

GERMAN TROOPS FORCE SOVIETS ACROSS WINDAU

Inflict Heavy Losses on Bolsheviks as Reds March on Libau

By Associated Press
Berlin, Jan. 28.—Bolshevik forces marching on Libau, on the Baltic coast of Courland, have been halted by German volunteer forces, which, though greatly outnumbered, forced the Soviet army back across the Windau river by a bold counteroffensive, according to a special dispatch to the Zeitung Am Mittag. It is said the Bolsheviks suffered heavy losses. In their terrorization of Estonia, the Bolsheviks are reported to have killed 600 people in Dorpat and Wendenburg. The German commissioner in Lithuania, who arrived here today, states the Kovno is not occupied by the Bolsheviks, who are still twenty-five miles east of that city. The line is being defended by German volunteers and the Bolsheviks are said to be awaiting instructions from Moscow before resuming their advance. It is said the capture of Kovno would open the road to the German frontier.

How to Be Rid of Dangerous Dandruff

If you have dandruff you must get rid of it quick—its positively dangerous and will surely ruin your hair if you don't. Dandruff heads mean faded, brittle, scraggly hair that finally dies and falls out—new hair will not grow—then you are hairless and nothing can help you. The only sure way to abolish dandruff for good is to destroy the germ that causes it. To do this quickly, surely and safely, and at little expense, there is nothing so effective as Parisian sage, which you can get from Kennedy's Drug Store and good druggists everywhere. It is guaranteed to banish dandruff, stop itching scalp and falling hair, and promote a new growth, on the cost, small as it is, will be refunded. Parisian sage is a scientific preparation that supplies all hair needs—an antiseptic liquid neither sticky or greasy, easy to apply, and delicately perfumed. If you want beautiful soft, thick, lustrous hair, and lots of it by all means use Parisian sage. It finally dies—begin tonight—a little attention now insures abundant hair for years to come.—Adv.

France's Sons Win Undying Glory

No other nation has spilled its blood more freely than democracy might live than has France. Her sons have sacrificed more of blood and of treasure than those of any other nation. The world owes France a debt of gratitude not only for this, but for a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal disorders which, it is said, has saved thousands of lives the world over. The ingredients are imported and placed on sale in America under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy by Geo. H. Mayr, for years a leading Chicago chemist. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. George A. Gorgas, H. C. Kennedy, Clark's Drug Stores.

WEST FAIRVIEW HEROES PRAISED BY COMMANDERS

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carrol Receive High Tributes in Honor of Dead Sons

High testimonials in honor of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Carrol, of West Fairview, who were killed in France, are contained in letters from their commanding officers, in which they inform Mr. and Mrs. Carrol of the final resting places of their sons. Owen H. Carrol and C. H. Carrol are the names of the youths who died overseas. Both were cited as good soldiers and brave members of their companies, and the following high tributes to their bravery have been received by the parents: From Lieut. J. O. Pelter, Company H, 28th Division: "We are in receipt of your letter of October 7, 1918, in regard to the death of your son, Charles E. Carrol. He was killed in the battle of Sissons, when the Americans began the attack which led to the final defeat of Germany. He was always a good soldier, true to the American ideals. He was brave and always anxious to do the right thing. He has always had a good reputation, and was liked by all the men of Company H. I knew your son, because I came overseas with him. He was a very good soldier and you may well be proud of all that he has done, who has survived the battles, grieve for the loss of the man who fell, and you must be consoled by the fact that your son has gone to his Heavenly Father, and that he died in the fight for Freedom and Justice. The number of his grave is known by the Grave Registration Service. C. H. Carrol had formerly belonged to Company D, of the old Eighth Regiment, of National Guards and at the end of his term he enlisted in the regular army in Company C, 13th Infantry. He received a medal as a sharpshooter, and was honorably discharged at the border of Mexico. He enlisted again April 19, 1917, as recruiting officer. He went to Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, and in October, 1917, he went with Company H, 28th Infantry to France, and lost his life in action, July 28, 1918. A letter from Captain Michael Harte, Company E, Second Corps Artillery Park, France: "Your letter of September 28th, just received today, and I will answer immediately, although I had written you before concerning the death of your son. He was instantly killed, and his personal effects have already been sent to the office where he was buried in an American cemetery, No. 108 and his body lies in grave No. 147. This grave is in a field six miles north of Toul, and is kept by a large American Red Cross Hospital. A wreath given by the comrades of his company was placed on his grave, all the company send their deepest sympathy to the mother of our brave comrade." A letter from Corporal Chester S. Gildea, of the same company: "Just a few lines of consolation from the boys of Battery E, of which your son Owen M. Carrol was a member. With all our hearts we wish to sympathize with you, for the loved one you have lost, and wish to inform you how glad we were to have had such a willing, cheerful and obedient soldier associated with us. He was every ready to do a service for anybody he could and considered the long sleepless hours, and hard work that he had to do in the fight for Democracy. You can well be proud of his death, because he was killed while doing his duty. He sleeps in the heart of grateful France, not far from the graves of other heroes such as Major Lufberry and Lt. Blair Thaw. May his body rest in peace and his soul rest with his Lord, in the Great Beyond. Mrs. Carrol is still your son and our esteemed comrade and friend, therefore this day we honor and salute you as the mother of our brave hero and friend." The parents have decided to leave the bodies of their sons resting in France where they gave their lives for freedom.

Y. M. C. A. TO OPEN CAMPAIGN FOR A BIG MEMBERSHIP

Teams to Canvass the City in Interest of Local Institution

Men of Harrisburg are seeking opportunity to become bigger, better, more efficient. The Central Y. M. C. A. is organized for this object. Get into line! Join the "Y" and its gymnasium classes, its Bible study groups and social work activities. Get into line!

C. W. Burnett, chairman of the membership committee and Robert B. Reeves, general secretary will be in charge of the campaign for members of the Central Y. M. C. A. to be opened here next Monday evening. The drive will be formally launched with a dinner to be held in the assembly room of the Central Y. M. C. A. at 6 o'clock, when the ten team captains and the team workers will be present. It is estimated at least 100 workers will be in line. The present membership of the Central Y. M. C. A. is 129. On February 1 approximately 600 members will expire. This will give an approximate total of 700 members. It is the aim of the campaign to raise the membership from the 700 to at least 900 members. Members of the teams will meet in the "Y" building at Second and Locust streets every night for supper and reports will be given on the progress. The campaign will close next Friday night with a huge home talent show, which it is promised will be the biggest social event in the history of the local association. The teams for the ten teams were announced last night. They are: C. W. Burnett, Al. K. Thomas, A. Ramsey S. Black, Lewis A. Irwin, J. H. Messersmith, J. E. O'Neill, E. P. Davenport, R. H. Thompson, Frank G. Roth and Charles E. Beck.

Fire Destroys Textile Mill at Riverpoint, R. I.; Loss Put at $1,000,000

Providence, R. I., Jan. 28.—The Royal mill at Riverpoint, one of the largest of the B. and R. Knight plants, was practically destroyed by fire last night. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000. The blaze started in the mill tower early in the evening and the local department had apparently extinguished it, but the flames broke out anew shortly after 9 o'clock. Poor water pressure hampered the firemen's efforts and two hours later the blazing tower fell on the east wing of the mill and in a short time the whole structure was in flames. The mill was filled with textile machinery of the most modern and costly type and much of the loss will be to equipment.

American Flag on Dinara, Hauled Down by Italians, Restored

Washington, Jan. 28.—Rear Admiral Niblack, commanding American naval forces in the Adriatic, informed the Navy Department late yesterday that the action of the Italian authorities in hauling down the American flag on the steamer Dinara was due to a misunderstanding and that the Italian commander had apologized and ordered the flag restored. The incident occurred at the port of Jelsa, on January 16, and the information regarding it to reach Washington came in a dispatch to the official press bureau of the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes. Admiral Niblack said the steamer was not seized by the Italians, as first reported, but his message revealed that the "inter-Allied," as well as the American flag, had been lowered. "The Italian government," said Admiral Niblack's dispatch, "has been authorized by the Adriatic naval committee to requisition all Austrian and Hungarian merchant vessels, to be controlled by the Allied Maritime Council. The refusal of some of the crew on particular ships to go to sea under the Italian flag is attributed to ill feeling towards the Italian people."

Corp. W. C. Buch Home After Active Service

Corporal Wistar C. Buch, son of A. C. Buch, 1410 North Sixth street, a member of the 47th Aero Construction Battalion, landed with his unit at Newport News, Va., on January 16. This battalion saw much active service in France during the war and at one time was under shell-fire for twelve straight days. It participated in the fighting in the Argonne Forest region, at St. Mihiel and at the Meuse. Corporal Buch expects to be mustered out soon. We are members of Harrisburg Real Estate Board, Backenstoss Bros., Real Estate, Russ Bldg.

ARMOUR PLANS LEGISLATION TO GOVERN PACKERS

Will Submit Substitute For Bills Already in Congress

Washington, Jan. 28.—J. Ogden Armour, president of Armour and Company, is drafting legislation, with the aid of his counsel, for the regulation of the meat packing industry. He expects to submit his legislation as a substitute for similar bills now before Congress. This he told the Senate Agriculture Committee last night at the conclusion of his testimony into the meat packing industry. Before being presented, the legislation will be submitted to the other big packing firms and the independent packers for their approval. Mr. Armour said. He declared that he believed the plan which he had in mind would satisfy both the producer and the consumer, and remove "antagonism to the packers" which he admitted existed. Mr. Armour reiterated that his opposition to control by the Government or the railroads of refrigerator and stock cars and stockyards was predicated solely on his fear that they could not be operated as efficiently as they now are. He said he believed private ownership of the stock cars and stockyards was predicated on the Government-operated branch houses for the small packers would not be opposed by the large packers. Mr. Armour was finishing his testimony before the Senate committee, Edward S. Morris, of Chicago, president of Morris and Company, appeared before the House Interstate Commerce Committee in opposition to the pending legislation, which he declared would imperil the industry and prove costly to the consumer.

Col. Thompson Placed in Charge of Athletics of Entire U. S. Second Army

Lieutenant Joseph H. Thompson, of the 101st Infantry, 28th Division, has been placed in charge of all athletic activities of the Second Army in the United States. His headquarters will be Toul, Lieutenant General Robert L. Bullard, in a recent communication to the command of the Second Army, expressed satisfaction with the work of the special school, which he had seen. "This school is not only efficiently training the men in the use of modern weapons but is also giving excellent instruction in the combined use of the several weapons, which is so important. The interest and enthusiasm displayed by the men in the school, I desire to compliment the officer in charge of the school, Lieutenant Joseph H. Thompson, for the good work that he has been doing and to congratulate the division and its commander upon the very satisfactory progress of the instruction."

City and County Officials Confer on Plans For New Contagion Hospital

City and county commissioners, members of the health board, representatives of the Dauphin County Medical Society held a conference yesterday afternoon with Dr. J. L. Sturges, after he had addressed the noon luncheon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. The probable cost, size and location of a contagious disease hospital or a general hospital were among the questions which were discussed. Members of the Chamber of Commerce were present also and it was finally decided to have George S. Keim, chief act as chairman and Warren R. Jackson, as secretary, of a committee to handle the hospital campaign. City and county officials now are discussing the advisability of first having legislation passed which would permit the erection of a structure with the cost equally divided. It may be planned to construct small units at a time to handle contagious disease they said, until sufficient room has been provided for any emergency. At present the city or the county has the authority to erect a hospital for such purposes, but the two cannot act together. The plan to have a general hospital was fully explained by Dr. Stokes but the city and county officials have not decided yet upon what action they will take. Arthur H. Bacon acted as chairman of the meeting yesterday at which a number of officials, physicians and members of various organizations were present to discuss the local situation.

Railroad Clerks Install New Officers

To Probe Alleged Wave Crime by the Yanks in Paris

Washington, Jan. 28.—Official information will be sought by the War Department concerning reports in Paris newspapers that American soldiers have been involved in a crime wave. Secretary Baker said today that the situation pictured in the papers "seemed incredible," and that official reports from France made no mention of the matter. The American Expeditionary Force has maintained in Paris since American troops began to appear in that city on leave or otherwise a provost guard of military police to aid the French police in handling incidents in which American troops were involved. The same practice is followed wherever there are many soldiers in any community in the United States or elsewhere. Do you want to sell that home? With us! Backenstoss Bros., Real Estate, Russ Bldg.
