theatricals and vaudeville. Crowds lined the sidewalks to see the unique turnout and to hear the 100-piece band. It was some parade and the "Goats," who are the sales forces of the Elliott-Fisher Company, handed out something very original.

The procession formed in front of the Penn-Harris Hotel in Walnut street and followed the concert in Capitol Park by the combined band. There were in line upwards of 600, including the local factory forces of the Elliott-Fisher Company.

He-Goat Had Tails: The Chief He-Goat wore horns and was attired in a costume with long-tailed coat. The degree team wore special costumes. "Uncle Sam" was in the parade. Banners showed the various cities and districts represented and included several foreign countries which were the Elliott-Fisher machines are very much in evidence.

The procession wound up at the Chestnut Street Auditorium, where the amateur status here, but the program as announced last evening proved a scream. There were songs, dances, monologs and about everything seen on a vaudeville stage.

Five candidates were given the full ninety-six degrees required by the order. What happened is known to the candidates and those who witnessed the ceremonies. The ritualistic work was an impressive feature, not only the candidates but every member of the order receiving due notice of what his duties are and in the interest of the Elliott-Fisher Company will be.

The objects of the new order were explained and announcement made that this organization will convene in Harrisburg every year and that new members will be initiated annually. In the meantime, provisions have been made for local initiation to enable the new "goats" to fraternize until the time for the formal meeting.

Principal factors in the initiation were: G. F. Pusack, Detroit; G. S. Lukers, Indianapolis; L. H. Wolf, Pittsburgh; O. H. Cooke, Dallas; S. L. Magner, Evansville; J. S. Haines, South Bend; C. J. Latourette, San Francisco; O. B. Schiebel, Scranton; M. G. Clarke, New York; P. M. Greer, Freeport, Ill.; and Chief Bleater P. T. Shade, New York.

Auditor's Report: School district accounts for Derry township for the year ending July 1, show a balance of $22,444 according to the report filed at the prothonotary's office and approved by George E. Copenhaver and S. S. Blansburgh, auditors. Expenditures were $41,677.09 and receipts $41,699.23. The resources of the district total $127,678.44 and the liabilities are $21,250.

Lemoine A. C. Defeats Valley Railways Team

The Lemoine Athletic Club last evening defeated the Valley Railways by a score of 6 to 1. The game was well played by both teams. Enswiler, the star southpaw, was on the mound for the Lemoine team, fanning 13 men, while Beck pitched good ball for the Valley Railways, striking out 10 men. These teams will play quite a few games on the Lemoine field in the near future. This makes 34 victories for Lemoine. The Lemoine team will play the Steelton Stars on the Lemoine field to-night. It is expected that Forney will be on the mound for the home team.

Duncannon Plans to Welcome Its Fighters

Duncannon, Pa., July 25.—Duncannon is considering preliminary plans for a big celebration in behalf of the more than one hundred Duncannon men who served with the United States forces during the war.

The event will be three days in extent, Burgess F. E. Cook, who has instituted the project, has announced. It is expected it will take place on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, September 5, 6 and 7.

One other Perry county town, Liverpool, is also making plans for a soldier's celebration. This will be held as soon as the last soldier last returns home. There is but one more arrival in the army service.

PLANS WEEKEND CRUISE: By Associated Press. Washington, July 25.—President Wilson to-day was considering a weekend cruise on the yacht Mastflower, the weather being ideal for a voyage to Hampton Roads.
