Advance Showing of Fall Millinery

Shall it be large hats, or small? Whatever your question, our advance showing of Fall Millinery answers all questions. Interesting and lovely are the new hats, rivaling each other in beauty. There are small turbans, with soft shirrings of velvet—so kind to the face—and much is made of ostrich as a trimming, for it not only has Paris endorsement, but is unequalled for charm of line and coloring.

Large velvet hats with colored facings. Soft velvet hats that adapt themselves to five different shapes, and the ever jaunty tams.

The Bowman quality is evident in every style touch and in the material and workmanship.
