

NAVAL PREPARATORY SCHOOL ELEVEN PLAY HERE TOMORROW---AFTER TECH'S SCALP

LAST BATTLE FOR BUCKNELL TEAM

Play at Carlisle on Thanksgiving Day; Lauster in Lineup

Lewisburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Bucknell will close the most successful football season experienced in the last decade when its gridiron warriors clash with Dickinson, at Carlisle, on Thanksgiving Day. The annual contest between these institutions has become a fixture on both schedules, being played alternately at Carlisle and Lewisburg on Turkey Day.

Although Bucknell will enter the fray with a decided advantage in comparative experience, the Dickinsonians are regarded here with considerable esteem. The Orange and Blue has downed Gettysburg 17 to 0, while the Battlefield collegians won from Dickinson 7 to 0. On that basis, Coach Reynolds' men should push over a victory next Thursday.

There is no indication of a shake-up, at present, in the Bucknellian lineup. Coach Reynolds has put Lauster, the lineman, who formerly played with Harrisburg Tech, at right guard in Rosenbloom's place. Rosenbloom suffered a wrenched ankle in the Gettysburg fracas, and he is on crutches for the remainder of the season. That is the only change expected, providing no other regulars are hurt in the few remaining days of practice.

Basketball practice was started this week. Following a call issued by Captain Townsend, more than 30 aspirants for the five have started their season's work. The schedule will contain more than 25 games, and by far the most attractive arranged for a Bucknell basketball season in recent years.

EDISON READY FOR HARD GAME

Meet Mechanicsburg Tomorrow; Anxious to Win Last Out-of-Town Game

"Shorty" Miller, coach, is rapidly rounding out the Edison squad for Saturday's game at Mechanicsburg. Since several of the players are able to go over by auto the coach has about arranged plans whereby he can take the entire squad with him. The team realizes that the game next Wednesday is the important event but also want to put up a good game at Mechanicsburg tomorrow.

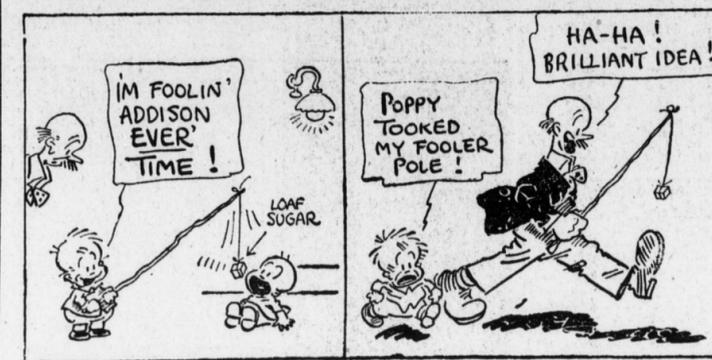

The spirit of the school is being aroused and it is expected that a large number of rooters will follow the team Saturday.

Team in Good Shape
The entire squad were put through a light signal and scrimmage practice last evening. The men are in good shape for the game and will make Mechanicsburg play hard for any points they may make. The game will likely start with the following lineup on each side.

MECHANICSBURG Edison

WILLARD WANTS ANOTHER FIGHT

May Meet Fred Fulton in the East Before New Year

New York, Nov. 21.—Jess Willard, ex-champion, and Fred Fulton, the ponderous plasterer of Rochester, Minn., probably will be exchanging swings in this vicinity shortly after the first of the year. The ponderous plasterer will arrive from London by train on Saturday.

Willard is uttering plaintive means from Lawrence, Kan., to have another chance to kiss the canvas and last but not least, he would like to look at the next season's boxing bill to permit twelve-rounds to decision.

The combination of these three circumstances points to the bout. Some of those who seem to have the inside on solons and boxers are willing to assert already that New Yorkers will have to lock the city gates and throw out barbed wire entanglements to keep the match away.

Rickard is Busy
Tex Rickard, who promoted some of the biggest prize fights of late years, has been making a few coy references to the possibilities of a Fulton-Willard match. It is more than probable that Rickard will do a little promoting around New York when boxing is restored, in addition to his work as matchmaker for the International Sporting Club, of New York.

But there are a few others who are trying to bring Fulton and Willard together. Dave Dempsey, the Jersey impresario, will be at the dock to greet the boxer. David has an army and everything and would not like to wait until next year to promote a boxing bout. Dempsey also would like to match Fulton again with Jack Dempsey.

When this proposal was made to Jack Kearn, the manager of Dempsey, he flicked a perfumed handkerchief and said: "If Dempsey ever lays eyes on Fulton again he will knock him out without any formalities of matchmaking." But in these days of conservative business such things are not done. No prize fighter of to-day would waste a possible fifty thousand dollar wallop on the desert air or the room air—which is the same thing at the current writing.

MIDDLETOWN WANTS GAME
The Middletown Juniors basketball team has organized and is ready for games with teams averaging in age 15 years and weight 115 pounds. Games out of town are wanted. All teams desiring a game communicate with Donald N. McCord, 429 North Union St., Middletown.

TECH HAS HARD GAME IN TAKING ON NAVY SCHOOL; CONFLICT ON LATER DATE

Tech High will meet the Naval Preparatory School of Washington, D. C., tomorrow afternoon at Island Park. Steelton will be the Thanksgiving Day attraction, and Erie High School has been scheduled for Saturday, November 29. The latter date is also claimed by the American Legion for the Army-Navy battle. A double-header has been suggested, but this is out of the question.

P. L. Grubb, faculty athletic director, will confer to-day with the American Legion managers. Football fans are anxious to see Tech in the big championship game and also look to the Army-Navy game as a good attraction. There will be a satisfactory adjustment is the general belief.

The Naval Preparatory school of Washington, D. C., comes with a record of not having been scored on this season and should give Tech a hard battle. They claim that they are unable to secure games with the Southern Reserve school because of their own strength. In addition, at 1:30 there will be another battle between the Melrose team and the Tech reserves. These two teams battle several times a week, one hour and at the end of that time the Reserves had made one touch-

LEGION BOOSTERS CALL PLAYERS

Army-Navy Candidates to Meet Saturday Afternoon at Local Y. M. C. A.

Plans for the Army-Navy game in Harrisburg, Saturday, November 29, at Island Park, will be completed to-morrow afternoon. A meeting will be held in the Central Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at 1:30 p. m. It is urged that all prospective candidates for both the Army and Navy teams met with Charles W. Thomas and Josiah Wilbur, of the American Legion at that time.

After all the candidates have been listed the two teams will elect captains and plan for practice. Complete details will be announced at this meeting. The local men in charge desire all soldiers who played football abroad, and Navy men who played football during their service, to join in this big event. Names handed in to date include:

Some Stars on List
Bennett, Gill, Schreck, Warner, Siler, Carmichael, Henderson, Reagan, Chubb, Wolfe, Gibson, Taggart, Kilhofer, Cook, Schlichter, Jerry Frock, Mutch, Eddie Harris, Dick Gregory, Clarence Beck, "Bones" Boss, who will be on the Navy team. There will be others. If it is impossible for the Navy to get a complete lineup they will be given an opportunity to take on other players. However, it is the belief there will be twenty candidates for each squad. The meeting scheduled for to-morrow will be over in time for the game at Island Park. Those who cannot be present are requested to send in their names.

Manager of Texas Baylor Praises Local Fight Fans; Compliments Joe Barrett

Texas Baylor, who broke a bone in his hand during a fight with Johnny Gill at the last Steelton show, is improving and hopes to be able to resume his engagements within two weeks. He is anxious to get another chance at Johnny Gill. In a letter to the Harrisburg Telegraph his manager, J. E. Cain, has the following to say:

"I would find time to thank the fans of Steelton and Harrisburg for the treatment they gave me and my fighter, Texas Baylor, when he injured his arm in his bout with Johnny Gill at Steelton. "As soon as the doctor examined Baylor and announced that he was unable to continue, every one in the place was satisfied and there was not one kicking registered. The fans certainly proved their sportsmanship, and as soon as Baylor is O. K. I will be glad to box Gill again and show the fans that this cowboy can do after he gets warmed up. "I would also like to state that if Promoter Barrett continues to give the same kind of shows as the last one, I will be very glad until he will have to get a larger place, as the boxing fans will grow with each show. I also have a boy I would like to show in Steelton against Billy Angelo. He is Paddy Sylvester, who is just out of the service. "Paddy was a boxing instructor in the Southern training corps and also won the lightweight championship of the above corps. Sylvester is no stranger, having boxed several times in Harrisburg, beating Tim Droney the last time he fought there."

Rate Back in Game Is Hope of Coach Keady

South Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 21.—There will be no more hard work for the Lehigh squad before to-morrow's game. Coach Keady is satisfied with the condition of his men and intends to give them just enough work to keep them on edge from now on. The coaches concentrated their efforts in perfecting the varsity in their new formations. The men

Donze Only American Is Victorious in Denmark Battle

Uncle Sam's trio of amateur boxers, who are touring Scandinavian countries, encountered an unexpected setback in their initial foreign appearance, according to a cablegram received at New York A. A. U. headquarters. The team is composed of Aston Donze, of New Orleans, national 115-pound champion; Frank Cassidy, of the Ozanam A. A., New York, national 135-pound titleholder, and John Burke, of the Willow A. C., of Pittsburgh. Of the trio only Donze came through his first bout victoriously.

The team arrived at Bergen, Norway, November 10, and made its first competitive appearance in a tournament conducted at the Sparta Club, Copenhagen, Denmark, last Saturday night. Donze drew as his opponent one Holm, and gained the judges' award rather handsily. Cassidy exchanged blows with a boxer by the name of Johansen and was defeated in three stiffly contested rounds, according to the cablegram sent by Emil Andersen, secretary of the Sparta Club. Burke met a tartar in the person of one Andersen, who gained a referee's decision over the Pittsburgh boxer. Whether this meant that Burke was knocked out or was beaten in an extra round match was a matter of decision over the local officials, but the opinion was held that Burke was defeated on points when the judges disagreed, inasmuch as the cablegram stated that the bouts in which Cassidy and Burke participated were close. Burke has never experienced the sensation of being knocked out since he started his amateur career more than a year ago.
