Official Citation

DOZIER, JAMES C., 1st Lieutenant, Co. G, 118th Infantry.

FOR conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action with the enemy near Montbrechain, France, 8 October, 1918.

In command of two platoons, Lieutenant Dozier was painfully wounded in the shoulder early in the attack, but he continued to lead his men, displaying the highest bravery and skill. When his command was held up by heavy machine-gun fire, he disposed his men in the best cover available and with a soldier continued forward to attack a machine-gun nest. Creeping up to the position in the face of intense fire, he killed the entire crew with hand grenades and his pistol and a little later captured a number of Germans who had taken refuge in a dugout nearby.
