

McMEEN GETS A NEW HEARING

Juniata County Will Go Before the State Board of Pardons Next Month

The State Board of Pardons has granted a rehearing to William Josiah McMeen, convicted of murder in Juniata county and sentenced to death in 1886, but granted commutation. Two applications for pardon have been refused by the board in years gone by. McMeen has been in prison since 1885.

During the hearing of cases two references were made to the fact that men had killed others for violating their homes which caused Attorney General Schaffner to ask if the attorney considered that reason for killing a man in Pennsylvania. He remarked to one that he did not. Both applications in which such grounds were advanced were refused.

Decisions announced were: Recommended—Frank Ingro, Clearfield, rape; Mike Regar, Cambria, rape; William Swine, Chester, burglary; T. W. Jackson, Elk, rape; Frank Skirion, Northampton, felonious assault; Matilda Jones, Philadelphia, larceny; John Lenhart, et al, Somerset, burglary; Arthur Harold Greaves, Lackawanna, embezzlement; L. H. Swanson, Centre, larceny.

Refused—Matthew Brogan, Lackawanna, second degree murder; Fenya Somerset, second degree murder; Tony Traficanti, Allegheny, second degree murder; Alfonso Giordano, Lackawanna, second degree murder; Omerigo Rogo, Lackawanna, perjury; Herman M. St. Clair, Delaware, adultery, etc.; John Schissler, Philadelphia, assault and battery; Samuel Bielden, Philadelphia, perjury.

Rehearings—Refused: Bessie Todd Amprazes, Adams, robbery house. Granted: William Josiah McMeen, first degree murder, commuted, Juniata.

All first degree murder cases were continued.

13,000 Muskrat Skins Sold For $2.12 Apiece; New Record Prices

The Pas, Manitoba, Sept. 18.—Thirteen thousand muskrat skins were sold at $2.12 apiece at a recent fur sale held at The Pas. This is the highest price muskrat ever brought and means that the muskrat-skin coats so popular in winter among women of moderate means will be much more expensive this season than they ever were before.

The following prices for other furs were paid at the sale: Silver fox, $255; white fox, $56; blue fox, $36; beaver, $22.66; mink, $32.25; martens, $42; mink, $14 lynx, $35; bear, $20; fisher, $80; red fox, $30; cross fox, $78. Most of these prices are higher than those of last year.

One of the surprising developments of the fur trade has been the increase of beaver skins now being thrown on the market. Beaver once filled the streams of Canada and in the palmy days of the Hudson Bay and Northwest companies were the country's chief source of wealth. They were trapped so extensively that only a few years ago they seemed threatened with extinction. Under protective laws, they have again become populous. Six hundred and twenty persons took out licenses to trap beaver last year. According to the report of Chief Game Guardian Barber, $30,000 was collected in hunting and trapping licenses in Manitoba.
