Marry in the Manse of Old Paxton Church

The marriage of Miss Anna Cubbin, of 45 North Sixteenth street, to Laurer Reed Bock, of this city, was a quiet event of last evening at the manse of the Paxton Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Harry B. King, officiating, using the ring ser- vice. The marriage was scheduled for to-day, but to elude some fun- loving friends they had the cere- mony performed a little earlier. Following a brief wedding trip to Philadelphia and Baltimore, Mr and Mrs. Bock will be "at home" af- ter November 15 at 45 North Six- teenth street. Mrs. Bock for the past several years has been employed in the office of inspector of engineering man- ufacture for the United States Navy, under Lieutenant Commander G. W. Danforth. Mr. Bock is a machinist for the Pennsylvania Railroad Com- pany.

Dauphin Co. Club Dance Thanksgiving Week

The Dauphin County Republican Club will hold its first dance in Win- terdale Hall on Monday evening, No- vember 24. Music will be furnished by the Sourbier and Meyers Synco- pated Jazz Orchestra. The com- mittee in charge of the dance is composed of Charles A. Brenner, Herman Deitz and Julius Yoffe. This club, which has been organ- ized only about two months, is com- posed of young men who have re- turned from service. The member- ship has reached the 300 mark. Its main purpose is to further the ideals of the Republican party and to work for civic betterment.

Official Count Is Begun at Noon Today

Official count of the general election votes began at noon to-day in Court- room No. 1 with Judges S. J. M. Mc- Carrell presiding, and Attorneys Harvey E. Knapp and B. Frank Nead, com- puting the votes. If possible the tabu- lation will be completed this week as a special session of criminal court will begin next Monday. Political leaders to-day said they did not believe the of- ficial count would make any changes in the unofficial returns and friends of Howard O. Wertz reiterated their statements that he won over Harry C. Wells for the minority county com- missioner post by a safe majority.

Divorce Granted

The court today signed a divorce decree in the case of Besse A. vs. John P. Lynch. Cruel treatment was al- leged.

ROBISON-SCOTT CHURCH BRIDAL

Ceremony Will Be Followed by Reception in Civic Club House This Evening

The marriage of Miss Lena Meta Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Linford Scott, of 802 North Seventeenth street, to Harold Kline Robison, will be an event of this evening, the ceremony taking place in the Pine Street Presbyterian Church at 8.30 o'clock, followed by a reception of the Civic Club. Of- ficiating will be the Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Ellis N. Kremer, of the Reformed Salem Church. Decorations of palms, autumn foliage and yellow chrysanthemums, will be used at both the church and Civic Club, making a lovely setting for the bridal party with the girls wearing frocks in pale rainbow tints. Frank A. McCarell will play the wedding music, giving a half hour's recital of classics prior to the cere- mony. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has chosen a wedding gown of white satin with garnitures of pearls and court train of Georgette crepe. Her tulle veil will include a pearl Russian in- dian headdress and she will carry a prayerbook with shower of bios- soms. In Bridal Party Miss Laura Dusef, of Richmond, Va., as maid of honor, will wear wistaria Georgette over silver cloth, carrying a sheaf of lavender chrys- anthemums with pink snapdragons; the bridesmaids, Miss Katharine Keene, of Madison, Wisconsin, in yellow Georgette; Miss Rebecca Stewart, of Goucher College, Balti- more, in pink Georgette, and Mrs. Tunis B. Davis, of East Milstone, N. J., in green Georgette with trimmings of point d'esprit and satin, will wear short tulle veils and silver slippers and carry fans with show- ers of ribbons and sweetheart roses. The best man will be Tunis B. Davis, of New Jersey, and the ushers include Walter Sohn, John A. F. Hall, of Harrisburg, and Paul C. Wagner, of Philadelphia. Little Miss Lucille Olmsted as flower girl will wear a frock of white organdie and carry a basket of flowers, while lit- tle Clarence Miller as page will wear a black satin suit and also strew flowers before the bride. After the reception at the Civic Club the newlyweds will start for their wedding journey, which will end in a residence in Queen's Lane, a suburb of Philadelphia. Miss Scott is a graduate of Cen- tral High School, class of 1917, and has a w.de acquaintance throughout this vicinity. Mr. Robison is a son of William M. Robison, head of the Insurance Company of North America, in this district. He is a graduate of Frank- lin and Marshall College and is con- nected with the central offices of the same company in Philadelphia. Common-Sense For Corns, "Gets-It"

The Great Painless Corn Loos- ener. Simple as A B C. Never Fails. If you have ever tried to get rid of a corn by bundling up your toe with bandages, or by using salve that made your toe red and almost raw, or tried to drag your corn out with a knife, there will be a sur- prise waiting for you when you use "Gets-It." Imagine peeling your corn off gloriously, easily and painless- ly, just like peeling off a banana skin. Well, that is what happens when you use "Gets-It." There is nothing else that will give you this same result. Millions of folks have had the same blessed experience. Why putter and suffer, limp and spoil a good time for yourself and your friends, or your peace of mind while trying to attend to business? Use "Gets-It," the simple common sense way. "Gets-It," the only sure, guaran- teed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'd. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.
