BROTHERS MEET IN WAR SERVICE

Sons of Mrs. Belle West, Separated Seven Years, Meet Through Mother's Letters

Chambersburg, Pa., March 6.—After having been separated for seven years without having seen each other during that period, Ray J. West and Walter D. West, sons of Mrs. Belle West, of Upper Strasburg, near here, met in France, where they are both serving with the American Expeditionary Force. Ray left his home in 1912 and went to the west on a tour of his residence in Illinois. In 1917 Walter went to Wyoming to live. Ray enlisted in the army soon after America entered the war and Walter was later drafted from Wyoming. Through letters from their mother the boys learned each other's address and when recently Ray secured a seven-day furlough he went to Glens, France, and found his brother, who is with the transportation corps. Ray is in the medical corps.

COLORED SOLDIER RETURNS

Mercersburg, Pa., March 6.—Thomas Reidout, colored, one of the first men from this section to be drafted and sent to Camp Meade, has returned from overseas. He was a member of the 368th Supply Company. Reidout was in France for ten months and never wrote to his wife in all that time on account of his timidity, he thought that as long as his wife did not receive word from him she would know that he was in good health.

Reidout was in the service for seven months and in all that time did not enjoy a furlough long enough to get home, once when twenty miles from home he turned and went back to camp because he would be unable to get home and return to camp in the time allowed him.

Before the war Reidout was married to Annie Johnson, granddaughter of the late Reuben Johnson, who was a slave and fought in the Civil War. A child, now eleven months old was born while Reidout was in France.

COMMISSIONERS HEAR APPEALS

Carlisle, Pa., March 6.—In the final day for appeal from assessments made in the triennial assessment, the Cumberland county commissioners heard a number of appeals for changes in the valuation placed on properties in all parts of the county. While no figures have yet been compiled, it is the opinion that there will be a slight increase in the assessments, for the entire county, although there will be several drops in cases of importance.

JOIN GOOD ROADS MOVE

Carlisle, Pa., March 6.—A special committee from the County Supervisors' Association has come into the campaign for better roads in Cumberland county. Yesterday the committee met with the county commissioners to present a request for an expression of the board as to the amount of aid the commissioners will give toward construction of State aid highways in Cumberland county. In the afternoon the committee visited Highway Commissioner Sadler, at Harrisburg.

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 6.—While working on the roof of the building which he was using as an experimental station along electrical lines, but now converting into dwelling houses, Dr. William W. Strong, of South York street, fell to the ground, a distance of 15 to 18 feet, and is suffering from the effects. He landed on his feet and with such force as to affect his spine. Dr. J. B. Spangler attended the injured man who is confined to his bed and suffering from shock.

CARLISLE CIVIC CLUB BUILDING

Carlisle, Pa., March 6.—The Carlisle Civic Club gave the Y. W. C. A. project here a boost when it was decided to give $2,000 towards the proposed building, the amount to be a memorial to the charter members of the club, one of the pioneer civic institutions of the state. The club will also undertake a campaign for funds for Belgian babies.

WOMAN PHYSICIAN ILL

Waynesboro, Pa., March 6.—For the first time since she began the practice of medicine here thirty years ago, Dr. Nettie C. Dietrich is today unable to see her patients or make her accustomed visits. She is confined to bed with a severe attack of neuritis, a malady that is almost epidemic here, as an aftermath of the flu. In her absence from the office Dr. Dietrich's patients are being looked after by her trained nurse and companion, Miss Anna Durham.

LIETU SPAHR PROMOTED

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 6.—Friends of Lietu Spahr, with the American Expeditionary Force, will be pleased to learn of his promotion to the rank of first lieutenant for services rendered. He was given the choice of returning home or going with the United States troops into Germany and he chose the latter. Lieutenant Spahr is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Spahr, South Market street, and was among the first to enlist in the United States service, leaving his law office in Philadelphia.

LEGISLATOR TO LECTURE

Chambersburg, Pa., March 6.—Members of the Men's Bible class of the Falling Spring Church here, will be the guests of Prof. F. S. Magill, member of the State Legislature, at a lecture to be given this evening in Penn Hall, a girls' preparatory school, of which Prof. Magill is principal. After the lecture a team composed of members of the class will contest a basketball game with the team of the girls' school.

WILD GEESSE LOST ON FLIGHT NORTH

Birds Become Confused During Storm; Hundreds Stay in Lykens All Night

Lykens, Pa., March 6.—During the storm which passed over this valley several nights ago a flock of wild geese were lost and created quite an excitement when they became scattered throughout the town. Sometime about 11 o'clock when they finally gathered together and continued to fly north.

ARRESTED FOR CUTTING TREES

Lewistown, Pa., March 6.—Albert Kinslow, Harry Munson and Sarah Messerman, living a short distance west of here, have been arrested, charged by E. W. Seitz with malicious mischief and each have given bail in the sum of $100 for a hearing. These three people are charged with cutting down at least 100 young trees and with breaking down a fence on the land of Mr. Seitz. The crime of cutting down trees up to the date of the hearing is punishable by not more than $1,000 and an imprisonment not to exceed one year. The breaking down of a fence on the property of another is punishable by a fine of $50 or imprisonment of six months or both. Mr. Seitz valued the growing trees highly and will push the case.

BUFFALO CREEK BRIDGE

New Bloomfield, Pa., March 6.—County Commissioners J. C. Hench and J. A. Jantzen, of New Bloomfield, have issued notice of their intention to erect a single span sixty-foot bridge across Buffalo creek in Saville township. The bridge is to be a wooden structure. The commissioners will receive bids until April 7. All plans are subject to approval by the State Water Supply Commission.

Beats Mineral Iron

New Vim is now spelled "Nu Vim" and refers to the energic, vigor and vitality-restoring properties of the new vegetable Iron Weed Tonic of that name. Thousands of people suffering from debility or general weakness, run-down condition, manifesting itself in disorders of the blood, stomach, bowels, liver or kidneys, or in the pain and distortion of rheumatism, have found that this vegetable iron far surpasses any mineral iron tonic. Here is an example of what Nu Vim did for one man: My system was badly run down—couldn't sleep nights, and so stiff in the morning I couldn't get out of bed without help and pained all over my back and lungs. Had no appetite to eat. Had a bad breath and coated tongue all the time. After taking two bottles of Nu Vim I am restored to health—feel better very, way and eat and sleep fine. W. E. SMITH, Addington, Delaware Co., Pa. Nu Vim Iron Weed Tonic may be had at any of the 3 Gorgas drug centers. Nu Vim demonstrator is now at Gorgas', 16 North Third street.
