died at her home in Lucknow on Tuesday will be held to-night at 7 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Davis, pastor of the Coxestown Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be made in the Liverpool Cemetery. Mrs. McKillips is survived by two sons, John and Andrew McKillips, and a daughter, Mrs. Frank Koch, of Liverpool; eleven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She was very widely known and had a host of friends. Mrs. McKillips was active in church and religious activities for many years.

MRS. WILLIAM HIMES. Mrs. William Himes, of West Fairview, died on Tuesday after a long illness. Her husband died eight years ago. She is survived by six children: Mrs. John Spong, of Harrisburg; Charles Himes, of New York City; Harry Himes, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Georg Hoover, George Himes and Edward Himes, all of West Fairview. Funeral services will be held to-morrow from her late home in Main street, West Fairview.

MRS. ALICE MURPHY BRESLEN. Mrs. Alice Murphy Breslen, wife of Frank Breslen, died yesterday morning at her home, 544 South Sixteenth street, following a one week's illness of influenza. She was 30 years old and is survived by her husband, three small children, her mother, Mrs. Barbara Murphy, of Harrisburg, and four brothers, all of Harrisburg. Funeral services will be held on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Francis' Catholic Church. Burial will be in Mount Calvary Cemetery.

MRS. SARA E. WITMEYER. Mrs. Sara E. Witmeyer, aged 37 years, wife of Harvey K. Witmeyer, died yesterday at her home, 910 Penn street. She is survived by her husband, a brother and four sisters. Mrs. Witmeyer was a member of the Daughters of Liberty, the Ladies of the Golden Eagle and the P. O. of A. She was widely known and had many friends here. The body may be viewed to-morrow morning from 9 o'clock to 12 o'clock at the Hawkins Estate funeral parlors, 1207 North Third street. The body will be taken to Marietta Friday for services and burial.

WILLIS NEXT WEEK. Ex-Governor Frank B. Willis speaks in Chestnut Street Auditorium next week, Tuesday night, January 28.—Adv.

W. M. Hargest Reappointed Deputy Attorney General

William M. Hargest, of Harrisburg, has been retained by Governor Sprou as deputy attorney general. Emerson Collins, of Williamsport, who served with Mr. Hargest through the Brumbaugh administration, has also been retained.

WILLIAM M. HARGEST

Regular Fellow With City Ways Turns Out to Be Daring Girl

Chicago, Ill.—Residents of Dixon, Ill., will be surprised to know that that handsome young fellow who was quite the rage there a while back, who danced so nicely with the girls and was the pet of mothers, is a girl.

Down in Ottawa it was much the same. Miss Anna Bahl's career as a boy started about two years ago when, at seventeen she chopped off her long hair and put on boy's clothes.

Her first job was with the Western Union in Chicago, where she ran messages. She took the name of Jack Kreigler and learned to shoot craps, play billiards, ball, dance with the girls and other wise quality as a "regular guy." She got along fine.

Finally, seeking new fields, she drifted to Ottawa, Ill. She worked on a farm for three weeks. From there she went to Seneca, where, she admits, she knocked the serenity out of things. Some of the boys objected to the popularity of the "new fellow with city ways."

Though she weighs only 117 pounds, and is but five feet tall, she knocked their objections into a cocked hat. She had learned to serap as an A. D. T. messenger in Chicago. Next she showed up still as a boy—at the Darlington Hotel.

Here Jack got a job as bellhop and watcher of the telephone switchboard. Everybody liked "Jack," he was so quick and kind. "He" was still a "regular fellow."

"His" technique with a cigarette was convincing. "He" could, if occasion arose, turn a neat little swear word.

Up around Wilson avenue "he" shot a wicked little cue ball or raked in the pot with the best when "he" made a pass. Well, these are technical times. Possibly it was the draft. Up at the Darlington, which was "his" Waterloo, they absolutely won't talk, they say.

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

Jack Kreigler and learned to shoot craps, play billiards, ball, dance with the girls and other wise quality as a "regular guy."

Finally, seeking new fields, she drifted to Ottawa, Ill. She worked on a farm for three weeks. From there she went to Seneca, where, she admits, she knocked the serenity out of things. Some of the boys objected to the popularity of the "new fellow with city ways."

Though she weighs only 117 pounds, and is but five feet tall, she knocked their objections into a cocked hat. She had learned to serap as an A. D. T. messenger in Chicago. Next she showed up still as a boy—at the Darlington Hotel.

Here Jack got a job as bellhop and watcher of the telephone switchboard. Everybody liked "Jack," he was so quick and kind. "He" was still a "regular fellow."

"His" technique with a cigarette was convincing. "He" could, if occasion arose, turn a neat little swear word.

Up around Wilson avenue "he" shot a wicked little cue ball or raked in the pot with the best when "he" made a pass. Well, these are technical times. Possibly it was the draft. Up at the Darlington, which was "his" Waterloo, they absolutely won't talk, they say.

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

Up around Wilson avenue "he" shot a wicked little cue ball or raked in the pot with the best when "he" made a pass.

Well, these are technical times. Possibly it was the draft. Up at the Darlington, which was "his" Waterloo, they absolutely won't talk, they say.

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

Up around Wilson avenue "he" shot a wicked little cue ball or raked in the pot with the best when "he" made a pass.

Well, these are technical times. Possibly it was the draft. Up at the Darlington, which was "his" Waterloo, they absolutely won't talk, they say.

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

"But you must go out of here dressed as a girl," she was told. This she replied: "Honest, now. I just can't wear 'em."

"Have a heart," said the manager. Anyway, very secretly her case passed through the hands of Judge Mary Partelme, and the young lady "Jack" went out to Elgin voluntarily. She was placed under observation. She rather hated when they insisted on having her trousers and her cigarettes.

"Perfectly sane," was the verdict the observation ended.

Tomorrow and Saturday—Last Two Days—The Final Wind-up Of The Greatest Clean Sweep Sale in Our Store's History. Details of the Sale of Sides & Sides Stock In Our Advertisement On Opposite Page. KAUFMANS MARKET SQUARE UNDERSELLING STORE. Store Opens at 8.30 A. M. Daily and Closes at 5.00 P. M.; Saturday Closes at 9.00 P. M.

587 Coats for Women and Misses. Wind Up the Last Two Days of Our Greatest Clean Sweep Sale. Reduction Bring Them to You at the Very Lowest Prices of the Season. Women's and Misses' COATS $7.50. Women's and Misses' COATS $10. Women's and Misses' COATS $12. Extra Special Women's Pajamas $1.50. Extra Special Muslin Gowns $1.00. Extra Special Girls' Bath Robes $1.25. Extra Special Women's Waists $1.95.

Final Wind-up of Serge Dresses $2.95. Final Wind-Up Women's and Misses' Serge and Satin Dresses $9.95. Final Wind-Up Women's and Misses' Serge and Satin Dresses $12.95. Final Wind-up Silk Poplin Dresses $4.95.

Extra Special House Dresses $1.00. Extra Special Women's Bath Robes $1.95. Extra Special 189 Pairs of Women's Fibre Silk Hosiery 55c. Extra Special 115 Pairs of Women's Gloves 49c. Sale of Men's Suits and Overcoats. 117 Suits and 87 Overcoats at $12.50.

The Last Two Days of the Clean Sweep Sale Brings Another Immense Blanket Sale. 575 Pairs of the Best Blankets in Cotton, Woolnap and Wool, Will Be Offered Tomorrow, Friday, at Tremendous Reductions. Buy now for next year—for we look for prices to be higher during reconstruction period. 126 Pairs of Cotton Fleece Blankets $2.95. 42 Pairs of Cotton Fleece Blankets $3.48. 87 Pairs Gray Wool Finish Blankets $3.95. 33 Pairs Woolnap Plaid Blankets $4.95. 40 Pairs White Wool Finish Blankets $3.95. 32 Fancy Plaid Wool Finish Blankets $4.95. 17 Pairs Gray Wool Blankets $5.95. 12 Pairs White Wool Blankets $4.45, $4.95 and $5.95. 38 Pair Plaid Woolen Blankets $5.48. 41 Pair Wool Plaid Blankets $5.95. 21 Pair Gray Woolen Blankets $4.95. Extra Special Flannelette Petticoats 49c. 750 Pairs Men's Pants $1.95, $2.95, $3.95. Boys' Corduroy Pants, Pair 99c. BOYS' NORFOLK SUITS AND POLO OVERCOATS $5.95.

