Sunbury, Pa., April 12.—Congressman John V. Leshner, of Sunbury, is making his annual distribution of seeds to residents of the Sixteenth district. Many who are known to have voted "agin" Leshner received the Government-paid-for donation in their mail to-day.

MUSTEROLE—QUICK RELIEF! NO BLISTER!

It Soothes and Relieves Like a Mustard Plaster Without the Burn or Sting

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. It does all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—does it better and does not blister. You do not have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub it on—and usually the pain is gone!

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia), $3c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

Victory Loan Tea Given by Mrs. J. Irvin Steel

Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 12.—Mrs. J. Irvin Steel was hostess yesterday afternoon at a Victory Loan tea from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home in West Main street. Notwithstanding a downpour of rain, there was a large attendance and interesting speeches were made by three overseas soldiers from the United States General Army Hospital No. 31, Carlisle. They were: Guy Bensinger, of Ashland, in the Ambulance service; W. A. Robertson, of Pittsburgh, in the Tank service; and A. A. Grubb, of Pittsburgh, in the Ambulance service. All gave reasons why the Victory Loan should go "over the top." Other speakers were T. J. Scholl and the Rev. George Fulton, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

DAVID WARFIELD, IN "THE AUCTIONEER"

The appearance at the Orpheum, next Wednesday, matinee and night of David Warfield, in a revival of his popular success, "The Auctioneer," promises to be one of the season's most important theatrical events in Harrisburg. The sale of seats opens Monday morning at the box office. Mr. Warfield's famous portrayal of the old Hebrew peddler, "Simon Levi," in this well-known play, and the countless human touches with which he invests this creation, have secured his place in the hearts of theatergoers the country over. No player can bring tears and provoke laughter in so even a balance; no artist is more loved than David Warfield.

Convention of Fulton Co. Sabbath School Association

McConnellsburg, Pa., April 12.—The annual convention of the Fulton County Sabbath School Association will be held this year in the Presbyterian Church at McConnellsburg on Monday and Tuesday, May 19 and 20. An interesting program for Sabbath school workers is being arranged with W. G. Landes, of Philadelphia, secretary of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, as the principal speaker and conference leader. The Rev. W. V. Grove and Elder James Kendall have been representing the local congregation at the annual meeting of the Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church. A history of the Fulton County Chapter of the American Red Cross and its activities during the world war is to be written by a committee consisting of John P. Sipes, the Rev. William J. Love and Mrs. B. F. Henry. A modern, fireproof garage of brick and concrete is being erected by David Little at the location occupied by one destroyed by fire last fall. Rudy Bros. Co., of York, has just completed some repairs to the art glass windows in the Presbyterian Church. These windows, which were placed in the church at the time of its erection, more than fifty years ago, are made up of fine imported art glass, and since they have been repaired present a very attractive appearance. Two new windows were also installed in the church, the one a patriotic window to the honor of the boys of the congregation who were in active service. This window is a very handsome piece of art glass work. At the monthly meeting of the Ministers' Association of Fulton County the Rev. William J. Love read a paper entitled, "The Missionary Task of the Church in This Crisis."

The most wonderful play in America, "Experience," will open an engagement of three performances, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday matinee, April 15 and 16, at the Orpheum. "Experience" is being presented under the management of the original producer, Elliott Comstock and Gest. This is the fifth consecutive season for George V. Hobart's modern morality play and its success throughout the country in all that time has been phenomenal, having secured a record to none known to the theatrical history of a generation. The play teaches in an hour evening the lesson that it takes so many a lifetime to learn, depicting as it does the temptations confronting youth—the average young man of to-day, who seeks fame and fortune in the great city. The production is brilliant and magnificent, in ten scenes, each one showing some different phase of the adventures of Youth.
