

The Day's News in Cities and Towns of Central Pennsylvania

ENOLA PLANS TO GREET SOLDIERS

Banquet Will Be in Charge of Railroad War Relief Branch

Enola, Pa., Oct. 22.—The members of the Pennsylvania Railroad War Relief, Enola branch, at a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last night, completed plans for active work here during the winter and arranged for the entertainment of the boys who will be on hand at the welcome home celebration on October 30.

Prominent Tyrone Man Is Instantly Killed; Hit on Head by Chain

Tyrone, Pa., Oct. 22.—While at work installing new machinery at the Colonial clay works at Dugan, Thomas Jefferson Gates, one of Tyrone's most prominent citizens, was struck on the head by a swinging chain and instantly killed.

Towns Plan Memorials in Honor of Soldiers

Marysville, Pa., Oct. 22.—Perry county boroughs are making plans to provide substantial memorials in honor of their service men and women. DuCanon has already contracted for an eight-ton marble monument with a bronze tablet.

Jury Returns Verdict After Long-Drawn Trial

Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 22.—After a week's legal battle over a triangular piece of land 12 feet wide at its base and about that long, a jury here returned a verdict against the Shamokin Manufacturing Company.

Art Lecture and Piano Recital on Irving Program

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—Miss Winifred Woods, of the Irving College faculty, will give a piano recital, assisted by Miss Emily Stuckey, who was overseas as a Y. M. C. A. entertainer.

Gun Kicks and Hunter Is Hurt Near Lewistown

Lewistown, Pa., Oct. 22.—When H. F. Arentz, of the Lewistown Narrows, shot at a squirrel his gun kicked so badly that Arentz was sent to the first aid station for repairs. He was trying out new shells.

York County Grower Buys Large Nursery

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Wickersham nursery, consisting of the farm and orchards, located about a mile east of Mechanicsburg, along the trolley line, was sold to John Cocklin, of Sidonsburg, York county.

ARE MARRIED HERE

Shiremanstown, Pa., Oct. 22.—Miss Anna Mary Bigler, oldest daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Bigler, of Green street, and Private Harry Franklin Renshaw, of Fort Sheridan, Ill., were quietly married on Friday, October 17, in Harrisburg.

THE POPULAR TABLE DRINK POSTUM is sold at the same fair price as before the war. This beverage is often preferred to coffee after trial for it is pure and wholesome. Better health to the coffee drinker usually follows the change from coffee to POSTUM. 'There's a Reason' Made by Postum Cereal Co. Battle Creek, Michigan. At Grocers

HIGH MALTS IN ANNUAL SESSION

Point to Laying of Cornerstone of Home at Granville as Big Achievement

Reading, Pa., Oct. 22.—The 36th annual convention of the Supreme Grand Commandery of the Continent of America, Ancient and Illustrious Order Knights of Malta, was opened at Malta Temple, Fourth and Court streets, with the supreme commandery going into session. John G. Miles, supreme commander, of Williamsburg, Pa., presided.

Squirrels Plentiful in Mifflin County Valleys

Lewistown, Pa., Oct. 22.—Hunters who crossed the mountains into Licking Creek and Black Log Valleys say the squirrel who did not get his limit on Monday knew nothing about hunting squirrel or was a bad shot. Many reported the limit before noon.

Union Men Pledge Loyalty to Strikers

Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 22.—Sunbury's union organizations, composed of members from all over the borough and in Northumberland county, met here yesterday and pledged moral and financial support to the striking employes of the Susquehanna Silk Mills and Sunbury Converting Works.

Hunter Shoots Deer; Warden Is Out For Him

Thompsontown, Pa., Oct. 22.—A dead deer found here, was shot out of pure malice, it is charged, as no one could possibly mistake a full grown deer for a squirrel, which is the only four-footed animal likely to come under the eyes of a hunter at this time.

Farmer Buys Property, Long Home of Brightbills

Anville, Pa., Oct. 22.—M. E. Brightbill sold his residence in East Main street to John A. Long, a prominent farmer and dairyman, of Anville township. This property adjoins Lebanon Valley College and has for years been occupied by the Brightbill family.

Seminary President to Conduct Pastor's Funeral

Greencastle, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Rev. Dr. J. C. Bowman, president of Lancaster Theological Seminary, will be in charge of the funeral services for the late Rev. Dr. I. N. Peichert to be held Wednesday in Grace Reformed Church. It is expected the majority of the ministers in Mercersburg Classis will attend the services.

Three Men in Auto Rob 11-Year-Old Boy

Manchester, Pa., Oct. 22.—Three men in a Ford automobile, evidently having started out to kidnap Dietz Keller, 11-year-old son of H. D. Keller, York, president of the York Wagon Gear Company, abandoned the attempt to kidnap here on Monday evening, shortly after 10 o'clock, and allowed the boy to go, after first taking from him his watch, cuffs, links and a small amount of money.

REBEL CAPS ARE GIVEN TO HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—John A. Wetzel, executor of the estate of Samuel A. Wetzel, late of Beaver-town, deceased, to-day presented to the Snyder County Historical Society five persimmon caps, together with a note in the handwriting of the judge, as follows: "These are rebel caps, taken from the Rebels or from Confederate supply train on the day Leo surrendered—this is a fact—on April 9, 1865. S. A. Wetzel." Caps and the note will be preserved.

SYNOD IS IN SESSION

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 22.—The Maryland Synod of the United Lutheran Church of America is holding its 100th convention in Boonsboro with 120 ministers and a number of lay delegates in attendance. The synod territory embraces Maryland, the District of Columbia and sections of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Virginia. The synod was organized in Winchester, Va., in 1820.

SLAYER MAKES ESCAPE

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 22.—All efforts so far to capture the one bandit who shot and killed Leo M. Creager, of Thurmont, a member of a posse, has resulted in an offer of $1,000 reward for the slayer, dead or alive, made by the county commissioners of Frederick county.

TOWN PLANS ITS MEMORIAL PARK

Elms and Oaks to Be Planted in Honor of Overseas Fighters

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—At a meeting of the Memorial Park committee at the home of J. J. Milleisen, burgess, the plan for the Memorial Park was brought before the members, as arranged by Karl E. Lohman, of the Bureau of Municipalities of the State, who was here during the summer and viewed the grounds. The plan was considered by the committee and the chairman was authorized to secure a surveyor, C. A. Bryan, to furnish the necessary lines and grades for the main avenue of the park, and to locate, according to the plan of Mr. Lohman, the places and distances of the trees.

Moulders Make Ready to Leave Waynesboro

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 22.—Judging from a statement made by one of the moulders, the members of the union, it looks as though the members of that organization are getting farther away from a settlement of the local question.

Woman Hurt in Fall in Cumberland Town

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—While driving away from a home in this place, where she had delivered a baby, Mrs. Peter Rice, who lives on the Shelley farm in Monroe township, met with a serious accident on Monday afternoon. One of the wheels of her dashboard truck ran over the shoulder of Mrs. Rice and in reaching to recover it Mrs. Rice was thrown out of the wagon.

Kills Biggest Black Bear in Union County

White Deer, Pa., Oct. 22.—The largest black bear ever seen in Union county was killed by Frederick Hagey, of this place. It weighed 250 pounds and was the first to be killed in Union county since 1865.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

Columbia, Pa., Oct. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob L. Bryson, of this place, to-day celebrated their golden wedding, having been married 50 years ago in Quarryville by the Rev. J. V. Eckert, then pastor of Trinity Reformed church, Columbia.

GIRLS WILL PARADE

Columbia, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Girls' Patriotic League of this place will compete in the fantastic parade in the Halloween celebration that is scheduled for returned soldiers which takes place the next day.

CHIEF OF POLICE

To protect the pavements from heat of the sun plant trees.

With False Teeth? SURE Dr. Wernet's Powder

Three Men in Auto Rob 11-Year-Old Boy

MANHATTAN SHIRTS FERRY'S, Penn-Harris Hotel Bldg. OPEN EVENINGS

Tells How Thin Folks Can Put on Flesh and Get Strong

Dr. Wernet's Powder. Keeps them firm. Prevents sore gums. White Flavored. Antiseptic. If your dental plate is loose or drops, to get instant relief use Dr. Wernet's Powder regularly. You can eat, laugh, talk with ease. Guaranteed by Wernet Dental Mfg. Co., 116 Beckman St., N. Y. 25c, 50c, & $1.00. At Drug and Department Stores. Refuse imitations. This is the original powder.

Bertha Mae Beates and Eloy F. Walters Marry

Elizabethtown, Pa., Oct. 22.—The marriage of Miss Bertha Mae Beates, daughter of Henry S. Beates, of Elizabethtown, and Eloy F. Walters, son of Herman Walters, of Mt. Joy, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Christ Lutheran Church, Elizabethtown, the Rev. Frank Crowman officiating. The young couple were attended by Miss Anna Line and Mr. Ellis Brubaker, of Denver, Pa. The bride wore a traveling suit of pean blue velour, with hat and veil to harmonize, and a corsage bouquet of bride's roses.

Liquor Dealers Want Part of License Fee Back

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—At a session of the Adams county argument court the matter of the liquor dealers of the county whose places of business were closed during a part of the time Camp Colt was located here being reimbursed for their license fees for that time was up for disposition. All of the dealers of the county affected by the order of the War Department, seven in Gettysburg and one in Hunterstown, presented petitions praying that $72.88 cents be returned to them.

Perry Hunters Have Poor Days at Opening

Marysville, Pa., Oct. 22.—Perry county hunters have not achieved much success during the early days of the hunting season, according to reports received here. Squirrels have been sought principally. Only in isolated cases have hunters been reported who bagged their limit in Perry's mountains and woods. In most cases these reports come from Blain and New Germantown in the vicinity of the State game lands.

Annville People Hear Returned Missionary Speak

Annville, Pa., Oct. 22.—Mrs. A. S. Kreider, Mrs. A. E. Shroyer, Mrs. S. O. Grimm, Mrs. H. H. Shenk, Mrs. J. E. Land, Mrs. Z. O. Light and Mrs. John Gallatin motored to Shaefferstown on Saturday, where they attended the woman's missionary convention of the United Brethren Church. The returned missionary, Miss Della Todd, is a returned missionary from Africa.

Store Closes Every Saturday at 6 P. M.

Shell's Schlemmer Stores 28-30-32 North Third Street.

Tomorrow and Friday

Two Important Days For Those Interested in Furs

Our Exhibit and Special Sale of Fur Coats, Scarfs and Muffs

under the personal direction of one of our manufacturing furriers who will have on display a most extensive assortment of the very finest select furs

At Our Store The Exhibit will open at 9.30 Thursday Morning.

PRINCIPALLY FEATURED ON THIS OCCASION WILL BE HUDSON SEAL COATS—SOME WITH BEAVER, LYNX OR SKUNK COLLARS, MOLE COATS, AND COATS OF SQUIRREL, BEAVER, NUTRIA, NATURAL MUSKRAT AND MARMOT.

TOGETHER WITH SCARFS AND MUFFS OF THE MOST FAVORED FURS AND IN THE CORRECT FASHIONS.

THE importance of this event to you will be appreciated when you see the collection of furs. It is not practical for us to carry in stock such a vast line, therefore, we have this exhibit for you, providing as it does, an opportunity that seldom occurs, considering as you must, its size and scope.

We believe there are many women who have anxiously awaited an occasion of this sort and hence we feel certain that they will be more than pleased with not only the furs, but with the attractive prices at which we shall offer them.

Bear in mind that the quality and fashion of these furs are in line with our regular standard of excellence, which of course you expect.

PARTY MEN FORM ROOSEVELT CLUB

Mifflin Republicans Meet and Endorse the County Ticket Named at Primaries

Lewistown, Pa., Oct. 22.—At an enthusiastic meeting of nearly 100 Republicans from nearly all the election districts of Mifflin county held last night in the building of the Mifflin County Hardware Company, the Roosevelt Republican Club of Mifflin county was organized. The objects of the club are to promote the welfare and interests of the party of Lincoln Grant, Roosevelt and Taft and to promote sociability among the rank and file of the party.

State's Poor Directors in Session at Butler

Butler, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Association of Directors of the Poor and Charities and Corrections of Pennsylvania discussed codification of the poor laws of the State and duties of solicitors at the session of the annual convention here yesterday. William K. West, Danville, had charge of the program. Speakers included G. B. Jefferies, Uniontown; H. A. Jones, Washington; H. R. Fries, Philadelphia; Dr. H. J. Sommers, superintendent of the Blair County Hospital for the Insane; Dr. J. I. Johnston, University of Pittsburgh; Dr. C. R. McKinnie, Torrance, and K. L. Pray, Philadelphia.

Dauphin's Red Cross Prepares For Drive

Dauphin, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Dauphin branch of the Red Cross held a meeting at the home of the chairman, Miss Clara Bergtresser, to make arrangements for the drive for membership commencing November 11. The chairman and secretary, Miss Clara Bergtresser and Miss Anne R. Miller, resigning, Miss Elizabeth Poffenberger was elected chairman and Mrs. Clyde McNeely secretary. All the other officers were re-elected.

Sure Relief BELL-ANS FOR INDIGESTION

Get your neighborhood interested in tree planting. Boost and plant a tree on Arbor Day.

Thousands Expected at Nation's Farm Congress

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 22.—Thousands of visitors, including prominent agriculturists from all parts of the country, are expected here next week to attend the annual Farmers' National Congress, which will convene on Monday. The convention will be staged on a large scale and some of the leading men of the country will be present to deliver addresses, including John Barrett, director of the Pan-American Union; Dr. T. A. LeBreton, United States Senator Thomas Sterling, of South Dakota; Governor William C. Shryver, of Pennsylvania; Governor E. C. Harrington, of Maryland; Governor John J. Cornwall, of West Virginia; Hon. William A. Macrea, commissioner of Agriculture of Florida, and others. J. H. Kimble, of Port Deposit, Md., is president of the congress.

ROBBED OF $100

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 22.—E. L. Rider reports having been held up about 2 o'clock in the morning by two highwaymen in the western section of the city and being robbed of his wallet, containing $100.

RETIRED FARMER TAKEN BY DEATH

Jacob S. Lehman Dies at Son's Home After Brief Illness, Aged 75

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—Jacob S. Lehman, a retired farmer died Monday evening after a week's illness, due to a general breakdown, at the home of his son Joseph O. Lehman, in North Middleton township, near Bellaire Park. He was aged 75 years and a member of the Brethren in Christ Church, Mr. Lehman was formerly from Franklin county. He is survived by six sons, as follows: Joseph O., with whom he lived; Jacob Lehman and Isaac Lehman, both missionaries in Johannesburg, South Africa; Amos of Steelton; David, of Sidonsburg, York county; and Abram, of Atlanta, Ga.; also a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Musser, of Chambersburg; a brother the Rev. Joseph Lehman, of Lancaster, and 34 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. The funeral service will be held at the home of his son on Friday morning, at 9 o'clock, with further service at the Cross Roads Church, Lancaster county, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Burial will be made in the adjoining cemetery.

See the Window Demonstration of Our New Lens Grinding Machine. We are now equipped to grind our own lenses. When you break your glasses let us duplicate them. You won't have to wait 2 or 3 days. Several hours is all that is required to replace any lens. P. J. BAUMGARDNER Registered Optometrist With The P.N. Caplan Co. 206 MARKET STREET