GOOD NEWS Prices Have Tumbled You're Glad--So Are We

It surely is a pleasure to us to say to you: "Prices have taken a drop." No doubt high prices compelled you to postpone buying your Fall and Winter outfit, now you can come to our shop and expect to secure beautiful garments at prices that will remind you of old times.

We were not caught with large stocks when the present slump came—in fact we have been waiting for the present slump in prices and that we have not been disappointed is clearly demonstrated that we have been making some splendid purchases at 25 per cent. and 33 1-3 per cent. off of former prices and we in turn intend handing these big savings down to you—combined with our low operating expense, which enables us to mark all stocks at a close margin of profit. You can now purchase stunning Suits, Coats, Dresses, etc., at prices that will remind you of old times.

We could mention here prices and descriptions of garments and you would marvel at the price savings—but it is a better plan for you to come and see with your own eyes the truly wonderful savings on newest Fall and Winter outer garments.

Courteous saleswomen are here to serve you and not to urge you. Come to our shop—look around—you surely will be welcome—and remember we purchase no goods for sale purposes—every garment must be perfect, no job lots, no seconds, no surplus stocks, in short you can shop here in perfect safety.

Visiting the Shops with Adele

"Junior needs a new pair of shoes!" exclaimed Mother. He has been wearing his little Oxfords all autumn because I did want him to wear them out. Next spring they'll be too small. Well, why don't you buy him a pair? queried Father. "There's nothing to hinder you. Only he sure to take him to the Army and Navy Shoe Store, Court street. They carry the best footwear for little tads I've ever seen. Tiny shoes, just like Dad's, in nice, sensible shapes, you know. Then, too, the leather is of the highest quality, just the kind for Junior to kick around in to his heart's content."

I REMEMBER reading an article on gift-giving a number of years ago. The writer, a woman of limited means, was fumed among her friends for her delightful gifts. Upon request, she was telling the secret of her unusual ability to please. One thing upon which she laid particular emphasis was that the gift be both beautiful, appropriate and different. She said that frequently her search for the unusual led her to obscure little curio shops in the city's worst districts. Fortunately for us, Saltzger's Art and Antique Store, 223 North Second street, makes such excursions unnecessary. There one can always find distinctive gifts. At present great interest is centered on the imported Italian plaques of carved wood, in polychrome colors, with old Italian paintings, that Mr. Saltzger recently received.

IF I were a housewife in this servile age, I'd surely run my home by electricity. Hundreds of electric labor-saving devices are on the market, many of them expensive, most of them practical and all of them worth investigating. At the Dauphin Electrical Supplies Company, 434 Market street, one finds appliances of every description and sort, from ovenettes to electric cleaners, all calculated to lighten work, preserve health and make the home ideally pleasant. Take, for instance, the Hotpoint vacuum cleaner, made of steel with air-cooled motor, self-adjusting stationary brush and rubber-tired rollers. Light of weight, efficient and economical, it cleans thoroughly, conserves energy and proves a blessing wherever it goes.

HOME WEDDING SUNDAY EVENING

Miss Lillian Wilensky and Abe Schneider Married With Orthodox Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wilensky, of 1543 Susquehanna street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lillian Wilensky to Abe Schneider, of Cleveland, Ohio. The ceremony took place Sunday afternoon, November 2, at 6 o'clock at the bride's home, with Rabbi Rochman, of the Chisuk Emunah synagogue officiating with the Orthodox Jewish rites.

The house was decorated with autumn flowers and after the service a wedding supper was served. The bride wore a smart visiting costume of peach-bloom cloth with moleskin furs and hat to harmonize. Before leaving for their wedding trip, the young couple was serenaded by people of the neighborhood. They will make their home in Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Schneider is a real estate broker. The bride, who has a wide circle of friends in this vicinity is gifted in a literary way and has published a number of essays and clever bits of verse.

Among the wedding guests were: Edwin Wilensky and Bonnie Wilensky of New York; Jack Mills, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. David Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sherman, David Wilensky, Mrs. S. Katzman and Irving H. Mills and family of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherman, Mrs. M. Katzman, Mrs. Lena Katz, Mr. and Mrs. L. Donovitz, Mr. and Mrs. L. Kline, Miss Tillie Kline, Mrs. S. Baturin and son, Mr. and Mrs. Hecker, Ruben Sherman, David Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Sherman.

Congratulatory telegrams were received from Mr. and Mrs. R. Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nitzberg, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Dora Wilensky, of New York; Mrs. Annie West, of New York; Mrs. Sophia Mills, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Weiner, of Pottsville, and Miss Gertrude Weiner, of Pottsville.

Miss Jean Throne, of 112 Boas street, has gone to Birmingham, Alabama, to spend several weeks among relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Lappley went home to Brooklyn this morning after a week's stay with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Carson B. Morton, of Penn. street.

Harry S. Sellers, 17 Pine street, Steelton, to-day announced the marriage of his sister, Miss Nell M. Sellers, former yeomanette in the U. S. Navy, to Commander William Alden Hall, U. S. N. The wedding occurred at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, November 1 in the Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, Columbia Road, Washington, D. C. Both Commander Hall and his bride were assigned to duty in the National Capitol during the war.

The only attendants at the wedding were Mrs. Kate Francis Pauling and Commander Stephen Dougherty, U. S. N. The bride wore a dark blue tailored tulle suit, black Panama velvet hat with black and white bouquet of orchids and sweetheart roses. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James S. Montgomery, Commander of the Calvary Church, at the Hotel Powhattan, Washington, D. C., until November 15 when the former will be detached from the Bureau of Navigation to take command of the Destroyer U. S. S. Lansdale. They will spend two weeks in Atlantic City and New York and will attend the Army-Navy football game on November 25.

Commander Hall, whose home is in North Easton, Mass., was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy in 1906. His first assignment was the U. S. S. Kearsarge on which ship he made the trip around the world with the battleship fleet. He has since served on the Maine, U. S. S. Culgoa, U. S. S. Vermont, Destroyer Walker. He spent two years as an instructor at the U. S. S. Naval Academy and served three years on the United States supply station ship at Guam, M. I., for the past two years he has been in the Bureau of Navigation, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Hall is well known in Harrisburg and Steelton, where she has a home of 1817 Park street, to which she has recently moved. She was assigned to duty in the Navy Department, Washington, D. C.

At a meeting of the Junior Aid Society held at the home of Miss Winifred Meyers, 213 North Front street, officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Miss Alice Virginia Cooper; vice-president, Miss Elizabeth Shearer; secretary, Miss Mary Cooper; treasurer, Miss Eleanor Bailey.

Four new members were also elected. They are Miss Janet Ensign, Miss Mary Estelle Thomas, Miss Mary Duncan and Miss Beattie Bricker. The sum of $74 was pledged for the support of two French war orphans. Plans were discussed for a bazaar to be held at Thanksgiving in the Civic Club. The members present at the meeting were the Misses Sarah Bailey, Eleanor Bailey, Virginia Bishop, Christine Brandt, Mary Cooper, Alice Virginia Cooper, Harriet Gilbert, Mary Louise Hubley, Avis Ann Heckok, Sarah Hamer, Margaret Reister, Thelma Kuhn, Katherine Meredith, Helena Martin, Winifred Meyers, Betty Oenslager, Katherine Rutherford, Elizabeth Shearer, Louise Nisley, Bettina Stine, Ruth Dowell.

The primary department of Covenant Presbyterian Sunday School, Fifth and Peffer streets will hold a Tom Thumb Wedding at Covenant, November 7. Seventy-five children between the age of 3 and 10 years will participate, including the grandparents and parents of both the bride and bridegroom, the old maid aunt, the ushers, bridesmaids, maid of honor, ring bearer, and the bride and bridegroom, Janet Beman and Vance Smith, respectively. A nominal charge will be made for this most interesting and amusing entertainment.

Mrs. James B. Cann, of Bryn Mawr, a former resident of the city, is visiting Mrs. John C. Kunkel, Jr., at 11 South Front street. Miss Sara Elizabeth Gaines, of Lynchburg, is stopping for a while with her sister, Mrs. Charles F. Lehman, of State street. Mrs. Lewis W. Randall, of Clifton, N. J., is visiting Dr. and Mrs. W. Spry Hurlock, North Front street. Mr. and Mrs. Emory Bender went home to Philadelphia to-day after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harper F. Long, of North Third street. Miss Kathleen Hartman, of Pittsburgh, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James F. Gager, Market street. Walter D. Fairley, of Philadelphia, is town for a short stay among relatives in the vicinity. Miss Hazel Weitzel went home to Syracuse, N. Y., to-day after spending a fortnight with her aunt, Mrs. Karl B. White, of North Third street.

DINNER PREPARED BY THE STUDENTS

School Officials Entertained by Domestic Science Department

A tour of inspection of the Camp Curtin Junior High School was made yesterday by Dr. F. E. Downes, superintendent of city schools, D. D. Hammelbaugh, secretary of the School Board and Christian Nauss, superintendent of buildings, with the following members of the Board of Directors: Robert A. Enders, president; A. Carson Stamm, Cameron Bacr, George A. Werner, W. Frank Witman.

Dinner was served in the Domestic Science Kitchen where the tables were arranged with Burlington baskets of dahlias and autumn leaves with bouquets of sweet-heart rosebuds.

The dinner was prepared by the students of the Domestic Science Department, under the direction of Miss Frances Hamilton and Miss Marie Finton. The table arrangements illustrated the use of the various flat pieces of silver and dishes suitable for dinner service. This is one of the courses of instruction in domestic science.

After dinner several hours were spent in a visit of the classrooms and Manual Arts Departments.

Frolaset CORSETS How Do You Select Your Corset? Corsets may look very much alike, but there is a great difference in the way they shape and mould the figure. To be fitted is the correct way to select your FROLASET, for then there is no guess-work. You are assured of securing the model adapted to your figure needs. When properly fitted in a FROLASET, your figure line is continuous without any semblance of a ridge at either the top or bottom of the corset. The front lines as well as the back lines are so graceful. The Designing of the lower back is a more slender appearance.
