

MT. UNION BANK SWEEP BY FIRE; LOSS IS HEAVY

The Occupants Flee in Night- clothes as Flames Leap Into Bedrooms

Mt. Union, Jan. 27.—Nearly eight thousand dollars damage was caused to the new First National Bank building here, which was damaged by flames early last night.

Several thousand dollars damage resulted to the furnishing and apartments on the second and third floors. On the third floor, the flames were not discovered until they leaped into the bedroom where an occupant was asleep. The occupants of the two floors fled to safety in their night clothes.

The fire started from an unknown cause in the Beers-McGee livery stable about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The stable was soon destroyed, but the horses were rescued.

Most of the damage was done to the bank building. On the first floor the damage was caused by water, and nothing of value was burned.

The third floor apartment was occupied by William Hollenbaugh and family, and with them roomed Professors Slothower and Gilbert, high school teachers, who did not wake until the flames were feeling upon their bed. J. D. Appleby, cashier of the bank, and family, occupied the second floor apartment, and escaped to safety.

The loss to the bank is partly covered by insurance. The barn was totally destroyed.

PURSE IS STOLEN; OFFICER HALTS

Makes No Move to Catch Thief but Admonishes Vic- tim Instead

Mrs. Edward Thompson, of 45 South Third street, with her mother, Mrs. Snyder, on Saturday evening was on her way to the Store Company, when in front of the store department a store, a negro passing by stopped and snatched from her hand her purse containing about eight dollars. The negro immediately ran away as a crowd collected at Mrs. Thompson's cry or help. Officer Harrod of the Store Company, who shortly came to the scene was quoted as saying, according to Mrs. Thompson:

"Do you think I am going to risk my life trying to catch a fellow who stole a pocketbook?"

When chided by those who stood by for not making an attempt to catch the thief, Mrs. Thompson said he began a tirade of abusive and offensive language, cursing her roundly for being "fool enough to carry a pocketbook instead of putting it in her pocket."

The theft was witnessed by a large crowd, all of whom are said to have heard the officer's abusive language.

GIRL IDENTIFIES DANIEL JOHNSON

Negro Arrested Saturday in Murder Case Confronted by Young Girl

Saturday noon a colored girl living in Harrisburg street gave an accurate description of a man, whom she said she saw in company with two other men, leave the store of S. Wolf Lacob, Friday evening. Shortly before Lacob was found murdered. The description given by the girl fits well a man by the name of Dan Johnson, who was arrested shortly after the murder. Johnson denied having been in the store before the murder, but claims he went there later to collect some money he claims was due him from Lacob. Johnson was taken to the local police station and was later identified by the girl as having been one of the three men she saw leave the store in a cab, Friday evening, a short time before the murder was discovered. Johnson denies this most strenuously.

Johnson was made to have Johnson disclose the names of the two men the girl says were with him, but denies all knowledge of the affair. Johnson is a negro but his skin is light colored and he usually passes as a Portuguese. He had been employed at the local steel plant for some time.

The sons of the murdered man arrived in Steelton from Fayetteville, North Carolina, Saturday evening, and immediately offered a reward of $250 for the arrest of the murderer. Difficulty was at first experienced by the police in finding anyone who had heard the shot fired, but Lacob, since, however, the police have located several parties who not only heard the report of a pistol about that time, but also saw three men leave the store, possibly the same three testified to by the girl who identified Johnson as one of them.

Officer Wynn Is Given Chase Through West Side

Officer Wynn was yesterday given a merry chase by a foreigner known as Metol. Metol was wanted for attacking Miss Peref last Friday night in a poolroom at Myers and Francis street, an affair in which several came out with badly cut faces and broken arms. Wynn happened to come upon Metol yesterday afternoon in Myers street and immediately gave chase. Metol led the chase through the west end, through the railroad yards, and finally on a moving freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad. Wynn gave good chase but was unable to catch him.

Stone Thrown From Quarry Kills Man 400 Feet Away

Manuel Pinhon, 846 South Second street, a Spaniard, employed at the stone quarries of the local steel plant, died in the Harrisburg Hospital yesterday morning shortly after 7 o'clock as a result of a fractured skull. Pinhon was about four hundred feet away from a heavy blast in the quarries, Saturday evening, when a large stone was sent whirling through the air, landing directly on his head and fracturing his skull.

U. S. to Spend $12,632,849 For Roads in Pennsylvania

Under the provisions of an amendment to the federal roads act submitted to Congress by the Department of Agriculture during 1918, 1920 and 1921, the government will spend $12,632,849 for the construction of good roads in Pennsylvania, providing the state spends the same amount.

At present there is a fund of $75,000,000 to be expended and it is still available as road construction work was stopped during the war. The proposed amendment provides an additional appropriation of $200,000,000 among the states.

Dr. Harry D. Rhein will open his office, 1311 Market street, January 29.

CABINET RESIGNS IN PORTUGAL; WILL AWAIT SUCCESSORS

Monarchist Movement in Braganza, Lisbon and Other Places Overthrown, Says Official Gov- ernment Statement

By Associated Press
Lisbon, Jan. 27.—The Portuguese cabinet is to-day continuing its work as heretofore, but only until a new government is formed. The resignation of the body was announced last night. Later it became known that the ministers will remain in office until their successors are named so as to not weaken the republican forces.

In an official note the government explains that although the monarchist movement in Braganza, Lisbon and other places has been overthrown, in still other districts the military and civil elements are seeking to revive quarrels among the republicans.

The Royalists Defeated
The royalist movement in the north, which was restricted to Oporto and Braga, is now being put down by the concentration of Republican troops. The movement has been completely stamped out in Lisbon, where some infantry, cavalry and artillery occupied the two forts of Monsanto hill and Duque and hoisted the Royalist flag Wednesday. These forces surrounded Friday night after a prolonged bombardment by government troops, aided by marines and battalions of civilian volunteers who enthusiastically offered their services for the defense of the republic.

This movement has had an excellent effect in uniting all Republicans to the cause of putting aside divergencies. The political prisoners taken in the recent Santarem rising unconditionally offered their services to the government against the Royalists. These men included Major Castro, who had come from prison, but who presented himself to the government and offered his aid.

The casualties resulting from the fighting in Lisbon aggregated twelve dead and fifty-one persons wounded. Troops from Lisbon are now proceeding to the north.

America—Speak English!

LET every citizen—native and foreign-born—master the English language. It will fortify national unity, promote commercial prosperity, strengthen individual loyalty. On Jan. 3, 1919

President Wilson is winning diplomatic and personal triumphs by his compelling command of the English language. You can broaden your opportunities, add charm to your conversation, and force to your writing by owning and consulting

The whole structure of good citizenship rests upon a knowledge of the English language. How can one who can not read or speak our language be expected to understand our government? The laws of America are written in English, our Courts interpret the laws through the medium of the English language, while ninety-two per cent of our publications are printed in English.

Back to The Original Bricker's O. K. Bread

That's good news—
Back to the ORIGINAL BRICKER'S O. K. BREAD that built our big business before the war.
Certainly, when the war
came on, we followed the government's restrictions on the use of wheat flour.
Naturally, the bread during the war didn't taste the same as all-wheat bread, but BRICKER'S
O. K. BREAD made under war regulations was the best bread, notwithstanding.
And now—government restrictions removed—the ORIGINAL BRICKER'S O. K. BREAD comes into its own again.
We don't blame the people
for wanting the ORIGINAL

Bricker's O. K. Bread

It is the bread that is made of all-wheat flour, and it is made with that superb quality that once taken into the family is hard to part with.
And we are just as glad to
