Owing to the desire of many people to see the welcome from the parade, the route has been changed, as follows: Form at Market and Fifth streets, out Market to Front, in Front to State, in State to Second, in Second to Boas, in Boas to Third, in Third to Foster, in Foster to Second, dismissing at the Armory, where the returning soldiers will be welcomed by the Home Folks Victory Association.

Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J., May 6, 10 A. M.—Men from Harrisburg and vicinity, Lemoyne, Chambersburg and Carlisle will leave Camp Dix tomorrow morning about 9 o'clock in six cars attached to a special train. As soon as they reach Philadelphia the cars are to be attached to a regular train leaving that city for Harrisburg, and the men should reach this city about 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

There will be 191 men from Harrisburg and vicinity, twenty-seven from Lemoyne, fifty-four from Carlisle and fifty-five from Chambersburg, a total of 327, not including about half a dozen officers. Captain Henry M. Gross, attached to division headquarters, and Colonel Maurice E. Finney, of the divisional military police, are endeavoring to return to the city with the men. Troops from the western and northwestern parts of the State are to leave camp during the afternoon and will pass through the city during the evening.

Discharges Begun The process of discharging the One Hundred and Twelfth Infantry of the Twenty-eighth (Iron) Division was begun here today with the dispatch of 786 men to their homes. The balance of the regiment, approximately 1,600 men, will be discharged tomorrow and Thursday. The discharges are not made by companies, but by localities.

Entrainment of the 1,700 men of the One Hundred and Eleventh Infantry also was scheduled for today for Pittsburgh, where they will be met by their families and will go to Camp Sherman, Ohio, for discharge. The men of the One Hundred and Ninth Machine Gun Battalion, which will discharge with the infantry regiments made up the Fifty-sixth Infantry Brigade, also are being discharged here. The One Hundred and Third Engineers will remain here pending the outcome of efforts to obtain permission for them to parade at Philadelphia.

Arrange For Parade Arrangements for the parade and reception to be given for the returning heroes from the city and vicinity are being completed. Mayor Daniel L. Keister and members of the City Council will act as the official committee to meet the boys at the station, after which the parade over the downtown streets will start. The men will march with former soldiers and sailor organizations to Third and State streets, where relatives and friends will meet the boys from camp. Part of the street will be roped off the space at the General Hartranft statue reserved for the relatives, according to plans of the Home Folks Victory Association.

As soon as word is received here to-morrow morning that the boys have left camp a signal will be given by blasts of whistles and ringing of bells. As soon as the train carrying the returning boys arrives at the city limits another similar signal will be given.

Want Decorations Mayor Keister again appealed to every resident of the city to decorate their homes and business places and

HARRISBURG PLEDGES ITSELF TO RAISE FULL VICTORY LOAN QUOTA; COUNTRY DISTRICTS OVER THE TOP

Deficiency Will Be Made Up by Teams of Salesmen

CITY'S HONOR IS HELD UP

Over $300,000 Short at Last Minute Is Made Up

Harrisburg has made good in the Victory Loan drive. The city's quota of $4,669,423 was topped at the final luncheon of the city's teams at noon today. Steelton has reported her quota raised; Chairman Walter W. Rice, of New Bloomfield, reports Perry county's total taken, and County Chairman John P. Peterson, of Minntown, reports that Juniata counties have taken their full quota of bonds. Every section of the Harrisburg District except the rural section of Dauphin county, now reports its quota of bonds taken. "And they report they will take them and I believe them," William Jennings, Dauphin county chairman says. The section is short more than $350,000. Short more than one and one-quarter million dollars last Thursday when it had been hoped to end the drive to raise the city quota, the workers got busy and by hard work raised and guaranteed the city quota.

Chicago, May 6.—Julius H. Barnes, national wheat administrator, said in an address to-day to members of the Chicago Board of Trade that the food administration gave authority to control trading in foodstuffs on exchanges to the extent of prohibiting future trading altogether. He said that act was still in effect and that his duty was imperative if demonstrated abuse should arise.

CREAM POORER THAN MILK IS FOUND IN CITY

Some Samples From Restaurants Show Up Poorly; Milk Is Good

Tests made by the city bacteriologist of cream samples taken at a number of downtown restaurants by city food inspectors showed that in eleven instances the cream contained only from 3 to 15 per cent. butter fat while the city requirement is 18 per cent. Thus some cream has been sold which really is poorer in quality than milk.

Of the 38 samples of cream taken

DEAF, BLIND AND UNABLE TO WALK HE MAKES A LIVING

Cheerfulness of City's Most Helpless Cripple Aids Him to Make Success of His Latest Business Venture

Harrisburg has a heart. No argument to this. The city proves it every day and a long list of citizens are just now demonstrating their sympathy for the unfortunate by helping J. G. Henry, of 1224 Derry street, whose fate of tragedy is only overshadowed by his amazing enterprise, for though deaf, blind and crippled, he is not deterred from earning an honest living. Mr. Henry's crippled figure as he sits on an invalid chair mounted on wheels, accompanied by his faithful dog, Felix, is familiar, especially to the folks of Allison Hill, and in his determination to be self-supporting by the selling of soap, he calls forth aid and encouragement from a long list of Harrisburgers, among them Lieutenant Governor E. E. Beldeman, Charles E. Pass, S. Brady Cavney, the Rev. Thomas Reisch, the Rev. H. W. A. Hanson, E. A. Hoffinger, George H. Nace, Henry C. Claster and a host of others. His example is surely one to inspire the person who complains of misfortune, for his narrative is real tragedy.

ARGONNE HEROES WILDLY CHEERED BY NEW YORKERS

25,000 Fighters Drawn From Humble Walks of Life Parade Gotham Streets

COMMANDER FROM RANKS Doughboys Wear Jaunty Overseas Caps in Procession; Tin Hats on Back

3,000 ARRIVE TOO LATE

Liberty Division Solemnly Remembers Its Fallen Heroes in Ceremonies

New York, May 6.—Twenty-five thousand men, drawn from fifty nationalities among the polyglot population of New York, who less than two years ago were engaged in humble pursuits, returned to the metropolis to-day as heroes of the bloody battles of the Argonne forest, and a million or more fellow citizens frantically cheered them as they marched triumphantly up Fifth avenue as the Seventy-seven or Liberty Division. It was the only division in the American Army recruited entirely from one city, and it included a greater number than any other division of men of foreign birth.

Rose From Banks Of the divisions that fought under Pershing in France none was more democratic, army officers said, and even the commander, Major General Robert Alexander, decorated for bravery on the field of battle, rose from the ranks. The forty-five officers and one hundred and twelve privates who were awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, included all nationalities.

The division marched through solid lanes of humanity from Washington Square to One Hundred and Tenth street in battalion formation, sixteen abreast, with one yard between the companies. The doughboys were in light marching order and wore their jaunty overseas caps with campaign "tin hats" slung from the back.

Too Late For Parade Originally it was planned to have 20,000 of the line of men, but 3,000 of the division were on the transport General Grant, which did not arrive in time for the parade, and over 2,000 more of reinforcements from other states asked for and received their mustering out. About five thousand wounded soldiers, all of whom came to the member members of the division, rode in automobiles at the end of the procession.

Remembered Fallen Heroes The division fittingly remembered its fallen heroes. Ahead of the column was a solemn procession of companies of men carrying long red-bordered white flags, each bearing about 250 gold stars—for the 2,356 men who gave their lives for their country. A golden statue of Liberty—the emblem of the division—the 189 draft boards deposited wreaths of flowers at the foot of the roll of the division in front of the public library.

The hush that fell over the vast crowds as the solemn reminders of supreme sacrifices passed by gave way to waves of cheers as General Alexander and his staff came into sight. The ovation was continuous through the five miles of march.

Baker Reviews Procession Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, just returned from France; Franklin D. Roosevelt, acting Secretary of the Navy; Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, and various high officials of the Army and Navy, reviewed the procession at Eighty-third street.

GERMANS WILL GET PEACE TERMS FROM POWERS TOMORROW

Complete Economic Isolation of Enemy Country Is to Prevail in Case Huns Decline to Execute Convention

CONDITIONS OF DOCUMENT ARE TO BE READ THIS AFTERNOON

Preparations have virtually been completed for the presentation of the terms of peace to the German delegates at Versailles at 3.15 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. To-day is expected to witness completion of the draft of the Peace Treaty, a digest of which will be read at the plenary session of the Peace Conference this afternoon, primarily for the purpose of informing the delegates of the minor powers as to the details of the document the Germans will be asked to sign.

The complete economic isolation of Germany is being considered by the Council of Foreign Ministers of the Peace Conference as a measure to be adopted in the event that Germany refuses to sign the peace treaty. The plan for the measure was submitted to the ministers by the Supreme Economic Council.

It seems now to be quite possible the peace treaty with Germany will be disposed of before June 1, a member of the American delegation said last night after a day of pronounced activity on the part of the delegates and of numerous important developments in connection with the work of preparing the peace treaty.

Wilson Visits Versailles President Wilson, in addition to attending the meeting of the Council of Three yesterday morning and going to Versailles to look over the arrangements for the meeting with the Germans there on Wednesday visited the Hotel De Crillon in the afternoon and held conferences with the entire American delegation. He also saw Herbert C. Hoover, Admiral Benson and other experts and dispo-

CROIX DE GUERRE SAVES HIM

Harrisburg—Because he wore a Croix de Guerre on his khaki uniform, Forrest Donmoyer, Harrisburg, was allowed to withdraw a plea of "guilty" and a case against him was nullified by action of Judge Witmer in Federal Court this afternoon. A year ago Donmoyer was released on parole after he had pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing from a mailbox. He joined the army in that period and won his citation. M. W. Forney, Harrisburg, was fined $1,000.00 and sentenced to 30 days in jail on a charge of misappropriation of funds.

MORE 28TH TROOPS DUE

Philadelphia—The transport Liberator, bringing troops of the Twenty-eighth Division to this port, will arrive some time to-morrow. She is bringing the 103rd supply train, the 103rd ammunition train, the 103rd field signal battalion and other units. The Mongolia, with Brigadier General Price of Chester, and the 107th and 109th artillery regiments and the 203rd sanitary train aboard, will arrive in Hoboken Thursday.

SHIFTER RUNS DOWN HARRISBURGER

Harrisburg—A report was received to-day by police officials from Baltimore to the effect that William Robert, 1113 Monroe street, was in a serious condition in the Baltimore Hospital with both legs cut off. The accident is understood to have occurred at the Bethlehem Steel Company at Sparrow's Point when Monroe is said to have been run over by a shifter.

Harrisburg—At a special meeting of the judges in the Overland Model 90 nonstop high-gear contest, a special ruling was given in the case of the accident last evening. The ruling is that the car is in no ways disqualified in its record run.
