

YANKEE BOXERS PICKED FOR FOREIGN MEET; TECH'S LAST GAME FRIDAY WITH PHILA.

Lucky Boxers at A. A. U. Meet Will Fight Abroad This Summer

The prime evidence of boxing's popularity came out at Boston yesterday when many hundreds of lads appeared at the annual competition of the A. A. U., the contests resulting in picking out the heroes who will represent Uncle Sam in the international tournament to be held in Scandinavia this summer. The winners came from all parts of America as the following list shows, but Gotham furnished the bulk of clever amateurs:

108 Pound Class—D. Kamins, New York, won from J. Manning, Boston.

125 Pound Class—William F. Corbett, Boston, won from Archie Walker, New York.

158 Pound Class—Sam Lagonia, New York, won from J. J. Flanagan, Brockton.

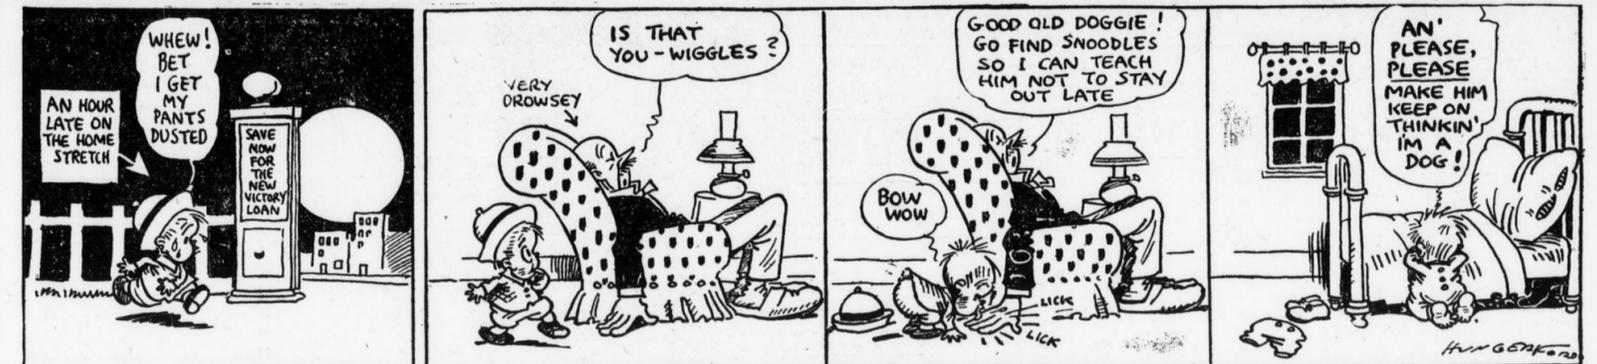

175 Pound Class—Frank B. Cassidy, New York, won from John Hepburn, Boston.

195 Pound Class—David Rosenberger, New York, won from Emil Franzer, New York.

215 Pound Class—Al Roche, Boston, won from Frank Grayber, Pittsburgh.

Heavyweight Class—E. F. Egan, Denver, won from James J. Tully, New York.

TECH'S LAST BATTLE

The pick of the southern, northeast and West Philadelphia High schools will visit the Technical High school basketball cage Friday night when the Maroon aggregation will play its final contest of the season. The season closed officially almost two weeks ago, but the Philadelphians have been dickered for a game ever since. Being the pick of the larger city, they claim to be real champions.

One of the big stars of this aggregation is Passon, a Southern High school forward. This lad has a knack of tossing them in from the foul line that has stamped him one of the keenest eyed stars in the State. Freeman, the other forward, is also from Southern. This pair have a reputation of being the best duo of forwards Philadelphia ever produced. The third and final Southern player found at center in the person of Popo. He was among the leaders in the Philadelphia cage league the past season.

At guard are Young, of West Philadelphia, and O'Brien, of Northeast High school. In their burl storming rips, the forwards have been able to elude this pair of defensive tossers. Coach Miller will send his strongest team against this combination, and the following night the

Coal Advance Justified

The statement of Governor Sprout that the proposed 10 cent advance a month from May 1 to September 1 in coal prices is justified, should remove all doubts as to the true conditions confronting the coal trade.

The 73 per cent. advance in wages, the increased freight rates and other higher costs of mining are factors that make this additional increase in coal prices necessary. More than 30 per cent. of operators have been conducting their coal business at a loss.

And the wise homeowners will avail themselves of present coal prices and fill their bins for next winter this month. We can supply all the coal you order now.

Battle De Luxe When Fords Meet Steelton

The Steelton Big Five which opposes the local Independents Saturday night have an all-star team of boys who were on local school teams in the past three years.

Earl Killinger, who was a star on the Technical High team will play a forward position; he is also a former Rosewood player. His running mate will be Mickey Krout, a former Steelton High football and basketball star.

Mike Yoder, who managed the Elizabethtown basketball team this year and jumped center for the same club will oppose Big Boss Hagerty at center. The guard positions will be taken care of by two of the best basketball tossers in this vicinity.

Lefty Dayhoff who starred in all sports at Steelton High school will play one guard position with "Red" Atticks who is known all over the State as an athlete. He is a former Lebanon Valley College man, having played and won his letter in three sports, basketball, baseball and football. Steelton will bring its usual crowd of rooters along and there promises to be great rivalry during the game. Dancing will immediately follow the game.

Nate Isaacman Fights Babby Williams at the Motive Power Show

To-morrow night is the date for the Motive Power boxing show at its arena, Boyd and Seventh streets, where Allentown Dundee is billed to meet Tommy Carey, the crack Philadelphia lightweight. Dundee has won several decisions in this city over Joe Phillips and Larry Hanson and he is mighty popular with the local fans. He will have a tough battle in Tommy Carey, however, for that lad is a scrapping customer.

The match between Nate Isaacman and Babby Williams, of Allentown, promises to be even more thrilling from a local end. Williams knocked out Bill Segal here some weeks ago, bumping him for five bloody rounds, and the Motive Power fans look for a stiff battle with Nate, who has knocked out three of the last four men he met. Isaacman has been accused of "picking" his opponents, but in this case he has tied the mark and the victory will be to the best fighter.

CARLISLE SOLDIERS ENJOYED LOCAL BOXERS' SHOW

That charity is all the Bible says of it was manifested by the trip of those local boxers to Carlisle where they diverted 500 overseas soldiers with a sparring tournament. The secretary of the Jewish Welfare writes to the Telegraph sports editor asking for an additional tribute to the following athletes who hooked up as indicated:

Phil Schiff vs. Young Sherman; Abe Michaels vs. Ben Garonek; Gilly Daylor vs. Lester Nichols; Jack Dewey vs. Jerry Glass; Sergeant Perkins vs. Sergeant Tommy Condon, New Cumberland; Sammy Schiff, Harrisburg, vs. Black Gunboat Smith, Baltimore, Md.

"Every bout was a hummer and the real goods," was the soldiers' consensus, says the Welfare report, "and the show was one big hit."

The boxing took place right on the floor with the 500 overseas men close up, some of them requiring the attendance of a nurse. Ish Cohen, the wrestler, refereed, and he saw that the fighting was fast enough to suit even a man who had been over the top. A Roseman, of the Welfare, looked after the staging of the show and the entertainment afterward.

Wigmore Letters Mailed in Franked Envelopes, Charge

By Associated Press. Washington, April 9.—Investigation by the Attorney General's office of the alleged distribution in official franked envelopes of 70,000 copies of a letter written by Colonel John H. Wigmore, formerly of the Provost Marshal General's office, in support of the existing court-martial system, was urged yesterday by Senator Chamberlain, former chairman of the Senate Military Affairs Committee, in a letter to Attorney General Palmer.

SCIENCE CHURCH WINS

Boston, April 9.—Judge Loring in the Supreme Court to-day refused an injunction that would require the directors of the Christian Science Church of Boston and the trustees of the Christian Science Publishing Society to restore to the authorized list the First Church of Christ Scientist of Nashville, Tenn., and Henry M. Mason and Annie Q. Mason, practitioners.

Won Middleweight Boxing Title in Navy, Now Wants to Become a Matty or a McGraw

TOD MILLER. It isn't enough for Tod Miller to have won the middleweight boxing championship of the United States Navy. He wants to become another McGraw, or a Mathewson or a Chase, or an Alexander, or a Kauff—in fact anything that shows he is of championship baseball caliber. He is shown here in his favorite fighting pose at the New York Giants' spring training camp at Gainesville, Fla.

Tome School Planning Huge Spring Meet

The Tome School, down near Baltimore, which, like many other classy institutions, lost to the Harrisburg Tech, is going to have another spring meet on May 14, with the largest crowd and list of entries in the history of the place.

The Towhee Company, of Baltimore, has contracted to run an excursion from Baltimore, the steamer to leave later street at 8 a. m. and to afford room for 300 passengers. The excursion, which is in charge of Messrs. Coulborn and Smead, of Baltimore City College, promises not only an ideal outing by the river and on Tome's beautiful campus, but also the witnessing of spectacular events among the choicest schoolboy athletes in the East.

Plans have been carefully laid for all details of boat, train and automobile transportation and for entertainment, housing and meals. The plaques, cups, and medals to be awarded have been carefully selected and are the best ever offered by the school.

The committee feels especially pleased with the selection of officials who are to carry on the meet. The clockwork system, which has always marked Tome's meets, will be in evidence more than ever this year. Latrobe Cogswell, the president of the Southern A. A., has agreed to meet as clerk of course. George J. Turner, as referee; M. H. Markle, as starter; W. J. Leimke, C. C. Beuerlein, E. P. Baird, James McClellan, Soy Pepper and C. H. Katenank as timers and judges. These officials, well-known sports men, are sufficient in themselves to assure the success of the meet.

In the evening, after the meet, an interesting entertainment in Memorial Hall will be provided especially for the benefit of visitors. The school is very fortunate to obtain for the occasion the Johns Hopkins University Dramatic Club, which will present "Bernard Shaw's 'You Never Can Tell'." The present outlook seems to indicate that the meet of 1919 will eclipse anything of its kind in the South.

AROUND THE BASES

The list of team entries for the University of Pennsylvania relay carnival which will be held at Franklin Field on the 25th and 26th of this month is one of the largest in the history of the games. Virtually every big college in the East and Middle West, except Yale, is represented in the list, and Yale is expected to send in their entries very soon, at least for the hurdles and some of the field events.

The latest entries received include Harvard and Lafayette. Harvard will compete in the distance medley relay, the four-mile championship and some of the field events. Other institutions that have sent in entries include Chicago, Princeton, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania State, Columbia, Cornell, Iowa State and Wisconsin.

Baltimore, April 9.—Al Shubert, of New Bedford, Mass., and Peter Herman, of New Orleans, bantamweight champion, fought ten fast rounds here last night. There was no decision given but the crowd concluded Shubert had the better of the bout.

HARRISBURG SPORTSMEN'S SHOOT. Marietta, Pa., April 9.—The Harrisburg Sportsmen's Association made the following scores at their shoot: S. S. Hoffman, 93; Shearer, 40; Stewart, 15; Benner, 36; Worden, 52; G. E. Hoffman, 87; Freeland, 89; Martin, 87; Hickok, 92; Morrett, 92; McCully, 84; Rothrock, 73; Calderman, 67; Pale, 86; Roberts, 67; Cleckner, 13; Tomlin, 46.

WEST END MEETING. The following officers for West End Twilight League will be installed this evening at the office of Alderman E. J. Householder, Forrest and Moore streets: President, Professor McCune, of Tech; vice-president, Emory C. Lutz, sporting editor of the Evening News; secretary, Mr. Hirsch, and treasurer, William Wykoff.

Reading, Pa., April 9.—Another delay in the International League franchise negotiations is apparent from the tone of a letter Mayor Filbert received from President Fulz yesterday. The letter says league will meet the latter part of this week, when action will be taken.

Mayor Filbert has replied to the Fulz letter, telling the league president the city will await the league's action. Attention is called to the fact that the time is now getting very short, and that Reading has not yet made any effort toward park improvements or getting a team ready for the opening of the season on April 30.

MAGNATE A SUICIDE. Moses Frank, the aged ex-president of the Baltimore Orioles, committed suicide in Baltimore yesterday. He was found early yesterday morning in his room dead from gas. Frank had invested quite a lot of money in baseball and loved the game as few men do. Baseball was his one pastime. He cared for no other. He was president of the Orioles from 1903 to 1908.

On Sunday he saw the first ball game in three years, when Jack Dunn took him out to Oriole Park to see the Athletics play the Baltimoreans. He seemed to be in fair health, although slightly "out of sorts." After the game he went to his hotel with Jack Dunn and Connie Mack in their automobile and seemed to recover his good spirits.

READING BASKETBALL RECORD. Reading, Pa., April 9.—Twenty-two victories in twenty-eight starts is the record made this season by the Reading High basketball team. While the team did not win the Central Pennsylvania Scholastic League pennant, it aroused enough interest to make the season the biggest money-maker in the history of the cage sport at Reading High.

Since the disbanding of the old Eastern League the Red and Black five has been regarded as Reading's representative team. There is just as much interest in the high team's success as there was in the Reading's professional club when the Eastern League was flourishing. No athletic team of Reading High ever won so many outside rooters as the cage quintet did this year.

Reading High wound up its season by losing to the strong Mahanoy City High School five in a sensational game. Mahanoy City has the strongest team that ever represented that city on the cage. Though the locals were still tired from the game they had at Lebanon, they put up a fairly good brand of basketball.

SOLDIER BROUGHT HOME. Melbourne, April 9.—The state of Victoria, of the Commonwealth of Australia, has expended up to date more than $5,200,000 in the purchase of land for the settlement of repatriated soldiers. It was announced to-day, a total of $7,600 acres has been purchased.

POLISH ARMY STARTS SOON

Paris, April 9.—General Haller's Polish troops, numbering about 50,000, will begin to move by train from Paris to Poland April 15 at the rate of two trains a day.

It probably will require thirty days to complete the transportation.
