

FIRE IS RAGING ON MINE DUMP AT MINERSVILLE

Great Streams of Water Have Failed to Extinguish Blaze

Pottsville, Pa., April 29.—One of the greatest fires this region has ever seen is raging at the Lyle colliery timber and culm bank at Minersville. Refuse, timber and coal dirt from the mines have been thrown for years on this dump, almost mountain high, and fire starting in the heart of the bank has such a stubborn hold that great streams of water have failed to extinguish it.

Save 50c a Ton By Filling Bins Now

April 1 ushers in the Spring and Summer coal prices for 1919, and we would urge you to again place your next Winter's coal order with us at an early date. The present unsettled after-war conditions should suggest the same precautions this year that the public took a year ago when we were deluged with orders.

Retail prices will be at least 50 cents higher in price next Winter.

Coal is more plentiful and of better quality and preparation than it is likely to be for some time to come, and unless you lay in your supply during the Spring and Summer months, it will be impossible to meet the great demands during the Winter months.

Get your order in immediately!

EMPLOYMENT FOR SOLDIERS IS NEW SLOGAN OF K. OF C.

Employment Bureau For Discharged Men to Be Opened by Secretary McLaughlin

The Knights of Columbus of Harrisburg will open an employment bureau for men just out of the service, Secretary A. G. McLaughlin, secretary in charge, announced today. This service of the Knights of Columbus War Activities will be open to all discharged soldiers, sailors and marines. Any man desiring a job will be entitled to register at the Knights of Columbus Hall and every effort will be made by the Secretary to procure him a place. "Those in charge of the Knights of Columbus War Activities have discovered that the biggest service they can render is to help the Government find places for returning soldiers, sailors and marines," said Mr. McLaughlin today. "These men must have work and I have been instructed to do everything possible through our organization in the Harrisburg district to procure work for them. Preliminary plans are now under way with that end in view."

For Feeble Old People John Devitt Recommends Vinol to Create Strength and Vitality

Marlton, N. J.—"I am 69 years of age and after a severe sickness was in a weak, run-down condition. Vinol has built me up and made me strong, so now I feel real well again, and I can recommend it to others for such conditions."—John M. Devitt. The reason Vinol was so successful in Mr. Devitt's case is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run-down system, make rich, red blood and create strength. It is perfectly wonderful what it does for old people.

Why Pennsylvanians Should Buy Bonds

By LEWIS S. SADLER, Highway Commissioner of Pennsylvania.

There is still considerable unfinished business before the people of Pennsylvania in connection with the war. It is almost, but not quite, quitting time; and before we quit we must set our house in order.

The actual fighting is probably over, over there. We are bringing our soldiers home from the war zone. The Allies have been victorious.

But we have not paid the bills. We were proud of our victory when we achieved it. Which news came of the signing of the armistice, we were wildly glad. Then we let down somewhat. But now we are face to face with the fact that we hadn't paid for what we got. There is still an unpaid balance of several billions of dollars. This debt must be paid, if the nation is to continue to exist and stand unshamed before the nations of the world. And inasmuch as the government of the United States is composed of each one of us, this unpaid debt of several billions of dollars is a personal obligation. We owe our proportions of it just as surely as though we had individually contracted the obligation. We are paying some of it through stiff and far-reaching taxation. But nobody wants to pay the entire obligation in that way. It is better to stretch it over a term of years. And so Pennsylvanians are asked to loan the Federal Government their portion of the $4,500,000,000 Uncle Sam needs. We are asked to loan this money on the government's gold notes, at a fine rate of interest. Unfinished business? Yes, but Pennsylvanians will buy Victory Bonds, and quit only when quitting time comes.

FIVE OPINIONS GIVEN
Five opinions in State tax cases were given today by President Judge George Kunkel. The question raised in all the cases were practically the same, various companies appealing from the right of the State to assess taxes on loans made on promissory notes for current expenses and on car equipment trust companies. The various companies concerned were the Roxford Knitting Company, Lehigh and New England Railroad Company and Lancaster Electric Light, Heat and Power Company, three cases. The Court directed judgment to be entered against the Commonwealth and in their favor.

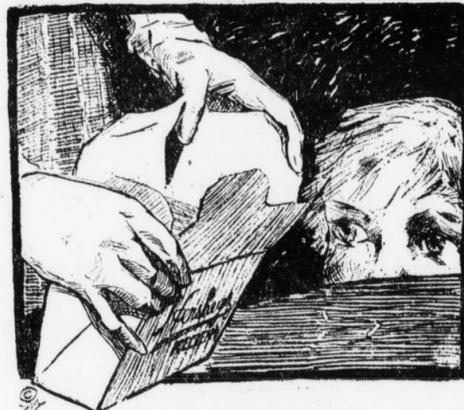

Liberty Bond Among Gifts on Fifty-Third Birthday

Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 29.—That Victory Liberty Loan bonds may serve a practical use and at the same time act as a splendid gift suggestion, was demonstrated at the celebration of the fifty-third birthday anniversary of M. Grant Mohler, at his home, "Sunyside," on Sunday afternoon, when his wife slipped a Victory Bond among his gifts, received in honor of the day. It was a worthwhile surprise and was followed by a sumptuous dinner at 2:30 o'clock, which was enjoyed by the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Maxwell —a car built 1/1000 of an inch fine

THE word "fine" has many meanings. Applied to a car it may mean the car looks fine, or it may mean the car is built fine.

The public usually makes up its mind about the former, and hears little about the latter.

Maxwell is a car built to very fine limits. When you begin to separate an inch into one-one thousandth part you will readily realize the pains taken to make the Maxwell right.

It means that each one of the working parts of the Maxwell are made accurate to that exceedingly fine point.

There's a good reason for this. In a great production like the Maxwell there would be a tremendous waste of time and materials unless there was such painstaking accuracy.

It would mean a car $200 more in price.

That is why Maxwell parts are "ground to size"—the most expensive operation in modern machine shop practice—not hand-fitted as they are in cars costing hundreds of dollars more.

And, by the way, that is why some cars cost hundreds of dollars more.

So that is one of many reasons why there is a 300,000 run on this single Maxwell chassis model. 300,000 built all on the original chassis program. 300,000 that are giving an extraordinary record of themselves.

Each new Maxwell is better than the last. Each new Maxwell is finer than the one that went before.

It is built fine. That's our idea of a fine car.

"Harrisburg's Dependable Store"

AN unanswerable argument! Clothing prices have dropped twenty-five percent. No amount of hedging or side stepping by any one of the country's profiteering merchants can change this unalterable condition---Not that some of them would not like to have it changed, for a great many have overstocked merchandise at beginning-of-season-prices, and then incidentally, charged too large a profit on top of that, to cover too large overhead expenses.

But "Harrisburg's Dependable Store" true to its usual policy of giving Harrisburg the squareest deal possible---did not fall into this trap set by the pessimistic manufacturers who wanted to assure themselves of a big business---even if the demand had not been big---by throwing the burden of losses on the retailer who naturally has to pass it on to the consumer.

The quality of the merchandise we are selling at such low prices is the finest produced, and Wm. Strouse guarantees every suit to give the greatest amount of SATISFACTION the wearer thinks he is entitled to. If it should fail to do this our well known policy of making good without question guarantees him that he can not lose one penny.

Remember the prices for the same Suits of the same quality other merchants are selling at higher prices at Wm. Strouse's are only

$25 $30 $35
