CHURCH WEDDING THIS MORNING

Miss Frances Pearson Dunlap Is the Bride of Vincent J. Schafmeister

The marriage of Miss Frances Pearson Dunlap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Dunlap, 2440 Reel street, and Vincent Joseph Schafmeister, son of Mrs. John Schafmeister, 2331 Logan street, was solemnized this morning at 10 o'clock in the Covenant Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Harvey Klaer officiating.

A profusion of summer flowers decorated the church. Miss Azalia Wigfield, of Steelton, played the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" as the professional and the Mendelssohn Wedding March as the recessional. The soft strains of "O, Promise Me" were heard throughout the ceremony in water colors and out the ceremony in water colors and out the ceremony in water colors.

The attractive young bride wore a beaded frock of white Georgette crepe and a feather-trimmed shower bouquet of crepe. She carried a shower bouquet of Victory blossoms and orchids.

Mrs. Roy D. Beman, who was matron of honor for her sister, was charming in a frock of blue Georgette crepe with picture hat of white. Her bouquet was of Madam Taft roses. Little Janet and Jean Beman, the flower girls, carried baskets of sweetheart roses. Samuel Segelbaum was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Schafmeister is a graduate of Central High School, class of 1917, and is a musician of considerable ability. She played the flute in the school orchestra, is a pianist, and also paints in water colors and does line drawings. While at High School, she was active in social circles and was girl cheer leader one football season.

After a wedding trip to Pittsburgh, Dayton and Cleveland, the young couple will be "at home" temporarily at 2440 Reel street.
