

"HELL FIGHTERS" WILL PLAY HERE

Veterans of War, Famous 360th U. S. Infantry Band, Coming Next Week

The Jazz Military Band attached to the famous 369th U. S. Infantry ("Hell Fighters") is coming to Harrisburg and will give concert the afternoon and night of Tuesday, March 18th at the Orpheum.

This famous band was recruited by Lieut. James Reese Europe under a subsidy furnished by prominent New York bankers and society people and he will wield the baton at the concert here. A tour which is intended to cover the country from coast to coast, and an European tour to follow will be inaugurated at the Manhattan Opera-house, New York City, Sunday, March 16.

There are 65 men in the organization and they created a sensation at the head of the 369th Regiment when it paraded Fifth avenue upon its return from abroad the last week in February. It has been called by many the best band that the war produced and no less a person than Irvin Cobb pronounced it the best regimental band in our army.

It was the sensation of Paris and the delight and inspiration of the trenches, rest billets and hospitals to which it was sent by command of Gen. Pershing. It met in friendly rivalry the best bands of the Allied armies and set all France jazz mad with its syncopated melodies—the music of the moment, half way around the world and back. Jazz has been called the slapstick comedy of music, but none question its popular appeal and as played by Europe's fighting musicians helped to cheer France when things looked none too well and carried joy to the "doughboys" in rest camps and on leave.

The program to be given here will have plenty of impelling jazz but the selections of the great composers will not be neglected and the cultured music lover will be considered as well as Mr. Tired Business Man who likes the tunes and melodies that make the pulse beat faster and the feet to grow restless. Popular prices will prevail.

"Remnant," the charming romantic comedy by Dario Nicodemi and Michael Morton, of which Miss Florence Nash is the laugh-provoking star, is a direct from a four months' triumph at the Morocco Theatre, New York, to the Orpheum. It is a refreshing look at old Paris before the war, and before the thoughts of rumors and dread will shatter buildings, no Californian Highlanders with Brooklyn infantry quarters in Louis XVI drawing-rooms, no German uprootings and beam-chinings, and no dashing American and English being chased by French midwives into houses looking like Fifth Avenue antique shops, to drink rare wines in their crystal glasses. The scenes are laid in the Paris we know when one could rent a beautiful apartment or a modest studio and live therein.

And these scenes are not up or down. They remain in all their characteristic Frenchness and charm until the curtain, and "Remnant" plays the delightful way through all a true Parisian "Peggy-Me-Heart," she finds happiness for all and a lot for herself in the last act.

"Mutt and Jeff in the Woolly West." This triumph of modern construction and famous Broadway attraction, "Mutt and Jeff" will be the attraction at the Orpheum, Saturday.

THIRD DANCE BY CALDER POST AT WINTERDALE MARCH 12, 1919 — 8.30 to 11.30 Mannix Orchestra

urday, matinee and night. The play is a three-act, with a plot full of features, of innuendoes and irresistible hilarity, and the introduction of the introduction of especially rhythmic songs and singing, dancing ensembles, and other bits. A splendid comedy, promoted by manager Hill, is well an array of youthful girls for the chorus.

F. Ray Comstock and William Elliott, producers of a new style of presentation, containing a real plot — which, of course, is of youth and love. It is not the usual kind of a presentation, which is full of situations, rather than detracting from the theme. The songs are really good, and the music being sung and whistled everywhere — for they are the "humable," whistling kind — full of rhythm and living note.

Youth, with all its attendant charm and beauty, with all its sweetness and beauty, are ever in the foreground of the play. The girls are well equipped and the boys are there to carry the story. Never are they called upon the stage simply to sing and dance, but are always there with a definite purpose which they carry out.

It was a happy bit of news, indeed, for local playgoers, when the Orpheum announced that arrangements had been definitely concluded for the appearance of the Orpheum Theater, for two performances, Saturday, March 15, and Sunday, March 16, of the Orpheum's delightful comedy, "The Off-Chance." Happy since her coming to Harrisburg, Miss Barrymore, the most famous of American actresses to this city in two or three years, Miss Barrymore spent the last season last year in New York, where, at the Lyceum Theater, she achieved little less than a record. Her performance of the role of Edward Sheldon's appealing version of "Camille," called "The Lady of the Camellias," and Mr. Carton's comedy, "Belinda," and Mr. Carton's "The Off-Chance." Despite the enormous success of her previous work, the latter which made the happiest impression on Miss Barrymore's following. Both the play and comedy were acclaimed by the critics. Miss Barrymore was credited with having distinguished career, while Mr. Carton was said to have excelled even in his own play, "The Off-Chance," by Miss Barrymore and the Charles Frohman Company, for her tour this year.

At the tentious musical comedy presented by a company of artists, (mostly of the Orpheum) Other acts include: The Doris Lester Trio, offering their comedy skit entitled "Blew the Blues," at the Lyceum and Arena, novelty acrobatics, "Johnny" Johnston, in his funny singing act, and Harry Ashley and George, in a happy combination of comedy and instrumental music.

The new bill, which opens to-morrow, has for its helmsman Stan Stanley, assisted by a competent company, in a big comedy offering, "Grouped around the attraction are Weston and Elaine, in a breezy song and patter skit; Carletta and Lewis, variety entertainers, and two other acts.

Clara Kimball Young will be seen for the last times to-night in the famous Broadway attraction, "Cheating Cheaters," which ran two weeks at the Orpheum. The play, entitled "Cheating Cheaters," Mystery and suspense are the chief elements of this play, which is a corking good story and perfectly done. The star acts her part with calm reason and dignity, and she passes any of her previous efforts. As Miss Brockton, in her well-fitting tailor-made riding habit, she is refreshing and beautiful. A well selected cast of characters, including such favorites as Anna Q. Nilsson, Tully Marshall and Jack Holt, support Miss Young.

A beautiful and charming picture is being presented at the Regent to-day and to-morrow, showing Dorothy Gish at Regent in "The Hope Chest," the clever little entertainer, who is remembered by virtually everyone who saw her as "The Little Disturber," in the great Griffith feature, "The Heart of the World," and as "Batling Jane," in that famous picture, possesses a charming personality which gives her as a stage actress, playing the part of "Sheila Moore," daughter of a vaudeville actor, who has to make her way in a life of poverty and struggle, and who, pluck and grit can do. The picture reaches a strong and poignant heart, by the way, it is the same "Hope Chest" which appeared as a serial in The Woman's Companion, being written by Mark Twain. Later the story was published in book form and scored considerable success.

Friday and Saturday, Shirley Mason and Ernest Truex are to appear in "Good-Bye, Bill," a screaming farce, with William Hohenzollern, erstwhile Emperor of Germany, as the central figure. It's a picture, helpful and spiced with ginger. A flag comedy, "One Every Minute," rounds out the program for the last two days of the week.

Annette Kellerman, champion swimmer and favorite screen actress, is the ambitious star of Annette Kellerman production "Queen of the Sea," showing to-night and to-morrow at the Victoria Theatre. Miss Kellerman's unique talents, both as a thespian and nautical artist, are well known to the movie-loving public from "A Daughter of the Gods" and other aquatic productions. In "Queen of the Sea" she is cast in a submarine fairy story designed to display her abilities as a swimmer and high diver in the most spectacular and sensational style.

The picture is packed with thrilling incidents and dramatic situations and the half-raising climax is a scene where Miss Kellerman, walking a wire eighty-five feet in the air, is suddenly precipitated into the water by the severing of the slender strand.

"Queen of the Sea" is the role played by Annette Kellerman in this William Fox super-picture. As the title indicates, the picture is a submarine story, which is calculated to display the aquatic achievements as well as the acting ability, of this spectacular swimmer. In the five reels of this popular picture have been packed more sensational high-diving and deep-sea swimming "stunts" than could be encompassed by any other aquatic performer in an unlimited feature film.

TO REMOVE ASHES. Pastors and officials of forty churches in the city have accepted the offer of the Bureau of Ashes and Garbage inspection, to remove ashes from the churches within a few weeks. It is planned by Harry F. Sheesley, superintendent of the bureau, to have the ashes hauled to the river bank along North Front street, near Woodbine, to be used there as fill, as there will be no waste paper or rubbish in the ashes. Letters have also been sent to the various fire companies of the city announcing that the ashes which have accumulated during the winter will be removed by the men employed by the bureau. Because of the fine weather in the city the greater part of the winter Mr. Sheesley said, the teams had little trouble in keeping on schedule.

BUILD ROADS URGES SADLER

Northern Tier Men Asked to Supplement What the State Is Doing

Men from Tioga and Potter counties were urged by Highway Commissioner Lewis S. Sadler to put into secondary road construction money which will be saved to them by the State Building the primary roads at a series of conferences at the Highway department. "The counties of northern Pennsylvania should get together and make a program that will join the whole top of the State. If you put this money wisely into roads people will bless you, but if you put down a road that will be gone in a few years you might just as well throw your money into the Susquehanna," said he.

The Commissioner pointed out to people from Lehigh, Columbia, Schuylkill and Northampton counties that he would start construction as soon as possible, while people from Montgomery were told that an eighteen foot road would be built through Trappe and Collegeville. Men from Butler and other western counties were assured that secondary construction would be undertaken as soon as possible.

S. C. Moore of Butler, and John S. Wilson, recently elected Congressman in the Butler-Westmoreland district, today saw Highway Commissioner Sadler relative to the participation by counties in the construction of secondary highways. Mr. Moore is a Butler County Commissioner.

Commissioner Sadler informed the visitors that the contracts for secondary highway construction, which covers the work on the majority of the roads which will tie up with the Department's primary thoroughfare system, are to be let by the chance for you to rid yourself of the disease.

Sensible Treatment for Rheumatism

First of all, get it firmly fixed in your mind that all the liniments in the world have no effect whatever on Rheumatism. You may use them by the gallon, and rub the painful parts by the hour, getting possibly some temporary relief from the torturing pains, but you are making no headway whatever toward reaching the cause of the disease.

The most common form of Rheumatism is caused by millions of tiny disease germs which infest the blood. The one and only sensible treatment, therefore, is one which cleanses the blood of these germs, and routs them entirely out of the circulation. And everyone knows that this cannot be done by rubbing the surface with liniments.

This is why S. S. S., the greatest known blood purifier, is so successful in the treatment of Rheumatism. It is a powerful cleanser of the blood, being composed entirely of the extracts of roots and herbs of recognized medicinal value, and it promptly routs out of the blood all disease germs. S. S. S. has been used for more than half of a century, and it will prove beneficial in any case of Rheumatism.

If you are a victim of this disease, why waste further time with the wrong kind of treatment? Go to your druggist to-day and get a bottle of S. S. S., and begin a course of treatment that will delight you with its results. S. S. S. will remove the disease germs that cause your Rheumatism, affording relief that is genuine.

We maintain a medical department in charge of a specialist in Rheumatism, and after beginning treatment with S. S. S. you are invited to write for free medical advice about your own case. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 106 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

There are many ways of treating Rheumatism, but there is only one right way.

On the streets every day you see the results of improper and misdirected treatment. You see victims of this painful and disabling disease, limping through life, their limbs bent and stiff, and their bodies tortured with aching joints, until you wonder how they can bear so much continued suffering.

You see these same unfortunate hobbling along as another winter approaches, knowing that there is another season of suffering in store for them. You notice that they are a little more stooped, and their gait is a little more difficult as the years go by.

If you are beginning to feel the first slight touches of Rheumatism, there is just as much pain and suffering ahead of you, if you follow blindly in the same misdirected footsteps of unintelligent treatment. For remember that all these thousands of victims of this painful disease have spent countless hours no doubt, as well as their hard-earned dollars in a vain effort to find a cure.

And your own experience will be just as disappointing as theirs, if you follow the old, worn-out and worthless methods of treatment.

The whole trouble is that the symptoms of the disease are being treated, and not the disease itself. When you realize that you must get rid of the cause of Rheumatism, and that its torturing pains will disappear when their cause is removed, then you will be on the right track, and there is a splendid Highway Department and the work will be supervised by this Department. County Commissioners will file applications for construction and pay one hundred per cent of the cost to the Department. Townships interested in propositions of this sort will make contracts directly with the counties and pay to the counties their portion of the cost. The Highway Commissioner told County Commissioners Moore that inasmuch as there are an overwhelming number of applications for secondary road construction, not all the contracts can be let at once.
