SOVIET CRISIS IN HUNGARY AS LEADERS FLEE

General Boehm, the Army Commander, Is Imprisoned

By Associated Press.

Vienna, July 17.—There is a crisis in the Hungarian Soviet. General Boehm, commander of the army, has been imprisoned. Reports have been circulated that his health required rest in a sanatorium. Strumfeld, second in command, is reported to have fled.

Statements that Bela Kun, the Soviet leader, has been invited to a conference by the Allies has given rise to reports that he has accepted this subterfuge as a means of escaping from Hungary without the intention of returning. It is denied, however, that he has left Hungary thus far, or even departed from the capital.

Nine Converts Baptized in Creek at Day's Close

Last evening at Orr's Bridge in the Conodoguin Creek at sunset the Rev. Dr. A. F. Stover, pastor of the Church of God at Camp Hill, led nine converts into the creek and baptized them while the congregation assembled on the bank of the creek sang appropriate songs. The ceremony was very effective. The following candidates were baptized: Vance Heller, Lester Sutton, Milton Schell, Carl Stone, Mrs. William Schell, Elmira Stone, Kathryn Kline, Ethel Winn and Elizabeth Winn.

INCREASED FARES NO HELP

Washington, July 17.—W. D. George, receiver of the Pittsburgh traction properties, and M. D. Brush, former president of the Boston elevated lines, were witnesses at today's session of the Federal Electric Railway Commission, appointed by President Wilson to inquire into conditions of and to suggest relief of the street railway systems of the country. Hearings were begun here several days ago. Both witnesses testified that increased fares had been resorted to in their respective cities in an effort to relieve the companies' financial embarrassment, but without success.

Special Trains to Carry Grocers to Hershey For 12th Annual Picnic

The grocers of Harrisburg are planning to hold their twelfth annual picnic at Hershey Park August 12, it was announced last night. In addition to the usual picnic games, several baseball contests will be put on which promise to be fairly lively. The Klein Chocolate Company will put one team in the field.

Four special trains will carry the crowds on the Philadelphia and Reading. Special rates of 54 cents for adults and 25 cents for the children will be allowed for the trains leaving here at 7.30, 8.30 and 9 in the morning and 1.15 in the afternoon. Final arrangements will be completed by the committee next Tuesday.

Japan Preparing For World-Wide Sunday School Meet

Tokyo, July 17.—Extensive preparations are already under way in Japan for the International Sunday School convention which will be held in Tokyo on next year, and which brings to Japan some 3,000 foreign visitors, 2,000 of them Americans. The conference will probably open October 15, 1920, and last about ten days.

As foreign style hotels are always crowded with regular tourists, the delegates will probably be asked to lodge on a more religious event but should be regarded as a very important international affair having a bearing upon the diplomatic interests of this country.

Commenting on the coming convention, the Jiji says the convention is not a mere religious event but should be regarded as a very important international affair having a bearing upon the diplomatic interests of this country.

To Build Theaters on Motor Lorries

London, July 17.—A scheme is on foot here to build theaters on motor lorries for the purpose of touring country districts. It would be a return to the methods of the drama's infancy in England. The old mystery plays of the sixteenth century were performed on platforms on wheels, and the theater was wheeled from point to point.

Mrs. Finrock Dies This Morning, Aged 47 Years

Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Finrock, wife of Edwin W. Finrock, 47 years old, died at her home, 122 E. 22d street, at 10 o'clock this morning. She was a member of the Royal Legion, No. 1108, and of the Duncannon United Brethren Church. She is survived by her husband, two sisters, Mrs. W. C. Graham, and Mrs. W. A. Reese, of Harrisburg, and two nieces, Miss Margaret E. Reese and Miss Elizabeth F. Graham. Funeral services will be held on Saturday at 2 o'clock from her late home, conducted by the Rev. William E. Daugherty, pastor of First United Brethren Church, assisted by the Rev. Harry Nelson Baasler, former pastor of the Second Reformed Church. Burial will be in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

BLAST SHOWS BURIED LOOT

Buc, July 17.—Following an explosion in a shed in which a man supposed to be F. Mayhew, Benwood, W. Va., was killed and Leonard K. Kelce, Benwood, injured, authorities found $22,000 in War Saving stamps and Liberty bonds believed to have been stolen from the bank at Nova, G., several nights ago. Kelce refused to talk and police do not know the cause of the explosion.

Fall Causes Death of Mechanicsburg Woman

MRS. MARY ELCOCK

Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 17.—Mrs. Mary Elcock, widow of Joseph Elcock, died early this morning at her home in South Market street, as the result of a fall about ten days ago, when she fractured her hip and knee. She was aged 90 years.

Mrs. Elcock, daughter of the late Peter and Mary Breneman, was born on a farm near Bowman'sdale on February 24, 1829. She was married to the late Joseph Elcock on January 1, 1852, and lived on a farm near Andersonstown, from which place they moved to Mount Pleasant, where Mr. Elcock engaged in mercantile business. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Elcock came to Mechanicsburg and the former became one of the pioneer dry goods merchants, and also was one of the founders of the Second National Bank.

A resident of Mechanicsburg the past 20 years, Mrs. Elcock lived in her present home, 208 South Market street, which was built by her husband when they came to this place. Of a family of four daughters, two are living—Mrs. S. F. Hauck, of Mechanicsburg, and Miss Anna F. Elcock, at home; also two stepdaughters, Mrs. Mary Biddle, of Mechanicsburg, and Mrs. David Myers, of near Mount Pleasant, York county; two stepsons, Jacob and John Elcock, in the West.

DEMENTED VETERAN HELD

Hagerstown, Md., July 17.—Escaping from a soldier's home at Johnson City, Tenn., Edward E. Doyle, of Scranton, Pa., is held in Hagerstown jail until the arrival of authorities from the home. Doyle appears to be demented. He was arrested at Shepherdstown, W. Va., and released, traveling here by freight, where he gave himself up.

MISREPRESENTED BRIDE'S AGE

Hagerstown, Md., July 18.—Because the bride was only 14 years old, James W. Mills, of Front Royal, Va., is in jail at Front Royal and will be brought here for trial. Mills represented the age of pretty Miss Evelyn Williamson, also Front Royal, as 21 years to the court clerk and secured the license. With the license secured the bride was married at the Baptist parsonage in Hagerstown by the Rev. W. J. Webb. To-day Sheriff Starliper received a telegram from E. J. Collins, the Front Royal sheriff, that James Mills was in jail.

30 SOLDIERS AT BLACKBURN HOME

Enjoyable Entertainment For Convalescents From Carlisle Hospital

Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 17.—Mrs. W. D. Blackburn and daughter Miss Margaret, of East Simpson street, entertained 30 convalescent soldiers from the United States General Army Hospital, No. 31, Carlisle yesterday afternoon at their home. There was an impromptu program and the time was pleasantly spent in an informal way. Before returning to the hospital, the veterans enjoyed a hot chicken dinner, with vegetables, and other home prepared dainties.

Just a week ago the soldiers enjoyed an outing on the large lawn at the Blackburn home, when entertainment was furnished by residents of the eastern section of town. Kittatinny Camp Fire girls and friends assisted Mrs. Blackburn and daughter yesterday. R. E. Rakestraw, proprietor of the ice cream factory, who always contributes ice cream for the soldiers, treated them again yesterday.
