20% Reduction On All Waists and Blouses During Blouse Week

The week of November 10th to 15th is Blouse Week and in all four of the Cloos Stores it will be celebrated by a general 20 per cent reduction on all Waists and Blouses. The charming daintiness of Cloos Waists and Blouses is so familiar to all we need say nothing of that here since they're the criterion by which values are judged.

Sheer, filmy creations in the most delicate tints and tones. Beaded and silk embroidered are both here in Georgette and Crepe de Chine, done in White, Creme, Navy, Black and many, many new shades of the more popular Browns.

Sizes range from 36 to 46—but best of all, each and every one of these delightful feminine creations are marked to be sold at 20 per cent. less than its former price.

STATE MEETING OF D. A. R. BEGINS

Twenty-Third Annual Conference This Week in Pittsburgh

Delegates from Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution elected to the 23rd annual State conference in Pittsburgh this week, were: Miss Cora Lee Snyder, president; alternate, Mrs. Joseph A. Thompson; Mrs. Anna Hamilton Wood, who is State secretary; Mrs. Alvin L. Miller, Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle, Mrs. Samuel S. Shope and Mrs. John A. Sherer.

Harrisburg was hostess for the convention last January at the largest meeting the State has ever held. These sessions will be held in the new William Penn Hotel, of Pittsburgh, with Mrs. Antony W. Cook, president, presiding. The keynote of the conference is "Participation" and this with Patriotic Education will be the theme of addresses and discussions.

Mrs. Harold R. Howell, of Des Moines, Iowa, a vice-president general of the National organization, is chairman of the National committee, with each State regent acting for her State and each chapter regent heading the work of her own chapter. The work will be carried out much as the D. A. R. Work Relief was done, by bulletin orders from headquarters.

With Patriotic Rally There will be a big patriotic meeting to-night with demonstration work along this line by children and girls clubs. To-morrow morning at the first formal session, Dr. George P. Donohoe, secretary of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission on War Memorials in Pennsylvania, will speak as will also, Mrs. John Lahlaw Suell, State regent of Connecticut. Miss Florence Dibert, president of the Federated Women's Clubs of Pennsylvania; Miss Olive C. Gibson, of the Schaeffer Missionary Training School, and Miss Martha Berry, of the Berry Schools of Georgia, will address the conference on other days.

Among the social events will be a tea by a member of the Pittsburgh Chapter. Wednesday evening the Pittsburgh Chapter will be hostess a reception in the 20th Century Club for delegates and visiting daughters. Thursday afternoon a tablet will be unveiled at the Fort Pitt Blockhouse and Thursday evening a banquet will be held in the ballroom of the William Penn hotel for the conference and their guests.

A State regent will be elected at this time, with two candidates for the office—Mrs. Edwin E. Sparks, wife of the president of State College and Mrs. Grant Driesbach, of Lewisburg, now State vice-regent. Both are prominent clubwomen and have been leading war activities in their own districts. Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, retiring regent will be endorsed by the conference as vice-president general for Pennsylvania in the National society, to be elected at the National Congress in Washington next April.

First Meeting of Y. W. C. A. Mission Study Class

The first meeting of the inter-denominational Mission Study Class being organized at the Y. W. C. A., under the direction of the committee on religious work, will be held this evening in John Y. Hall, at 7:30 o'clock, when registration for the class should be made.

The instructor will be Miss Ruth B. Comb, of the Philadelphia Board of Foreign Missions. The outstanding book for the year's study in foreign missions "The Crusade of Compassion" will be studied. This book tells of the medical work in the Orient. The study will cover five lessons.

BEGIN PLANS FOR OPERETTA

Sunshine Society Appoints Committee at Meeting Today

An interesting and important meeting of the Roberta Disbrow Lloyd Sunshine Society was held this afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, in John Y. Boyd Hall of the Y. W. C. A., with Mrs. Frederick E. Downes, president, presiding.

Reports on the favorable condition of cripples operated on by Dr. Rhue, of Philadelphia, were made and committees and chaperons appointed for the operetta "Cinderella" to be given under the direction of the society early in December. Mrs. June L. Lake, director, will arrive Wednesday to begin practices for this event which is eagerly anticipated by those who saw the former productions staged by her in this city.

"Cinderella" is woven around a pretty, fairy tale theme and many small children will be used in the production. The children who have taken part in the operettas previously given have been invited to report to Chestnut Street Hall at school Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Lake will meet them and make plans for rehearsals. Members of the society have also been invited to greet Mrs. Lake at that time.

YOUR EYES ARE PROTECTED BY LAW

There has been so much injury done by itinerant and incompetent that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and other states have passed strict laws regulating the practice of examining eyes and fitting of eye glasses. If the State finds it necessary to protect your eyes, don't you think you should have enough self interest to consult only optometrists of known ability and reputation?

A Fictitious Goal

Psychologists often refer to a quality in human nature, which they refer to as "setting a fictitious goal." They use this phrase in describing persons who set a standard impossible of achievement in order to excuse themselves from making any effort at all. If, for example, I had said to myself:

"When I have enough money I'll start a great department store in Harrisburg," of course I'd never have started in business at all.

Not size but value: that was my aspiration and there was nothing fictitious about it. I may not be able to run the LARGEST store, but I can certainly give VALUES as good as, or better than, any other. That's just a matter of keen buying—good management and the resolution to operate on as close a mark-up as is possible.

And by thus limiting my ambition I have been able to achieve this goal.
