Present Frolic of Months One of the main features of the carnival will be a dance entitled "The Frolics of the Months," arranged by Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Shaar, assisted by Mrs. A. W. Holman, pianist, and Miss Sidney Shaar, violinist.

The carnival will open tomorrow at 3 o'clock with the first opening scene will be a pageant of the seasons presenting in order, the March Wind, the Queen of Spring and her attendants, April Showers and May Flowers.

With Royal Singers In the eighth feature, the Queen of Spring presents the scepter of the seasons to the Queen of Summer. Then follows an ensemble; the Passing of the Months; and a song, "Till We Meet Again" by the Royal Singers, comprising Mrs. Howard Sigler, Miss Eleanor Watts and Louis Munnell.

Attending the Queen of Spring are the Misses Roberta Asseln, Virginia Doehne, Louise Herbert, and Marie Shissler, while the Queen of Summer has as her attendants the Misses Lola Mae Steckley, Helen Staley and Betty Orr, Howard W. Goodman, Jr., and Charles Doehne are the two cunning Jack in the Pulpit.

The Royal Dancers, who promise to give a most pleasing performance include the Misses Betty Patterson, Marian Milhouse, Margaret Asseln, Gene Moses, Marie Shissler, Louise Cook, Gretchen Deen, Florentine Shilling, Mary Cooper, Helen Bowman, and Morley Baker.

The Royal Frolic comprises a Boy Scouts of Camp Hill. The Misses Louise Dennison, Florentine Shipping, Dorothy Folke, Martha Oberdorff, Frances Bishop, Clara Wolf and Helen Wornell take the part of varicolored flowers and the bathing girls are the Misses Betty Patterson, Louise Cook, Gretchen Deen, Mary Cooper, Margaret Asseln, Gene Moses and Helen Bowman.

The entire event promises to be most entertaining and other elaborate preparations are under way to make it the best carnival ever given in this vicinity.

Handsome Skirts for the Smart Shirtwaist Girl.

The vogue of the odd skirt seems to be fast increasing. Women who run on to New York often have remarked it. Among the fashionable circles, the groups which gather at Piping Rock and the other smart clubs, they are appearing with increasing frequency. And, after all, what is trimmer than a pretty waist coupled with a well-cut skirt of handsome material?

Never has my assortment of skirts been larger. I'm displaying literally hundreds in fabrics and patterns of extreme beauty: Moon Glo Crepes, Georgette Crepes, Silk Faille, Moires an many other materials. Surely, you'll find what you want at my shop.

Add to this wide choice a fitting service which insures perfect lines and the right "hang."

Won't you look them over to-morrow?
