Visiting the Shops With Adele

THE choice of pictures is a decidedly personal matter, for they ever reflect your taste and judgment. Ever the casual visitor may form his opinion of you through the pictures on your walls. Now it so happens that really good ones for the dining room are difficult to obtain. But the fact remains, that we can procure the right kind if we but try. At present, the "Tea and Coffee" picture is the one being shown at Saltzger's, 223 North Second street. Framed in rich mahogany with gilt lining, it is sure to enhance a dining room and even the most severe critic could find no fault. Incidentally it would make a wonderful gift.

DO you know that there is the biggest difference in the world between the common, upholstered furniture and that which you find at the J. Porter Harris & Son Shop, 221 North Second street? Well, there is. Ordinarily the cushions are filled with horse or cow hair springs, but in the fluffy English chairs and davenport exhibits, real down is used. No wonder they're so soft and sinky! So, of course, the wise person who is thinking of investing in just such pieces will go to the Harris Shop where he can select from a wide variety of beautiful patterns and coverings. And he will go at once, because he realizes the necessity for haste.

THE shoe question is indeed a distressing one at times. For in this day of increased prices we feel the necessity of obtaining only the best for our money. Naturally we resent paying a large sum for inferior footwear. Now there is one sure way to eliminate all danger of such a calamity. When in search for shoes, visit Paul's, 11 North Fourth street, the home of the Le Force shoe for women. There you are sure to find footwear that will last not only one season, but three or four. At present Mr. Paul is showing a section of white shoes, oxfords and pumps, with high and medium heels, that are guaranteed to give absolute comfort and satisfaction. YOU'd better buy that Palm Beach suit to-morrow. Some men have already bought two and three at this most successful of the three annual Palm Beach sales. And Saturday, the closing day, is sure to be a record-breaking one. You have never before seen so many suits of this hot-weather fabric as are being worn this year. That is because men are beginning to realize how utterly essential they are. As a result, they have flocked to Doutrich's in such numbers that there is going to be an absolute cleanup, with not one suit in stock at the close of the season. And, while $11.75 seems like an absolutely ridiculous price for which to sell $16 and $18 suits, it, nevertheless, assures the customer that Doutrich's dispose of everything and never begin a new season with anything but the freshest, newest of stock.

SUNSHINE IS BUSY IN SUMMER WORK

Children, Cripples and Shut-Ins Receive Assistance All the Year Round

There's no vacation time for the Harrisburg branch of the Sunshine Society for all the year round there is something for it to do. While many of the members are away for the summer, the committees have their work so arranged that the children, cripples and shut-ins are not neglected and there's always someone to give immediate help in case of necessity. Groups of six children are taking turns in two weeks vacations at Mangrove Gap, where the matron, Mrs. De-Gray, makes everyone feel quite at home. Most of these youngsters are ailing and the fresh country air and good food, do them worlds of good. Two little girls, one a cripple, have had their car fare and board paid for the summer with Gettysburg relatives who were willing to care for them, but unable to stand the extra expense. A crippled boy at Penbrook has received osteopathic treatment for some months and is rapidly improving. A deficient boy is given a quart of milk free every day by the Society and several families in need are furnished clothing, food and have small expenses paid to tide them over the summer. Free street car company are also given to children for outings in the parks. Several shut-ins and children have been taken for automobile rides and one very hardworking woman who has been overdoing, was persuaded to let several of her washings go for a time, and receives that equivalent in cash from Sunshine, believing that her health will be better and her earning capacity larger for a little rest. Sunshine always finds some way out to help the needy cases constantly brought before it. Miss Frederick E. Downes is the efficient president of the organization.

Miss Mabel Davies, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. S. Harvard Davies of 1318 Green street, is spending a vacation in Columbus, Sandusky and Lakeside, Ohio, visiting the family of D. J. Singleton of the Ohio Forge and Iron Company.

Miss Margaret W. McLain went to Carlisle to-day for a visit with Mrs. Thomas Moore. Miss Mary E. Rupp and Mrs. Eliza Elder of Camp Hill will visit Mrs. C. W. Dixon in Buffalo, N. Y. next week. Mr. and Mrs. John W. German, Jr., 2 Emerald street, will occupy their cottage at Mt. Gettys for the month of August.
