Ghost in House After Loud Noise, Woman Says

Hagerstown, Md., July 23.—There was a ghost in the home of Mrs. George M. Spigler last night. At least Mrs. Spigler thought so. Neighbors said she was nervous and disturbed over the recent death of one of the family.

The incident happened in this wise: Mrs. Spigler and little Hilda Wooden were sitting on Mrs. Spigler's porch in West Side avenue. It was getting dark. Suddenly there was a loud noise from the house. They looked through the window and this is what Mrs. Spigler says she saw: A man dressed in a long white robe, with jet black hands and staring eyes, standing on the top of the steps near the room where an old man had died not long ago. Mrs. Spigler would not enter the house for some time.

WILL BUILD BIG GARAGE

Carlisle, Pa., July 23.—H. A. Lackey has been awarded the contract to erect a large garage for A. H. Murtoff and family. It will extend to the avenue of their large sales and show room and will be 228 feet by 153 feet with a 40 foot entrance. The building will have a concrete floor and will have a capacity of 100 cars.

INJURED BY FALL

Mount Wolf, Pa., July 23.—Wesley Lindsay, residing in the Druck valley, near here, was seriously injured on Monday afternoon, when he fell more than 20 feet from a ladder while repairing a chimney of the dwelling on the Amos Strickler farm, Hellam township. Lindsay is suffering from three fractures, ribs, severe contusions of the hip and probably internal injuries.

ATTEND SOCIAL LUNCHEON

York Haven, Pa., July 23.—Fifty members and guests attended the monthly social of the "23" club, in the park pavilion. Dancing and "500" were featured. There were guests present from Johnstown, Pa.; Pittsfield, Mass.; Asbury Park, N. J.; Harrisburg, York, Manchester and this place.

Square Dance to Come Back

Hagerstown, Md., July 23.—The square dance is to come back. Officials of Woody Park near this city will taboo the round dances, the waltz, the one-step and the fox, in favor of the old Virginia reels and other old fashioned dances. By a running team of fiddles, three banjos and two mandolins will make the music for the dances.

HORSE THROWS RIDER

York Springs, Pa., July 23.—Joseph A. Eckert, proprietor of the Hampton Hotel, near here, was seriously injured when thrown from a horse. The saddle of the saddle broke and the hotelman was thrown to the ground. The animal tramped on Eckert's body, injuring his spine. He was carried to his home nearby in an unconscious condition.

HAS SECOND ACCIDENT

Chambersburg, Pa., July 23.—After having just recovered the use of his right arm, which he broke two months ago in cranking his Ford, Prof. J. Beam Wingerd, of Falling Springs, is going about on crutches. While working in his barn, Prof. Wingerd stepped on a board from which two large nails protruded. The nails penetrated his foot.

7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

If Your Nerves Are Shaky Because of Over-Indulgence in Tobacco or Alcohol or by Excess of Any Kind, Bio-Feren is What You Need Right Away.

Don't grow old before your time, don't let nervousness wreck your happiness or chances in life. The man with strong, steady nerves is full of vigor, energy, ambition and confidence.

You can have nerves of steel, firm step, new courage and keen mind by putting your blood and nerves in first-class shape with mighty Bio-Feren, a new discovery, inexpensive and efficient.

Men and women who get up so tired in the morning that they have to drag themselves to their daily labor will in just a few days arise with clear mind, definite purpose and loads of ambition.

All you have to do is to take two Bio-Feren tablets after each meal and one at bedtime—7 a day for 7 days—then reduce to one after each meal until all are gone.

Then if your energy and endurance haven't doubled, if your mind isn't keener and eyes brighter, if you don't feel twice as ambitious as before, any druggist anywhere will return the purchase price—gladly and freely.

Bio-Feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, run-down, weak, anaemic men and women ever offered and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.
