

Wilson Has Appointment With Army Chief Today; to Assure France Protection

Paris, May 7.—President Wilson has an appointment with General Pershing the American commander-in-chief, for 2 o'clock this afternoon. The conference probably is in relation to the three power pact or agreement under discussion for safeguarding France against renewed German aggression.

Funeral Services Held For Edwin G. Brady

St. Patrick's Cathedral was the scene of funeral services yesterday morning for Edwin Garrish Brady, 21 South Front street, who died at Baltimore Sunday morning. Burial was made in the Mt. Calvary cemetery. Mr. Brady was widely known here. He was a member of the Country Club, and Maintenance of Way clerk in the Pennsylvania Railroad offices.

"DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR

Stop dandruff and double beauty of your hair for few cents.

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of "Danderine" at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Your hair appears soft, glossy and twice as thick and abundant. Try it

HARD, RED, LARGE PIMPLES ON FACE

Was Itchy and Disfigured. At Night Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Heals.

"My face broke out in pimples that were hard, red, and large. They were scattered and my face was so itchy that I had to keep scratching all the time, and I was disfigured. At night I could not sleep. Then I read about Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I sent for a free sample. It relieved the soreness so I bought more, and my face was healed." (Signed) Miss Sophie E. Barnett, 3843 Terrace St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Cuticura Soap to cleanse, purify and beautify, Cuticura Ointment to soften, soothe and heal, are ideal for every-day toilet purposes. Do not fail to include the exquisitely scented Cuticura Tablets in your toilet preparations for perfuming the skin. See everywhere.

Civic and Welfare Bodies to Meet With Chamber of Commerce on 15th of May

A number of local civic and public welfare organizations which were invited by the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce to take part in the meeting the evening of May 15, in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce, for the purpose of organizing a permanent committee to take charge of the campaign for making Harrisburg a model city, already have named their representatives. The Chamber of Commerce has notified the Chamber of their intention to do so at once.

Col. Edward Martin, head of the State Department of Health, who started the campaign for bettering sanitary conditions here at a public meeting in the Capitol several weeks ago, will attend the meeting to outline what the various organizations represented at the meeting, can do toward carrying out the program for city sanitation. The organizations which have announced their representatives are as follows:

Kiwanis Club, Al. K. Thomas and Frank G. Fahnstock; Municipal League of Harrisburg, William Jennings and J. Horace McFarland; Rotary Club, R. E. Cahill and Frank C. Stes; Y. M. C. A., Arthur D. Bacon and Robert B. Reeves; Civic Club of Harrisburg, Mrs. Solomon Hines and Mrs. William Henderson. The various organizations which have been invited to participate in the conference, have expressed their desire to take an active part in the Chamber's intention to carry out Colonel Martin's plan for a model city. It is likely that the permanent committee formed at the meeting will map out an aggressive program for improving the sanitary conditions of Harrisburg.

Odd Fellows to Conduct Services For Dr. Emerick

Canada Aids Farmers In Home Building

Canada's appropriation of $25,000,000 for home building, though primarily intended for municipalities, will in some provinces at least, extend its aid to the farmers. Ontario's program provides that any person owning land may borrow to the full value of the proposed new dwelling, not to exceed $2,500, and extends the privilege to the farmer as well as to the city man.

Apartment House Fire Total Reaches Nine; One New Death

Columbus, O., May 7.—The death last night of Mrs. Ada Belle Joyce, 36 years old, brought the number of death in Monday night's apartment building fire to nine. Mrs. Joyce was the first of the injured in hospitals to die, although Charles Speakman, whose wife leaped to her death, cannot live, physicians say. "Absolute negligence" was responsible for the fire, according to State Marshal T. Alfred Fleming, who has started an inquiry for the State.

Dunne and Ryan Visiting in Ireland

Dublin, May 7.—Edward F. Dunne, of Illinois, who is in Ireland as a representative of the Irish Societies in the United States, yesterday visited Trinity College where he was educated. Afterwards he drove in a motor car, accompanied by Professor Edward De Valera, Arthur Griffiths and Count Plunkett, the Sinn Fein leaders, to St. Patrick's College at Mayo.

$5,000 Reward for Terrorist Crooks

Resolutions directing that $5,000 be placed at the disposal of the Auditor General and State Treasurer for "payment of rewards for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons guilty of sending through the mails deadly instruments and devices and letters threatening the lives of prominent citizens and the destruction of property" were presented in the House at the opening of the evening session by John Davis, Indiana. The measure went to the appropriations committee. The resolutions recite that several attempts have been made upon lives of prominent citizens by sending through the mails and that "numerous threatening letters have been mailed within the last few days to prominent citizens threatening the lives of these citizens and the destruction of property."

STEVEDORE STRIKE BROKEN

Panama, May 7.—The strike of stevedores at the Atlantic terminus of the Panama canal has been partly broken by the use of laborers brought from the Pacific end of the waterway. Emergency shipments are being handled and there is prospect that work on all ships will be resumed soon.

The New Member of County Poor Directors

Jacob S. Farver, Conewago township, formerly chief clerk to the county commissioners, has taken the oath of office as a member of the Board of Poor Directors, and will attend the session held by the board May 14. Mr. Farver is widely known in the lower end of Dauphin county. In the township in which he has resided for years, he has held practically all the important local offices. He was named as poor director by the other members to succeed Levi Miller, late of Hummelstown.

much more money. The provincial government has of itself appropriated $2,000,000 to be loaned to municipalities on condition that the latter raise one-fourth of the principal sum desired. This means that the province will have approximately $2,500,000 of its own money to loan to municipalities, and thereby, perhaps, leave a much larger margin of the Federal loan to be extended to farmers. Each individual loan will constitute a lien upon the property, to be repaid in a maximum period of twenty years with interest at five per cent. All or any part of the principal may be repaid at any time the individual desires.

200-Pound Man, Drowning, Saved by One-Armed Man

New York—Thomas Covhan, a one-armed watchman employed by the Booth Steamship Company at the foot of Fulton Street, Brooklyn, saved the life of David Curtin, forty-four, who weighs more than 200 pounds and lives at No. 249 Hull street. Curtin fell overboard from a tug and was floundering in the water when his cries attracted Covhan. The watchman picked up a rope and threw one end to Curtin, who was pulled to the pier. The rescued man was taken to the Long Island College Hospital.
