

PENROSE GIVES WARM PRAISE TO CITY'S NEW HOTEL

Says That It Is a Fine Addition to Harrisburg and That City Is Booming

"This hotel is certainly a fine addition to Harrisburg. It was needed and it has met the needs," said United States Senator Boies Penrose upon his arrival in this city last evening. The Senator had a suite on the Third street side and after looking about the lobby and the other apartments expressed high praise for the new hotel.

"This is certainly a fine and quite in keeping with your city's enterprise," said he. "I was invited to come here and make an address at the opening, but although I wanted to I was kept at Washington by duties which took up all of my time. I am delighted with the hotel."

The Senator said that he had heard with interest of various plans to embellish Harrisburg and to continue the work planned when the Capitol park extension was proposed. "I feel confident that Harrisburg, always progressive, will do what is expected of it. I have spent much time here as a member of the Legislature and have many friends in Harrisburg and I am indeed very glad to know that the city is moving right along."

The Senator was visited by many Harrisburgers last evening, among them Lieutenant Governor Edward E. Beldeman, Senator Frank A. Smith, W. Harry Baker and others to whom he expressed his pleasure at the appointments and comforts of the new hotel and the progressive spirit manifested in the city.

PURSUING BOLSHIEVKS
Archangel, April 21.—The Russian and British troops pursuing the Bolshievki retreating from Bolshie Ozerki Saturday had progressed twenty verst southward. They had captured several prisoners and two 2-inch guns, which the Bolshievki were compelled to abandon in their hasty retreat.

PERMITS WOMEN TO PRACTICE LAW

Bill Has Passed Second Reading in the House, of Lords

London, April 21.—The House of Lords having passed the second reading of Lord Buckmaster's bill letting down the bars of the legal profession to women, the indications are that the measure will become a law during the present parliamentary session.

One by one, as a veteran observer of the struggle for women's rights points out, all the old sex barriers are tumbling down. It was strange, he says, to hear the government's blessing of this bill pronounced by the Lord Chancellor who, as Sir F. E. Smith, was one of the chief opponents of woman suffrage when he was a member of the House of Commons.

The work performed by women during the war, the Lord Chancellor explained, in vindicating his former opposition, had profoundly altered matters. "I may say," he continued, "that under the changed circumstances of the time the government welcomes this proposal, and that it is their hope that they may be able to give it such assistance as will render its passing into law highly probable."

The bill confers upon women the right of qualifying either as solicitors or barristers. It does not extend, however, to Scotland or Ireland.

U. S. Missionary Put on Trial For Helping Koreans

Seoul, Korea, April 21.—The Rev. Eli M. Mowry, of Mansfield, Ohio, a Presbyterian missionary, was placed on trial Thursday on the charge of having permitted Koreans to use his premises for disseminating propaganda for Korean independence. An official report says the defendant admitted sheltering five Koreans at different times, but denied any intention of helping them further their plans.

The bill confers upon women the right of qualifying either as solicitors or barristers. It does not extend, however, to Scotland or Ireland.

HARRISBURG'S BILLS ON WAYS

One Will Pass House Finally This Week; Other to Come From Committee Soon

The two big bills in which Harrisburg is interested to enable it to carry out the improvements the State expects it to accomplish, will move along this week. The Smith bill to provide ways for the joint office building will pass the House this week, being on second reading for to-night. The other Smith bill for the joint contagious disease hospital will be favorably reported by the Senate Committee on Municipal Affairs this week.

The Capitol Park, Memorial Bridge and office building bills will be presented this week. The final drafts await approval by officials in charge. The local appropriation bills are in the same state as the hospital bills for other communities, all in committee.

A rush of new bills is expected when the two houses reconvene this evening at 9 o'clock. Many members have brought in new measures and many have been sent here for study preparatory to introduction. In the event that any steps are taken during the week to designate a time for final adjournment, limits for introduction of bills in the House, which now has over 1,300 measures listed, will be taken without delay.

Both branches have considerable calendars for to-night's sessions, virtually all of them on second and third reading, while the postponed calendars contain a number of important bills which will be disposed of during the week, woman suffrage being in the House.

It is probable that the Appropriation Committee will meet for discussion of the policy to be followed in regard to requests for increased appropriations, and that the committees in charge of new revenue measures will meet the fiscal officers, and prepare a program to be taken up with the Governor when he returns. Governor Sprout is not expected here for some days.

The visit of Senator Boies Penrose is expected to stimulate activity in regard to the Philadelphia charter revision bills, which are in the Senate.

Tuesday the second conference on suggested amendments to the compensation code will be held under auspices of the State Compensation Board, and the same day there will be hearings on the Eyre public utility appeal bill, Department of Conservation and Mine Cave bills in Senate committees, and on military training in the House.

A number of important bills, including the road bond issue measure, are in the hands of the Governor for disposal.

GOOD SHOWING IN MANY ARMY CAMPS

Major Murdock Shows 22,000 Rejections in Over 255,000

Pennsylvania sent 20,297 men to colleges and schools for army training in addition to the 205,702 men sent to army camps under operations of the draft during the war, making the grand total of those sent to camps and educational institutions 225,999, according to figures completed by Major W. G. Murdock, chief draft officer for Pennsylvania.

Camp Lee got the largest portion of the men, its total being 74,846 with 21,495 being new recruits. Camp Greenleaf was third, but away below these two big camps.

The University of Pittsburgh got most of the students receiving 5,908, while State College got 2,153 and Carnegie Institute 1,777.

The figures compiled by the major show that 182,770 of those sent to camps were accepted, the rejection per cent being 8.2, while 674 of the men sent to colleges were rejected, a percentage of 3.32. Taking all of the figures the percentage rejections among the 225,999 men was 8.66.

GAME BILLS TO BE LAWS SOON

Final Action on Two Will Be Taken Before Very Many Days

The two game reserve bills, which it is expected will enable the State Game Commission to extend the number of reserves materially in the next year and to undertake some enclosing of tracts this summer, will be laws before the end of this month, according to predictions made here. Both bills are in the Senate, where no opposition is expected to them, and as soon as Governor William C. Sprout returns, will be promptly passed.

Under the terms of the Bowman bill, allowing the Commission to buy forest and woodlands for preserves, it is expected to purchase several properties in western counties. These are now being looked over by wardens and good reports on the natural conditions have been received. The titles will be looked up and the lands surveyed immediately after the bill is signed. Favorable prices are anticipated. Some efforts will also be made to buy tracts in eastern counties, although very few offers have been made in that section of the State.

The commission bill presented by Representative R. L. Wallace, of New Castle, allows auxiliary reserves to be established. According to the reports reaching Commissioner Nathan B. Buller, both brook and brown trout have come through the winter in splendid shape and as soon as weather becomes settled there is no reason why they should not be a record catch. More trout have been distributed in the last year than ever, many streams are classified as having been stocked, and fish thriving.

Good indications are being found for bass and the Susquehanna salmon, while conditions in lakes are of promising character. The bass planted last year have been found to have survived in fine style. State Game authorities have received many reports of grouse and pheasants being in excellent condition, numerous and frisky. In some sections of the State, sportsmen say that there are more grouse than known for a long time. Unless there is careless shooting this fall there is no reason why there should not be plenty of the ruffed bird. The pheasants distributed by game wardens have been found to have spread over wide areas.

Pinchot Candidate For the Republican National Session

Milford, Pa., April 21.—Gifford Pinchot has formally announced he will support his name to the Republicans of Pennsylvania as one of the candidates for delegate to the Republican national convention. "I am in harmony with the policies and ideals of Theodore Roosevelt," said the announcement, "and for the nomination of such a man as Henry Allen, Hiram Johnson, Irving Lenroot or Leonard Wood."

Prepares to Follow Siberian Army Into European Russia

Omsk, Siberia, April 21.—In preparation for a possible breaking through of the Siberian army into European Russia, the American Consul-General Mr. Harris is organizing a staff of vice consuls to be distributed at important points. In Bolsheviki Russia there are no American consuls except those in Bolsheviki prisons at Moscow. Roger C. Tredwell, the American consul at Tashkent, Russian Turkestan, recently was re-imprisoned by the Red Guard after having been released temporarily while counter revolutionists occupied the city.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "brighten" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.
