

Troop 11 Changes Meeting Night to Monday

During the summer months Troop 11 has changed its meeting night from Friday to Monday night. On the evening of the Victory fire when Mr. Virgin gave out the Victory Liberty loan medals members of our Troop received fourteen medals and bars and also won two of the four German helmets, one went for the largest number of subscriptions taken which went to Richard Johnston, and the other for the troop getting the largest number.

On July 4 there was a service in Market Square Church at which the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts were invited. It being at 7 o'clock in the morning there were only eleven boys present. Troop 11 played the Duncannon scout team on Tuesday evening on the Academy diamond with a score of 8 to 2 in their favor. C. L. REBUCK, Scribe.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With Othine—Double Strength

This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE BOY SCOUTS

SCOUT CAMP PLEASURES NO. 13

Were Taken to the Scene in Touring Cars

Talk about style! Well those Scouts of 13 who paid a visit to the Scout Camp over the Fourth surely went in style. They were met at Boy Memorial Building by two large touring cars and started forth looking like millionaires. They arrived in camp just in time to hear Troop 22, talk of the good eats they had just put away, and to get the news that they were to sleep in the hay (if anybody ever says "hay" to Troop 13 again that person will be mobbed.) Scout Moeslein declares that the hay tickled his back, just like cotton, and it tickled Scout Alexander's mouth so much that he kept talking all night with the result that the next morning the camp director gave him a chance to work off his extra pep by swinging up cots

The Scout Commissioner's Good Turn

Every Scout must do a good turn daily, and this includes not only Scouts but also Scout officials. This is the beginning of a good turn story: The scene is laid at Camp Hacobocam. Time—6.15 last Friday morning.

Characters are Scout Commissioner German, Bill Maglauchin and a mob of fifty Scouts. Revellie was sounded and Bill was still snoring soundly. Suddenly he was awakened by his blankets disappearing to the ground. He was out of bed like a flash for visions of no breakfast came before his eyes. As he stooped to pick up those blankets there was a sudden R-I-P in the rear. Bill stopped right then and there to find out as a penalty for making it a sleepless night. We went to Carlisle on the Fourth to see the high celebration there. Toward evening we returned to camp and after eating supper visited the city of Mount Holly. The people there never knew there was a war because ice cream sundae are the same size they were in 1914.

About 9 P. M. when Harrisburg was roaring we pulled double blankets over ourselves, and in spite of shivers, went into the soundest sleep a Scout ever had, with the result that the next morning we needed an extra call to stir our desire for eats. This was our last day in camp before we returned home by way of the famous trolley line.

P. S.—You fellows who have not been to camp get wise. It is some class.

Scouts Are Getting Plenty of Publicity

To-day I read a story in which the author stated that Boy Scouts grow fat on the memory of a kind deed. That sounds queer doesn't it. I know I've never yet seen anyone who would get fat on the memory of the huckleberry pie he had for dinner. No, he'd be more likely to get thin from wishing for more of that same pie. But think it over, fellows, and you'll see just what he means by that statement. He must be a pretty good old scout himself. I don't know whether you know it or not, but it is almost impossible nowadays to pick up a paper or magazine which does not mention Boy Scouts in some way. They are really getting to be popular? Ask a Scout. He knows.

That was a very fine good turn you fellows did for the Chamber of Commerce last Thursday, and I know you must all have gained a little weight for over the Fourth.

The boys from Troop 13 who spent the glorious day at Camp Hacobocam must have had a pretty fine time. Even if you are a different one comes in, and asks for pencil and paper to write up his story of that memorable trip. Some of their stories are on this very page.

And by the way speaking of camp, it gets mighty cold down there at night so I'm told. We just got in a new shipment of blanket pins, so you're planning to go down in the future, come around and supply yourself before you go.

The Scout Page is beginning to dwindle again in size. Get busy! Summer is really the best time for this page because lots of things are happening, exciting things, and there is no school work to prevent you from writing up your little story.

Come on now, and let's see how many of you will be next week. A special invitation is extended to all new troops to be present.

Troop Sixteen Has Total of 60 Members

We have completed our registration questionnaire. How's that for spelling it right out? And find that we have 28 active Scouts, 3 associates, and 4 officers, a total of including 25 Cubs we are just 60 strong. Last Friday our room was so cool that we wanted to leave it. That's a fact. Give us a basement to meet in and we are happy. Our election resulted as follows: President, Lester Mehring, Scribe, Huston, Treasurer, Foose, and Chaplain, Kidman. The merits for June were as follows: First, Foose 498, Second, Wilbur Criswell 4461, Third, Cleon Criswell, 460.

The Eagles had an overnight hike to the Hut last week and raised so much dust going through New Cumberland that the correspondent of the Evening News devoted a few lines to the affair.

Foose and Saunders are still at Camp and it looks as if we'll have to get them if we expect them to come to the meeting tonight. But I don't think them I had a good ten days of it.

Tonight the officers will be installed and there will be other songs too numerous to mention to keep us busy. Some changes have been made in the Patrols. You'll be interested in this. Seven-thirty is the hour.

Huston, Scribe.

Boy Scouts Learn About Signalling

We had a snappy meeting last week—only twelve present, but I'm sure every fellow was glad to get in the cool basement. We learned something about signalling. Mr. Mehring talked to us about twenty minutes, and some of the fellows were able to receive short, easy words before he had finished. He has promised us some more, real soon. We played a lively game of our favorite Pass the Belt. Richard Long was the only disabled cub, but he soon recovered. The merits for June have been announced. First, Cunkle, 482; second, Cheese Book, 437; third, Adams, 405. It seems that none of the fellows want to pay any dues until Treasurer, Grego comes home from camp, but we should worry. Happy-go-lucky cubs, what use have we for money?

Richard Adams has returned from the Scout Camp and is bringing the affair from start to finish. To-night we'll have a new supply of one start test sheets so come early if you need one.

Are you making an effort to earn a little extra money so you can go to the camp next month? It's a great place and a week there is worth a month in a big city. Get ready for the next bunch from Sixteen.

CUB CUNKLE, Scribe.

DANIEL RUMPF IS SCOUTMASTER

Troop No. 2 Loses Its Former Master, Mr. Toor

Troop 2 is pleased to announce that we have procured Daniel Rumpf as scoutmaster. Mr. Toor, our former scoutmaster was forced to resign because of press of business duties. We accepted his resignation with a great deal of regret, because he was the kind of leader that boys can't help admiring.

However, we are very fortunate in obtaining the services of Mr. Rumpf who was at one time Assistant Scoutmaster to Dr. J. H. Fager, now a deputy commissioner. Dr. Fager and Mr. Rumpf had charges of the first troop organized in this city. This Troop had over one hundred members listed on the roll and all these boys were scouts in the true sense of the word. You can readily understand why I say that we are fortunate in securing Mr. Rumpf.

Our re-organization meeting was very successful. Everything was run off snappy. A new scribe, Earl Handler, was elected and a temporary executive committee consisting of Ben Levi, Sam Isaacman, Arthur Rosen, Earl Handler, and Bernard Koplovitz was appointed. A motion was passed that the meetings should be presided over by one of the boys instead of by the Scoutmaster, and that each boy should take a turn in having charge of a meeting. The next meeting will therefore be in charge of Ben Levi. The purpose of this is in order that the boys may become more familiar with matters of law and order.

Troop 2 expects to become more efficient and better all around since Mr. Rumpf has taken charge. We expect also to have many second class scouts before the summer is over.

Bernard Koplovitz.

Open Bids For Sale of U. S. Ship Lumber

Philadelphia, July 11.—Bids for 127,394,307 feet of ship lumber no longer needed in the plans of the United States Shipping Board were opened yesterday at the office here of the supply and sales division of the Emergency Fleet Corporation. There were forty-five bids: from dealers in the chief lumber centers of the Atlantic and Gulf States. Of the entire offering the bids ranged from $2,100,000 to $3,900,000, the highest being submitted by Harris and Company, New York. Bids for small lots ranged from $12 to $45.20 a thousand feet. Allotments will be announced later. The lumber is stored in yards from Texas to Maine.
