---a Word on Style Originality

Styles—acceptable styles—do not just happen. They're the result of much careful thought and deft planning on the part of skillful Fashion Designers.

Now, then— The more charming styles, of a natural course, originate among the more exclusive designers—those of New York and Paris, if you please!

And, incidentally, New York and Paris are the sources of MOST Cloos garments.

Mr. Baruch Will Display A Large Assortment Of Magnificent Furs At The Penn-Harris

Wednesday Evening, October 22 and Thursday, October 23, All Day and Evening

Mr. Baruch is a partner in a famous fur firm, a firm which has occupied a leading position in the business for many years. I have induced Mr. Baruch to come to Harrisburg only after many attempts. I believe that the women of Harrisburg will thank me after they have inspected his truly impressive assortment of merchandise.

Needless to say this city has never witnessed a display of furs which could approach Mr. Baruch's. Its total value will approximate $125,000.

An Evening Showing For the Benefit of Harrisburg Husbands

Purchasing furs is an investment requiring thought and judgment. I feel that the husbands should have a voice in the matter and consequently have arranged to have these furs displayed at the Penn-Harris on the evenings of October 22 and 23.

"Why at the Penn-Harris?" you ask. Well, I haven't room in my shop. And after all, that's to your advantage. My money is not tied up in a large stock—Mr. Baruch is an importer and maker—and so you purchase direct, thus saving a substantial per centage. Being held under the auspices of my shop, you also enjoy the same guarantee that is carried by any piece of merchandise I sell.

Remember, Wednesday evening, October 22, and Thursday all day and evening, October 23, at the Penn-Harris, in Parlor A, Ballroom floor.
