SOLDIERS TO GET ROYAL WELCOME

Plan Big Reception For Returning Men From Overseas; Elaborate Program

Returning service men of the Harrisburg Division, Philadelphia and Reading Railway, will be given a reception in the Technical High School Auditorium next Tuesday evening at 8:15.

The program will include a welcome address by George O. Sarvis, assistant trainmaster, an address by Captain Harry Nelson, Basler, of the Twenty-eighth Division, who was chaplain of the old Eighth Regiment.

The majority of the service men who will be honored were members of the Four Hundred and Fourteenth Telegraph Battalion, which was a Philadelphia and Reading unit, commanded by Major M. A. Lauck, of this city, trainmaster of the Harrisburg division.

Eliminate All Minor Detentions, Is New Order

An analysis of passenger train detentions made by Harrisburg division officials discloses the fact that a large percentage of the trains reaching their destinations late are less than four minutes late.

Attention of trainmen is called to the fact that the elimination of one or more of these minor detentions will enable the trains to reach the destination on time and they are urged to reduce the number to the lowest possible minimum.

Must Keep Feet Off Seats, Middle Division Order

Passenger conductors and brakemen on the Middle Division have been requested by Superintendent J. Johnson to strictly enforce the rule prohibiting passengers from turning seats and then placing their feet on the opposite seat.

ANCIENT CHURCH TO WELCOME HOME WAR VETERANS

Knights of Columbus Will Spend Day in Buchanan Valley

W. W. WHALEN

Notices were received to-day by Knights of Columbus in Harrisburg and vicinity, calling attention to a big celebration to be held August 15 at St. Ignatius' Church, Buchanan Valley, Adams county.

The advance announcement sent out of the affair is unique. It says in part: "See our little cameo church. She has just celebrated her 102nd birthday, and time hasn't written a wrinkle in her placid brow."

Father Whalen, who is the present rector of the ancient church, said that August 15, the commemoration of the Assumption of Our Lady, will be a day of innocent religious disipation in Buchanan Valley.

"Ten miles from a railroad, five miles from a trolley car, thirteen miles from a movie house, and four miles from a garage, St. Ignatius' Church, of Buchanan Valley, Adams county, nevertheless continues, after the lapse of 102 years, to hold its congregation in its old yellow-painted structure, which shows no signs of decay, though it's hoary with the storms of hard winters.
