Lieut. Foster Weds Philadelphia Girl

Philadelphia, March 6.—A pretty wedding took place Tuesday night at 6 o'clock in St. Mary's Memorial Church, Wayne, when Miss Gladys Marguerite Jameson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Jameson, became the bride of Lieutenant J. Montgomery Foster, United States Army.

Miss Jameson was attended by her sister, Miss Louise Jameson, as maid of honor, and Miss Natalie Bruch, of New York. Little Miss Dorothy Leonard was the flower girl. The best man was Richard Watson and the ushers included Lieutenant R. L. Leonard Jr., Thomas Hearne, Kirk Moore, Kilschaw Irwin, Samuel Slaymaker and Frank Hunter, of Pittsburgh.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, wore a frock of white embroidered net over satin and her tulle veil was edged with duchess lace, which her mother wore at her wedding. Her bouquet was a shower affair of white sweet peas, white lilacs and pale lavender orchids. The bridesmaids' frocks were of blue taffeta, finished with pink girdles, and their hats were made of blue taffeta. They carried bouquets of violets, lavender sweet peas and pink snap-dragons. The maid of honor was gowned in pink taffeta with a hat of the same material, and she carried pink sweet peas, pink snap-dragons and pale lavender cluster orchids.

The little flower girl wore a frock of white net trimmed with pink ribbons, and her small poke bonnet was made of pink georgette crepe. She carried a tiny basket of spring flowers.

The Rev. George W. Anthony performed the ceremony. A small reception followed at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families and a few intimate friends.
